Sternberg Vaults 16-8; 6 Spikers Run Sub-4 Mile

Compton, Calif. - Brian Sternberg, University of Washington, pole vaulted to a new record height of 16 feet, eight inches here Friday night and six runners toured the mile in under the once magical four-minute figure at the Compton Invitational Track meet.

New Zealand's Peter Snell closed out his American invasion by leading five others under four minutes - the first time such a feat has been recorded in a single meet.

Snell, with another tremendous burst of speed in the last 110 yards, shot to a 3:55.0 timing for the fourth fastest mile of all time.

Jim Beatty, however, was only six yards behind at the finish. The slightly built Los Angeles star ran the distance in 3:59.1.

Former Oregon stars Dyrrol Burleson and Jim Grelle ran third and fourth in 3:55.6 and in 3:55.5; an American citizen came Cary Weisiger of the Marines in 3:59.1, Morgan Groth of Oregon State in 4:00.8 and Harry McCalla of Stanford in 4:02.2.

Groth's time set an all-time Oregon State school record.

Said Sternberg after his record vault: "This event is going up and up. Where it's going to stop, I don't know."

Four men cleared 16 feet or better Friday night, which should stand as a record for at least a week or so.

Chateaugay Slips By Candy Spots To Emerge Belmont Stakes Victor

New York - (UPI) - Chateaugay the Kentucky Derby winner denied a triple crown triumph when he was second at the Preakness Stakes, streaked along the rail in the stretch at Aqueduct Saturday to sweep past favored Candy Spots and win the 95th running of the $145,450 Belmont Stakes.

In a stunning upset Chateaugay once again started his big run on the turn into the stretch just as he did in the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness. At Church Hill Downs he swept on to victory while at Pimlico in the Preakness he failed to overtake Candy Spots.

But in this testing mile and one-half classic Chateaugay's stretch rally was more than enough to carry him to victory by two and one-half lengths.

Candy Spots, who went to the front when the early pace proved very slow, easily took second by a length over Choker with Tom Cat fourth.

When Candy Spots went to the front entering the backstretch it looked as if he had the race at his mercy. The lanky spotted colt owned by Rex C. Ellsworth galloped along unextended. Suddenly near the end of the backstretch he appeared to stumble and Bonjour and Choker charged up at him.

Jockey Braulio Baeza had Chateaugay back in fourth place running easily behind the slow pace of 49 2/5 for the first quarter, 1:14 3/5 for six furlongs and 1:39 3/5 for the mile.

Candy Spots, going down to his second defeat in 10 races, easily turned back those challenges and again opened up a big lead on the turn in the stretch. He looked like a certain winner to the crowd of 53,281 which had bet him down to 1 to 2.

Shoemaker took Candy Spots a little wide entering the stretch and there was a big hole for Chateaugay. Through the opening Baeza gunned the colt owned by the Darby Dan Farm of John W. Galbreath . . . the crowd, which already had conceded the race to Candy Spots, suddenly stirred to life.

The comparatively quiet stands started to buzz, when Chateaugay pulled even with Candy Spots with a little more than an eighth of a mile to go, they started to roar.

There wasn't even a brief battle as Chateaugay went by and he won as he pleased to avenge his defeat by Candy Spots in the Preakness.

The final time, a record for a mile and one-half at Aqueduct since this was the first such race run there, was 2:30 1/5, hardly close to the American record of 2:26 3/5 set at Belmont by Gallant Fox in the 1930 Belmont Stakes.

Chateaugay earned a winner's purse of $101,700 to swell his earnings for the year to $266,470 and his lifetime mark to $279,057. He paid $11.00, $2.90 and $2.70 across the board while Candy Spots paid $2.30 and $2.20 and Choker returned $3.80.

Southern Cal Favored To Nab NCAA Track Title

Albuquerque, N. M. - (UPI) - The University of Southern California is favored to oust defending champion University of Oregon next week at the 42nd annual National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) track and field championships June 13-15.

There are 111 teams in the championship meet, composed of 403 individuals entered in 583 spots.

The 13-man Southern Cal team is not as large as the 20-man delegation from Oregon, but ruled as the pre-meet favorite. Such stars as Julio Marin, steeplechase; Rex Cawley, 440 and low hurdles; Lou Hoyt, high jumper; Bryan Tolkinghorne, high hurdler; and Larry Stuart in the javelin, are on the Trojan team.

Oregon has hopes of a first place from such men as Mel Renfro, hurdles and broad jump, and Keith Foreman in distance races.

Other teams with large delegations include Oregon State, 18 men; Stanford, 12; San Jose State, 11; and Villanova, 10.

The three-night event at the new 30,000-seat University of New Mexico stadium will feature the nation's top collegiate track and field performers. Meet officials expect it to be the best cinder show in the nation this year.

Survey Shows Trout Disperse Quickly From Stocking Point

Portland - Do hatchery-released trout remain near the spot where they were stocked to become easy prey for the angler? This claim is often made by a few fishermen who state anglers in the know congregate at points of release and catch all the trout before other anglers have a chance.

Marked legal plants made this spring tend to refute such claims as revealed by the migration pattern of the fish stocked from the beginning of the season on April 20 to the present time.

Joe Wetherbee, district fishery biologist for the game commission in the mid-Willamette area, reports that one group of marked rainbow trout was released near the mouth of the North Santiam. According to Wetherbee, these fish could be followed down the north shore of Detroit reservoir from day to day by merely checking bank anglers. By the third day after planting, marked fish from this group were being checked three miles from the release point. Although marked trout were readily taken near the release site the day of liberation, few anglers had success in the area the next day.

Another plant with different markings was released in the Mongold area. These fish could also be followed along

Get Yanks New Game; Tiger Turn

United Press International - There's a new game in the American league and it looks like anybody is eligible to play it.

It's called, "Get those Yankees while the getting is good."

The "getting is good" these days because Mickey Mantle is brooding with a broken bone in his left foot and the mighty world champions just don't look the same without him.

It was the Detroit Tiger's turn to take a whack at the Mantleless Yankees Friday night and they made the most of it with an 8-4 victory that dealt New York its second straight loss and fifth in six games.

Hank Aguirre, an old Yankee killer, spaced out nine hits and Al Kaline hit a three-run homer to lead the Tiger attack. And, as if to show their scorn for the crippled champs, Detroit fans celebrated a double by Hank - his second big league hit - by showering Yankee right fielder Roger Maris with debris.

It was Aguirre's second win in three decisions with the Yankees this year and raised his lifetime record against them to 7-4. The Tigers have beaten the Yankees five times in six meetings this season - despite the fact that they are 17-27 against the rest of the league.

Lunt Wins British Am. Golf Title

St. Andrews, Scotland - (UPI) - Michael Lunt, 28-year-old English textiles executive, won the British Amateur Golf championship Saturday when he defeated eccentric John Blackwell of England 2 and 1, in their scheduled 36-hole final.

Lunt won the coveted British crown by pulling his game together on the afternoon round after both finalists had shot badly to wind up all-even at the end of the morning 18 holes.

A hot sun beat down on the St. Andrews course for the first all-English final in 30 years.

Blackwell, a 49-year-old millionaire who took an occasional sip of vodka and orange juice around the course, frequently sat down on a collapsible chair, mopped his brow from the heat but did not joke with spectators as he did Friday.

Lunt reached the 36-hole final round by twice staving off rallies to score separate one hole victories over defending champion Dick Davies, Pebble Beach, Calif., and Dr. Ed Updegraff, Tucson, Ariz., Friday.

Blackwell disposed of England's David Moffat 2 and 1 and then downed Dr. Ron Lucetti, South San Francisco, Calif., 3 and 2.

Lunt beat four Americans on his way to the final round. Prior to his victories over Davies and Updegraff, he defeated Billy Nicks, Hollywood, Calif., in the second round and George Blocker, Jal, N. M., in the fourth.

Updegraff had reached the semifinal round by beating Walker Cup teammate Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., 2 and 1, and Lucetti had moved up with a 2 and 1 triumph over Peter Green of England.

Port Angeles	1	3	.250

Portland, Ore. - Lu Flanagan of Seattle was the early batting leader of the Northwest Women's Major Softball League, collecting three hits in four times at the plate in two league contests.

She claimed a .750 batting average. Among those with more times at bat Portland's all-American infielder, Carolyn Fitzwater of the Erv Lind Florists was the leader with a .400 average. Carolyn had collected 6 hits in 15 at bats.

Four league pitchers had perfect records in early season action. Boasting 2-0 marks were Pearl Pinion of the Salem Shamrocks, Ellen Callaghan of Rogue Valley Dairy Meads, Jackie Rice of the Florists and Flanagan.

The Seattle Art and Photo Supply team led team hitting statistics and the McCulloch Chain Saw entry from Eugene, Ore., was second. Seattle had a .351 average on 13 hits in 37 times at bat while McCulloch was hitting .240 on 30 hits in 125 times at the plate.

Statistics showed Pat Barron pacing the Rogue Valley Dairy Meads in hitting with 400. Among her teammates Sharon Isaacs had 333, Janet Pfaff 286 and Ellen Callaghan and Sue Conway each 273. The Meads were hitting .214 as a team.

$3,000 More Available for PSC Football

Portland - (UPI) - Portland State College athletic director Joe Holland announced Friday that $3,000 more was available for the school's football budget this year.

Holland said the money was over looked previously because of a budgetary mixup.

Tom DeSylvia resigned as PSC football coach earlier this week in a dispute with school officials over lack of money in his budget.

President Branford P. Millar accepted the resignation "with regret."

Portland - (UPI) - Portland State President Dr. Branford P. Millar has said he would curtail the PSC athletic program rather than risk player injuries.

He made the statement in the wake of the resignation of PSC football coach Tom DeSylvia.

Miller said he had informed the department of athletics and the individual coaches on "numerous occasions that economy will not be accepted as an excuse for jeopardizing the safety of any athlete at Portland State."

Miller said that in two separate talks with DeSylvia, the coach was assured he would have supplementary equipment necessary for safety, but new jerseys might be delayed because of the budget.

DeSylvia handed in his resignation Wednesday. He had requested in addition to new equipment, an allowance for coaching assistance. The request was under consideration when he quit.

The 1963 PSC football budget totaled $8,000, Millar said.

Cheney Studs Play At Ashland Legion In Afternoon Tilt

Ashland and Grants Pass will be the scenes of skirmish this afternoon in Area 4 Southern Division American Legion junior baseball.

Ashland will be host to Central Point Cheney Studs and Grants Pass to Tri-City in contests set for 1:30 p.m. on the high school diamonds of the two communities.

The Ashlanders are after their first win in four league games while Central Point, Grants Pass and Tri-City are knotted for third in the seven team league with 1-1 records.

Larry Pepper likely will be on the hill for Central Point which is expected to be at full strength for the tussle.

Other possible Studs' starters are: Darryl Summerfield, catcher; Bob Stroh, first base; Mike Glines, second base; Lou Alvarez, shortstop; Pat Pepper, third base, and Neil Rivenburg, Dave Twedell and Bob Corliss outfielders.

PILLOW TYCOON

New York - (UPI) - A Chicago pillow tycoon uses 65 carloads of latex foam rubber, 4.5 million yards of fabric in 500 shades, 5 million spools of thread and 3 million slide fasteners annually to make $5 million worth of foam rubber decorator pillows, according to the Latex Foam Rubber council.

Station wagon living is becoming quite the thing in those parts of the country where the Great Outdoors is fairly accessible. There's nothing so tempting to the outdoor-loving family as the prospect of weekend or vacation spent in hunting, fishing, camping, or tramping. The station wagon, with its ample storage space and room for sleeping is just the ticket for such jaunts. The station wagon is great for pulling a trailer or boat. Here you've got room and pulling power for the steep roads you're liable to run into as you head for the hills. When you get to your destination, you've got your roof over your head, contact with the outside world via radio, and the ability to pull stakes and move out if the weather or the fishing prove unfavorable.

Also, when CARL'S EASTSIDE SHELL services your station wagon, you know you can drive anywhere confidently. With powerful Super Shell gas and Shell Premium oils plus complete lube and safety check, you're ready for any road. Call 772-9017 for FREE pickup and delivery or drive into 700 E. MAIN for fast, efficient service.

Rigney Says No More Days Off

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Manager Bill Rigney cast a vote Saturday in favor of eliminating days off for his Los Angeles Angels who seem to go into a tailspin every time they draw a bye.

And Friday night was no exception as the Minnesota Twins zipped to a 6-1 victory and moved into fourth place just three weeks after having dropped to last in the American league.

The hustling Twins as of Friday had won 16 out of their last 20 games since May 15.

"We seem to have a pattern of playing worse after a day off," Rigney commented. "Maybe we should eliminate them."

Pro Kegling Tour Gets Under Way

Portland, Ore. - The summer tour of the Professional Bowlers association got under way last week at Johnny Unitas Colt Lanes in Baltimore with a $20,400 up for division among 96 of the world's top bowlers.

The Baltimore tournament is the one of 20 such kegling events for the professionals this summer.

The pros again are setting their sights on Californian Andy Marzich, who was the scourge of last year's summer tour, and who continued to lead this year's pack with three victories and more than $21,000 in winnings since January 1.

The PBA introduced its new format in Baltimore in which the qualifying leader is allowed to carry over his pinfall from the qualifying round of 24 games into a head to head round robin series of games with 15 other finalists.

From Baltimore, the tour wends its way to Warren, Ohio; Schenectady, N. Y.; Montreal, Canada; Chicago, Rockford and Alton, Ill.; Ft. Smith, Arkansas; Meridian, Miss.; San Antonio, Texas; Tucson, and Phoenix, Arizona; San Diego, Los Angeles and San Jose, California; Portland, Oregon, for the City of Roses Open on September 19-22; Seattle and Spokane Washington; Salt Lake City, Utah, and ending in Las Vegas, Nevada, October 18-18.

Portland Splits Doubleheader

United Press International - Dallas-Fort Worth's Pedro (Tony) Oliva was a shining knight in defeat and Bobby Gene Smith of Seattle a hero in victory in the Pacific Coast league - both for the same reason.

Each belted a pair of two-run homers Friday night. The one difference was that Smith's team won but Oliva's lost. Both Oliva and Smith are outfielders.

Smith's second and third four-baggers of the season carried pitcher Pete Smith (6-4) to an 8-1 victory over Portland in the second game of a doubleheader. The Beavers captured the seven-inning opener 6-1 on home runs by Manny Jimenez, Chet Boak and Dick Green.
