Colts Tip Giants 3-0 In First Major League Sunday Night Game

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Sunday night baseball may never replace drive-in movies but the customers sure liked it because they got a chance to cool off and see the hottest pitching staff in the majors at the same time.

A crowd of 17,437, well above Houston's day-time average took in major league baseball's first Sunday night game in history last night and whooped in delight as the Colts handed the San Francisco Giants their seventh straight defeat, 3-0.

The whole idea of Sunday night games was to beat the intense day-time heat in Houston and it worked out fine when the game was played in pleasant 79-degree temperature compared with 95 degrees during the day.

Houston's pitchers have been even hotter than that recently, yielding a total of only two runs in the Colts last three games.

Knuckleballer Skinny Brown, a 38-year-old American league retread, was Houston's pitching star Sunday night when he took over for starter Dick Farrell in the third inning and held the Giants to one hit over the last 6 1-3 innings for his first victory of the season.

Yields Lone Single

Brown, who struck out six and did not walk a batter, gave up only a fourth inning single to Willie Mays, who was wiped out stealing.

The veteran right-hander, picked up in May as a free agent after being released by the Yankees, was summoned from the bullpen after Farrell pulled a back muscle. Farrell had given up three hits.

The Colts scored two of their three runs off loser Jack Sanford, now 7-5, with Carl Warwick singling home the first one, John Bateman singling home the second and Howie Goss' double accounting for the final one in the eighth.

Dodgers Beat Cubs

The first-place Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 11-8, despite three homers by Ernie Banks; the New York Mets took the opener from the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-7, but lost the nightcap, 10-4; Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati, 8-7, in 10 innings, then dropped the second game, 3-1, and Pittsburgh blanked Milwaukee, 4-0, but lost the finale, 5-3.

Ddaw Large Crowd

A crowd of 35,743, the largest Cubs' home attendance in three seasons, watched the Dodgers capitalize on four errors and two wild pitches for their fifth consecutive victory despite Banks' three homers that brought his season total to 13.

A four-run barrage in the fifth, which included back-to-back homers by Ron Santo and Banks, routed starter Sandy Koufax, but the Dodgers kayoed loser Dick Ellsworth with a four-run rally of their own in the sixth. Tommy Davis had four of the winners' 13 hits, including a homer.

The Mets won their first game from the Cardinals with the help of three gift runs and turned around and presented the Red Birds with four tainted runs in the nightcap.

Jim Hickman's bases-loaded walk, Bill White's error and a wild pitch enabled the Mets to put together a decisive three-run seventh inning rally in the opener, after which Cardinal catcher Tim McCarver got a freak inside-the-park grand slam homer when Met center - fielder Rod Kanehl fell down while camping under his routine fly in the eighth inning of the nightcap. Galen Cisco (3-5) and Ray Sadecki (3-4) were the winning pitchers.

Rally In Ninth

The Phillies scored five runs in the ninth to tie the score in their opener with the Reds and Bobby Wine's infield single produced the winning run in the 10th. Don Demeter, Jim Lemon and John Callison each homered in the ninth. Callison also had connected in the first inning.

John Tsitouris of the Reds hurled a four-hitter for his first win of the season in the nightcap as Vada Pinson and Pete Rose helped him out with home runs.

Warren Spahn needed Bob Shaw's help in the eighth but still posted the 335th victory of his major league career and his eighth of the season in the Braves' nightcap triumph over the Pirates. The Braves reached loser Don Cardwell for three runs in the first inning and picked up two more in the eighth with the aid of three errors.

Bob Friend stopped Milwaukee on five hits for his eighth victory in the opener. Ted Savage and Donn Clendenon each homered off Denny Lemaster, who was charged with his fourth defeat in six decisions.

Dodgers Have Bad News for San Francisco

Los Angeles – (UPI) – More bad news for the San Francisco Giants: The Dodgers' Maury Wills and Tommy Davis are acting like hitting fools these days.

As if the Giants didn't have enough troubles with their seven-game losing streak, they come into Dodge Stadium tonight for a two-game series with the first-place Los Angeles club which is enjoying the return to form of its 1962 batting heroes.

When Wills, last year's most valuable player in the National league, returned to the lineup on the road trip the Dodgers ended a five-game losing streak and now boast a string of five consecutive wins.

Three Run Double

The Dodger shortstop-third baseman has 11 hits in 22 at bats since rejoining the club and turned the tide in Sunday's game with the Cubs with a base-emptying, three-run double which led to an 11-8 victory.

Tommy Davis, who was injured earlier in the season, had three singles and a home run in the Cub game to bring his batting average up to .329, third best in the league.

The Dodger left fielder, who led the league in hitting and runs batted in last year, is a Giant nemisis – having hit .452 against them in 1962 and continued his clouting off Giant hurling again this year.

In six meetings so far this season, the Dodgers have won four games.

That's what many authorities on child health are saying nowadays. They view with growing concern the lack of vigorous activity that once kept young bodies "in shape." They strongly urge more daily exercise to improve the physical condition of every girl and every boy.
What can you do about this problem? First, you should find out about the physical education program in your child's school. Talk it over with your local school officials.
If your child's school doesn't have a program calling for at least 15 minutes of vigorous activity every day, urge the adoption of a program that will do so.
A basic program has been developed which any school can easily get started. For information about it, write to The President's Council on Physical Fitness, Washington 25, D. C.

Golfers Contest For Open Spots

United Press International

The final shooting started today for berths in the 1963 National Open golf championship.

A total of 484 of the nation's top shotmakers — most of them survivors of preliminary competition held two weeks ago — were to battle it out today and Tuesday for 129 spots in the Open, which will be held at the Country Club, Brookline, Mass., June 20-22.

The Open field actually will consist of 150 players, but 21 men, including defending champion Jack Nicklaus, were exempt for the qualifying rounds.

In today's 36-hole qualifying competition, 129 golfers vied for 30 berths at seven sites scattered around the country. The other 99 berths will be up for grabs Tuesday when 355 players compete at six sites.

Grieving McBride Does Great Job For LA's Angels

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Grieving Ken McBride had little desire for baseball Sunday.

No one in the world would have blamed him had he decided not to pitch. But he forced himself to and turned in a magnificent job, considering his heart and mind were 2,400 miles away.

Only a few hours before he was scheduled to pitch against the Minnesota Twins at Los Angeles Sunday, the Angel right - hander was informed that his younger brother, Clifton, 24, had been killed in a Cleveland auto accident.

Manager Bill Rigney told McBride he could leave for Cleveland immediately and another pitcher would take his turn.

McBride said he'd rather pitch before joining his family.

Defeats Twins

"I felt it would take my mind off what happened," he said, then went out and beat the Twins, 4-2, although he needed Mel Nelson's help in the ninth.

"I thought about what happened back in Cleveland a couple of times while I was working a couple of long innings but I tried to keep it out of my mind," he revealed later.

The Twins, who had a four-game winning streak going, looked as if they were going to kayo McBride in a hurry when they scored a run off him in the first inning and another in the second on Jimmie Hall's homer.

But the 27-year-old blanked them thereafter without any trouble until he put two men on in the ninth. Nelson came in at that point and struck out pinch hitters Wally Post and Johnny Goryl to preserve McBride's sixth victory.

McBride fanned seven and allowed seven hits in the 8⅓ innings he pitched. The Angels got to Jim Perry for three runs in the fourth inning and picked up one more off Ray Moore in the eighth.

Chisox In First

Elsewhere in the American league, the Chicago White Sox took over first place with a 4-3 triumph over the Kansas City A's, the Boston Red Sox beat the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2, in 14 innings, the New York Yankees ended a three-game losing slide with a 6-2 win over the Detroit Tigers, and the Cleveland Indians downed the Washington Senators, 7-3.

Pete Ward paced the White Sox into first place when he collected three hits, including his sixth homer, and scored two runs against the Athletics. Juan Pizarro picked up his sixth victory in a relief role while Bill Fischer suffered his second loss in nine decisions. Ed Charles homered for the A's.

Chuck Schilling singled home Russ Nixon with the tying run for the Red Sox in the ninth inning and then singled home Nixon with the winning run in the 14th to drop the Orioles into second place. Schilling's game-winning single came off loser Stu Miller. Dick Radatz blanked Baltimore on two hits and struck out 10 over the last six innings for his fourth victory in five decisions.

Home runs by Harry Bright, Tom Tresh, Clete Boyer and Hector Lopez helped southpaw Whitey Ford register his eighth victory for the Yankees in their game with the Tigers. Rookie Mickey Lolich was the losing pitcher.

Woodie Held drove in three runs with a double and two singles and Vic Davalillo and Fred Whitfield also collected three hits apiece in Cleveland's 16-hit offensive against Washington. Gary Bell, second of three Tribe pitchers, was credited with his third victory while Tom Cheney suffered his seventh setback. Davalillo and Chuck Hinton hit homers.

WINS BELMONT—Chateaugay romps home the winner over heavily favored Candy Spots in the Belmont Stakes at Aqueduct Racetrack in New York Saturday. Choker finished third, Ton. Cat fourth, Insurrection fifth, and Top Gallant sixth. The seventh horse, Bonjour, was out of the picture.–(UPI)

Reason Given In Belmont Victory

New York – (UPI) – Chateaugay's trainer today offered an explanation for the Colt's defeat in the Preakness Stakes after winning the Kentucky Derby so convincingly and then coming back Saturday with a smashing victory in the Belmont Stakes.

That second-place finish in the Preakness cost Chateaugay a clean sweep of the Triple Crown classics just as in other years defeat in the Pimlico race proved the undoing of Zev, Twenty Grand, Johnstown, Shut Out, Middleground and Needles. They, too, won the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes but were found wanting in the Preakness.

"I think we may have learned something from all this," said Jimmy Conway, who trains Chateaugay for the Darby Dan Farm of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Galbreath.

Three-Week Gap

"I think he wants a little more time between races," he said of the bright chestnut colt who won the Blue Grass Stakes nine days prior to his Kentucky Derby triumph but then was second to Candy Spots two weeks later in the Preakness. There was a three-week gap until the Belmont.

Conway had no immediate plans for Chateaugay.

"We'll have to wait and see. We really have no plans for him yet," he said of the colt which won the rubber match with Candy Spots when he licked his rival by two and one-half lengths in the testing mile and one-half Belmont Stakes.

SCHOOL'S OUT...CHILDREN PLAYING...DRIVE CAREFULLY...

The boys and girls in Medford and the Rogue River Valley are out of school now to enjoy a summer of fun. PLEASE help them to keep enjoying it! Youngsters will still be going to school playgrounds and playing at home . . . they are apt to dash into the street anytime . . . into the path of YOUR car. The Medford Traffic Safety Council urges YOU to make SAFE DRIVING a very personal responsibility. Have your car thoroughly checked for safety . . . be doubly careful to observe traffic signs and regulations . . . . watch out for children everywhere – and give them the right of way!
