Tea Held by Providence Guild

The annual tea for members of Providence Guild of Sacred Heart hospital and their guests was held on Monday, June 8, at the home of Mrs. John Raapke.

A brief business meeting was called to order before tea was served, and officers for the coming year were elected and installed.

Mrs. Raapke will serve as president, and will be assisted by Mrs. John Mansfield, vice president. Mrs. Mario Campagna will continue as recording secretary, and Mrs. Charles Parlier will serve a second term as treasurer. Mrs. Carl von der Hellen was elected as corresponding secretary.

Mrs. John Boyle, president of Providence Guild during the past two years, was presented a past president's pin by Sister Luke, superintendent of Sacred Heart hospital. Guild members presented her with a gift of an engraved silver tray.

Mrs. Raapke presented Sister Luke with a scroll on which are written the names of past and present Providence Guild members. Additions to the scroll will be made as new members join the guild, and it will be placed in the cornerstone of the new Sacred Heart hospital when construction is begun.

Refreshments Served

Mrs. Charles Lasher and Mrs. Harold Bunce were co-chairmen for the tea. Mrs. Mansfield presided at the table, and Mrs. von der Hellen served the cake.

The table was covered with a cloth of sheer white linen, embroidered with flowers. A centerpiece bouquet of tall stems roses and orange blossoms was arranged in an oblong silver and crystal container, and white candles in silver candelabra lighted the table. Tea refreshments were provided by members of the committee: Mrs. Lawrence Duff, Mrs. Robert Duff, Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. Edith Devaney, Mrs. von der Hellen, Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., Mrs. Dwight Speer and Mrs. Ray Wise.

The tea was attended by approximately 40 members, and the guild adjourned until next fall.

Relatives of Pioneer Couple Hold Reunion

Talent — All eight children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow, early-day valley and Talent residents, met June 1 in Talent City Hall for a family reunion. With them were their husbands, wives, children, grandchildren and other relatives.

A dinner was served at 6:30 p.m. Late evening refreshments were served at the close of the gathering. The cake was made in the form of a family tree, with branches on which each of the eight children was named. Smaller cakes beneath the tree had the names of each of the grandchildren.

Sons and daughters-in-law of the early-day settlers attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Withrow, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Withrow, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William Withrow, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Withrow, Talent.

The daughters and sons-in-law attending were Mrs. Donna Goddard, Talent; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Barlow, Redding, Calif.; Mrs. Lucy Maxson, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Montgomery, Talent.

Among the 64 persons who attended, coming from outside of the Rogue valley, were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Akin and children, Marie and Rose Mary, Smith River, Calif., and Mrs. Leo Maturino and children, Sally, Susan, Jimmy, Keo and Richard, Redding, Calif.

Early Settlers — The late Mrs. Harry Withrow was the former Miss Mae Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Brown. Both the Brown and Withrow families came to the Rogue valley from Wisconsin, settling here in the early days, and both families were well known in Jackson and Klamath counties.

Mrs. O. T. Brown was the former Roxanna Gray. She was the first white woman resident at Fort Klamath in the 1860s, and the first white woman to visit Crater lake, also in the 1860s, according to historical accounts of southern Oregon.

On the visit to Crater lake.

OES Chapter Elects New Officers

Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will initiate candidates at its meeting Thursday, June 13, at 8 p.m., in the Medford Masonic temple. Reports of a recent grand chapter meeting held in Portland also will be given.

Mrs. Gene Dyke, worthy matron, and Ross Gilkinson, worthy patron will preside. Chairman for the evening will be Mrs. Don Waldron assisted by Mrs. Edith Grisby.

At the last meeting of the chapter, officers were elected. Mrs. Stewart Penington, was elected worthy matron; Stewart Penington, worthy patron; Mrs. Don Ashpole, associate matron; William A. Hatzl, associate patron; Mrs. Ray Bailey secretary; Mrs. Jessie Stagg, treasurer; Mrs. Rodney Witham, conductress, and Mrs. William A. Hatzl, associate conductress.

At a recent meeting of the chapter, 50-year members were honored. Receiving new pins were: Miss Kate McMurtrey and Mrs. Edith Gifford. Honored for 50 years or more were Mrs. Maude Duffy, Mrs. Josephine Clark, Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. Mary Fowler, Mrs. Mary Watkins. Unable to attend were Mrs. H. R. Burk and Mrs. Mabel Wright.

Keep a dry board near the fuse box to stand on while changing fuses. Be sure your hands are dry, too. The combination of moisture and electricity can cause a bad shock.

Members of the 1953 Medford High school graduation class plan for a reunion of the group to be held July 13 in the Rogue Valley Country club. A number of the members have not yet been contacted and a list of these former students is being published in the hope that they may be located. Anyone with information may contact Mrs. James Singler, telephone 664-1167.

Miss Vanderlip To Be Student At Island School

Ashland-Miss Pamela Vanderlip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Vanderlip, 235 Hillcrest street, will be one of a party of college students who will spend the summer in Hawaii attending the University of Hawaii. The group will meet in San Francisco June 23 for the plane trip to the islands. Miss Vanderlip has just completed her freshman year at Southern Oregon college.

O. T. Brown worked in the first blacksmith shop in Phoenix, then known as Gasburg. He and a Will Smith contracted to shoe government stock at the newly established Camp Baker, on Coleman creek. At that time a company of cavalry was being formed in Jackson county as the result of the Civil war.

The late Harry Withrow's father, Charles Withrow, a veteran of the Revolutionary war, farmed both in Jackson and Klamath counties. Later he and his wife lived with the late Harry Withrows, who operated stock ranches in both counties. For a time they lived between the two ranches, later moving to the ranch seven miles south of Ashland and then to Talent.

The young man, who was graduated last week from Medford High school, plans to stop en route in Hawaii.

MANOR-ISMS . . . .

By ETHELYN EVANS

In addition to our San Jose State college president emeritus, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, the Manor has two professors emeritus.

One is Miss Clara Hinze, who was graduated from the University of California and taught for 43 years at San Jose—before, during and after Dr. MacQuarrie's presidency. Miss Hinze initiated the study of "human geography," the first in California and almost the first in the United States, although it was being taught extensively abroad. Without formal text books at the time, she had to work out her own study programs and methods. Naturally, she remained head of that department until her retirement. She was one of the first members to enter Rogue Manor, and her hobby has been gardening. She has never ceased to work diligently, helping to landscape our grounds.

The other professor emeritus is Miss Emily DeVore. Miss DeVore was graduated from Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, and received degrees from Stanford and Columbia universities. Specializing in early childhood education, she wrote books which were used in California schools for many years, was principal of training schools and head of demonstration workshops, and taught at a number of institutions. She was on Dr. MacQuarrie's faculty for 21 years and was advisor for Delta Phi Epsilon students. The alumnae association of this National Honor society has named its annual scholarship the "DeVore-Crumby" scholarship.

Miss DeVore had a real reason for choosing Rogue Manor for her retirement home. She taught in Medford schools for several years and was principal of Roosevelt school. I learn that Allan Perry and Mrs. Perry were among her many pupils. She also organized the first Parent-Teacher association in Medford.

Painting in water color, oils, and tempera is her hobby, and she has exhibited in a number of California shows. She is a welcome addition to our Medford and Manor art circles.

We also have in the Manor one of Dr. MacQuarrie's students — Mrs. Blanch Cowbrough—who majored in art and English and taught those subjects for many years. Her last teaching position was in Lakeview, Ore., where her late husband was in charge of the American Forest Products projects.

Mrs. Cowbrough has been one of our blythe spirits in the Manor from the time it opened. She is interested in and takes part in all activities. Not even a broken leg could slow her down for long, since she soon mastered the trick of using crutches and continued to go places and do things.

At a delightful party given by Mrs. Stephen Hayes for her houseguest, Mrs. Marion Redwine, Los Angeles, Calif., we also met the sister of Mark Goldy, Mrs. Gladys Barber, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Goldy in the Manor. Also, Mrs. D. Ford McCormick's sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kilcarr, Trenton, N.J., who are guests in the Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hammond have been planning for several months on a move north to be near their two sons and their grandchildren, so they are leaving next month. The Hammonds will be missed in the valley as well as in the Manor, since they have been interested in civic and community affairs, have helped with work for the blind and at the Senior Activity Center, have taken an active part in Republican organizations, and have been faithful workers in the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Evans invited a few couples who have been bridge-pals of the Hammonds for dinner and bridge. Notable at this party, were the flowers in clubroom and apartment which came

Jaycettes Install

A joint installation banquet for the Jaycees and Jaycettes, held recently at the American Legion hall, was attended by George Burns, Grants Pass, international director of Jaycees, and Frank Brawner, Portland, state president of the organization.

A guest was Miss Joan Callaghan, Eagle Point, who recently was chosen Miss Rogue Valley.

Mr. Burns was installing officer for the Jaycettes. Mrs. Everett Payton was installed president; Mrs. Wallace Williams and Mrs. Bill Southwell, first and second vice president; Mrs. James Rouhier, secretary and Mrs. Ted Dow treasurer.

Baptist Women Plan Program

Mrs. Don Minear will give the missionary program for Women's fellowship of First Baptist church Tuesday, June 11 in Girls Community club. Her subject will concern work being done by Richard Madden, a Conservative Baptist missionary working in Ruzhuru, Congo.

The meeting will open at 12:30 p.m. Dessert luncheon will be served by members of Elizabeth circle with Mrs. Don Casatiello, chairman.

A business session will follow the program, conducted by Mrs. Ron Brennehan, president. A prayer session will close the meeting, led by Mrs. Nell Gardner.

Security Club Announces Dance

Security Benefit club members planned a dance for June 21 during their meeting last week. Details of the event are to be announced as further arrangements are made.

The club meets each Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., in the Pythian building. Luncheon is served at noon and following a 1 p.m. business session the group joins in dancing from 2 to 4 p.m. All interested persons are invited.

from the gardens of Mrs. Berthold Barnum and other friends and arranged by Mrs. James Lium of the Manor. We were deeply grateful and the flowers were greatly admired by all who saw them, including our Administrator, who—when taking several strangers through the Manor—was pleased to show the lovely flowers and the club room set up for a party.

KNOW YOUR FURNITURE

PEASANTS BROUGHT US FRENCH PROVINCIAL

When Louis XV reigned, France was notoriously extravagant. Court furniture was ornate.

Out in the provinces, Frenchmen less wealthy were making furniture, too. Cupboards of wood from the cherry tree, and armchairs upholstered in colorful linens were common.

Norman version of Louis XV

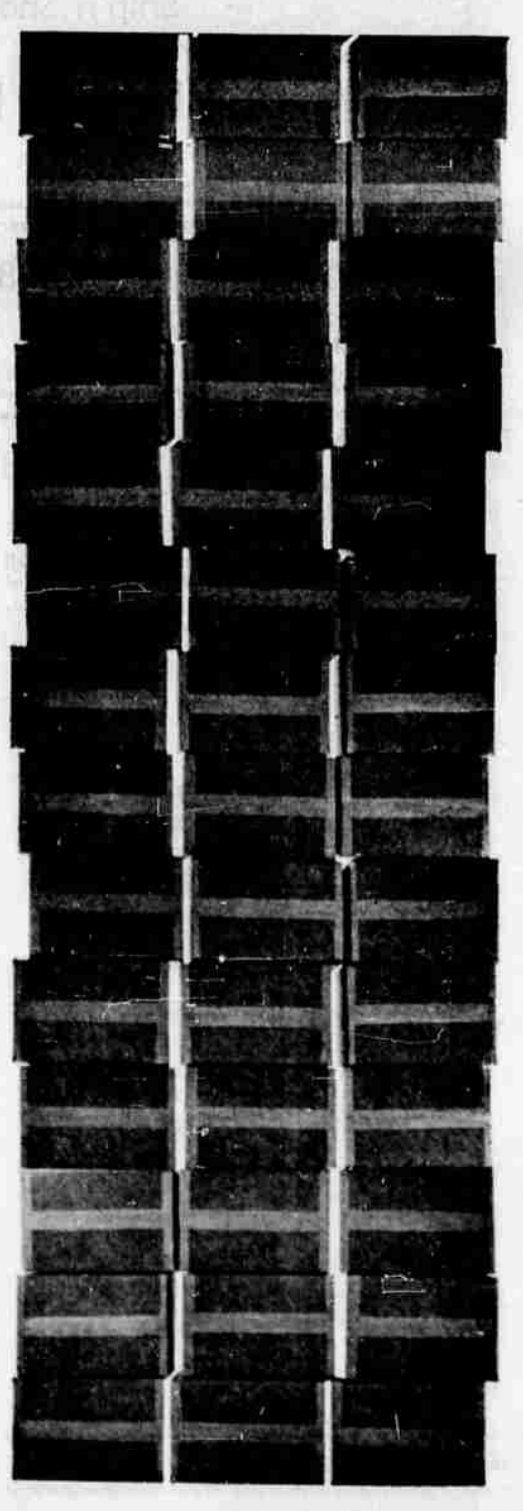

In style they copied the Emperor's court furnishings, but made it more comfortable and informal. And this was the real beginning of French Provincial furniture.

"Out in the provinces," we, too, like nice furniture, and French Provincial is a favorite with us! You can see bedroom sets, dining furniture, and living room pieces tastefully displayed on our sales floor. There's a warmth and charm in the soft curved line of French Provincial, handsomely finished in glowing fruitwood finish by expert craftsmen, to give you years of prideful ownership. Please come in and let our friendly staff show you how to correlate this fine furniture into your home decorating scheme.
