

Jeskey-Trautman Rites Held in Central Point

Central Point—Miss Sharon Louise Trautman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Boes, Route 1, Box 589F, became the bride of William Paul Jeskey, Route 1, Box 587, in a ceremony held at the Community Bible church May 29.

The Rev. Paul O. Kroon officiated at the double ring rites held at 8 o'clock in the evening. Some 250 relatives and friends attended.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jeskey, Aurora, Ore., who traveled here for the ceremony. Also attending were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marcott, Woodburn, Ore.

Baskets of white stock greenery and candles decorated the church. Salmon and green feathers marked the pews ends. Mrs. Harold Sharp played the organ music for her niece's wedding and soloists were Miss Beverly Todd and Gerald Holdridge.

Wears Lace
Mr. Boes escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with Basque bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline embroidered with pearls and tridescant sequins. The bouffant skirt was accented with a wide band of tulle which was applied with lace trimmed with pearls and sequins. The back of the skirt had alternating tiers of lace and tulle which formed a chapel train.

Her fingertip length veil of hand rolled silk illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis encircling two cymbidium orchids on a white Bible. Her jewelry was a cultured pearl and diamond necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Bride's Attendants
Attending the bride were Miss Sharon Thompson, maid of honor; Mrs. Larry Kemper, Medford, her cousin, bridesmaid; Miss Judy Daniels, Medford, bridesmaid; Miss DeAnn Trautman, another cousin, junior bridesmaid, and Teresa Boes, her sister, flower girl.

They all wore salmon colored crystalline frocks fashioned with fitted bodices and full skirts with matching circlet headdresses of feathers and tulle. They carried nosegay bouquets of white and salmon carnations except for Teresa Boes, who carried a basket of salmon colored carnations and white daisies.

Candlelighters were the Misses Cynthia Bartley, cousin of the bride, and Karen Jantver. Their frocks were of green crystalline and their wristlets were of matching feathers.

William Sallee, Woodburn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Ronald Jeskey, Dufur, Ore., and Jesse Mack, Gervais, Ore., his cousins. Raymond Trautman, brother of the bride was junior groomsmen. Seating the guests were Mr. Kemper and Kenneth Janzen, both Medford, cousins of the bride, Paul Evers and Ross Burd, Loren Smith, Redding, Calif., cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed in the youth auditorium at the church, Mrs. Boes chose a green sheath dress with flowered jacket, a green feathered hat and mink colored accessories. Mrs. Jeskey wore a beige sheath dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

Salmon colored roses, white camellias and green ostrich plumes decorated the room for the reception. All of the feather arrangements for the wedding and reception were made by Mrs. Darrell Shepherd, Mrs. DeWayne Smith, Redding, Calif., and Mrs. Dale Bartley, cut and served the wedding cake baked by Mrs. Ray Britton. Mrs. John Anhorn and Mrs. Herbert Trautman presided at the punch bowls and Mrs. Art Sharp poured coffee. All are aunts of the bride.

Miss Joanne Hill was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Tony Varga, Wonder, Ore., another aunt, Mrs. Evers, and Miss Rose Trautman, sister of the bride, were at the gift table. Assisting were Mrs. Stanley Zwan, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Russell Thompson.

Travel to Coast
Following the reception the couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a beige sheath dress with matching coat and red accessories. Her corsage was the two orchids from her bridal bouquet. They are making their home at Route 1, Box 587, Central Point.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and is the receptionist in the superintendent's office for School District 6 in Central Point. Mr. Jeskey attended North

The evening prior to the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Boes were hosts for a dinner preceding the wedding rehearsal. Some 35 persons attended.

Out of Town Guests
Among the out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Sallee and daughter, Kay, Woodburn, Ore., sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Trautman, Seattle, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sandburg, Moses Lake, Wash., cousins of the bride; Mr. Varga, Wonder, uncle of the bride; Mrs. Charles Bell and daughters, Merced, Calif., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Silva and daughter, Glenna, Grants Pass.

Senior Activity Center Events Are Announced

Scenes taken of a world trip on board a freighter will be shown members of the Senior Activity center Arm Chair Travelers Monday, June 10 at 1 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Amy of Rogue Valley Manor, who made the trip, will show the pictures. Included will be pictures of the Philippines, the Orient, Red sea and Suez canal.

The slides are to be shown in a series of two, the second group to be viewed at the Monday, June 17 meeting.

Mrs. Judd Greenman and Mrs. Karl Knutson are arranging the program during the absence of Dr. Frank Roberts. Anyone having slides to show for the group is asked to contact this committee.

The class in sculpture will meet Tuesday, June 11 at 10 a.m., with their teacher, Mrs. Ruby Ralston.

The oil painting class meets each Tuesday afternoon directed by Mrs. Victoria Staley. Members of the Spanish class are to meet Wednesday, June 12 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon with Mrs. Alicia Carter, at the center, instead of their regularly scheduled time on Mondays. At that time the group will determine whether meetings will be held Mondays or Wednesdays. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Edith Brandenburg or W. H. Walwyn. The copper tooling group will meet Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m., and the senior center orchestra will rehearse Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m., directed by William Pickell. More string instrumentalists are needed and any senior resident interested is invited to join the group. Newcomers particularly are invited. The Saturday bridge group meets Saturday afternoons and further information regarding the group may be received from L. C. Davis, leader. In the absence of the chairman of the center committee, Mrs. Fred Rankin, members who have inquiries may contact Russ Jamison or John Gribble.

Shower Honors
O'Brien — Mrs. Wayne Hawkins recently was honored at a layette shower held in the home of Mrs. Della Shaw. Among the guests was her grandmother, Mrs. John Eye and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Neva Hawkins.

Installation Scheduled

Mrs. Donald Lee will be installed president of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational church at a meeting to be held at the Applegate river home of Mrs. Floyd Fogelquist Thursday, June 13.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will conduct the installation ceremony.

Others being installed and their offices are Mrs. Henry Padgham, first vice president; Miss Irma Barnea, second vice president; Mrs. Duane Richardson, secretary, and Mrs. Raymond Smith, treasurer.

At noon a potluck salad luncheon will be served. Men or members are to take rolls and others are asked to take a salad. Mrs. Charles Stearns is cohostess with Mrs. Fogelquist.

Those attending may meet at the Westgate Shopping Center at 10:15 a.m. to share rides and receive directions to the Fogelquist home.

Child care will be available at 749 West 14th street.

Luau Planned For Rebekahs; Awards Given

Olive Rebekah lodge members and their friends will be guests for a Hawaiian luau Tuesday, June 11, at noon at the home of Mrs. Henry Guss. Those wanting further information on reservations may contact Mrs. Garrett, 773-5553.

At the lodge's last meeting recently Mrs. Grace Mae Morrison became a member and delegates to the state assembly gave reports. Mrs. Esther Coleman, fraternal press chairman for the group, was presented a first prize from the assembly for having obtained the most subscriptions during the past year.

Mrs. Frank Chapman was presented a seal of perfection. The next lodge meeting is set for Monday, June 17 at 7:30 p.m., and following the meeting the members will attend a Friendship night observance in Jacksonville.

Natural Food Group To Meet

Natural Food associates will hear a talk on survival during their meeting Monday, June 10, at 7:45 p.m., in the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county downstairs rooms. Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr. is to speak.

Officers point out that the meeting is at the library rather than at the Medford High school.
