

Marichal, McCovey Combine As SF Giants Blast Dodgers Out of First With 3-0 Win

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants' long suit is power but don't try to tell the Los Angeles Dodgers they lack pitching.

Not as long as there's a fellow named Juan Marichal on the Giant roster.

Marichal is known as the Giants' "big pitcher" — the one they like to match against their rival's ace. He throws with a sweeping, high-kicking motion and he beat the Dodgers three times in four tries last season en route to an overall 18-11 record.

The 26-year-old right-hander made it two out of three for this season Tuesday night when he pitched a seven-hit 3-0 victory that knocked the Dodgers out of the National League lead and paved the way for the St. Louis Cardinals to take over the top rung. The win raised Marichal's record to 9-3 and was especially impressive because it came against Don Drysdale, the 25-year-old Cy Young Award winner and Cy Young Award ace of the 1962 Los Angeles staff.

Swings Big Stick

Willie McCovey, the free-swinging San Francisco left fielder, swung the big stick for the Giants — a three-run homer which he sliced to left field in the sixth inning. It's the kind of thing the Giants have come to expect from McCovey, who tagged Drysdale for 19 hits, including seven homers, four doubles and a triple, in 35 at-bats last season.

Marichal, who struck out four and didn't walk a batter, was in trouble only in the third inning when the Dodgers' singles filled the bases with two out but he struck out Ron Fairly to end the threat. The loss evened Drysdale's record at 7-7.

Cards Beat Bucs

The Cardinals beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-1, the Houston Colts defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6-2, in 10 innings, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Milwaukee Braves, 8-7, in 10 innings and the Cincinnati Reds whipped the New York Mets, 8-3, in other NL action.

Bob Gibson pitched a six-hitter and struck out eight for the Cardinals, who moved into first place, one game ahead of the Dodgers and Giants. The big fireballer also hit a run-scoring single to help earn his fifth win and deal Don Schwall his fourth loss. Bill White had a homer and a single and Dick Groat two singles for the Cardinals.

His Grand Slam

Bob Aspromonte's grand slam 10th-inning homer gave Houston relief star Hal Woodeshick his sixth win. Woodeshick led off the winning rally with a single and the bases were filled on an error by losing pitcher Lindy McDaniel and a deliberate walk. Ernie Banks had three hits for the Cubs.

Jack Baldschun earned his fourth win for the Phillies when Cal Darymple singled with the bases filled in the 10th inning. The Braves had taken a 7-6 lead in the top of the inning with the help of Mack Jones' fourth steal of the game — one short of the modern record — and Roy McMillan's third run-producing single. Bob Shaw was the loser for the Braves.

Jim Maloney pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 batters in eight innings to win his ninth game for the Reds, whose 12-hit attack was paced by homers by Vada Pinson and Tommy Harper.

Al Jackson, tagged for four runs and six hits in two innings, suffered his sixth loss for the Mets.

Jay Allen Softball Winner; United Grocers, CWA Deadlock

Jay Allen Cars whipped Southern Oregon Dry Kiln 10 to 3 yesterday evening.

The evening's other encounter was a tremendous, well-played affair but it wound up being called no contest. Communications Workers of America and United Grocers battled 11 innings. The game was then halted by darkness with the score tied 2 to 2.

Complete replay will be required. It is hoped to arrange the game on Monday. It will be the second replay for United Grocers. The Grocers face Central Point Merchants this evening in a rematch at Jackson school. These two clubs played to a 1 to 1 knot on May 31. Darkness halted action after eight frames.

Game time this evening is 8:30 o'clock.

Walks Help

Jay Allen and Dry Kiln came out even on hits last evening with eight each but the Car team had the aid of five bases on balls while Jay Allen pitcher Willard Barnum did not walk a man. Allen hits were scattered among seven players with only Tom Perdue getting two. Dick Kuschel, Wayne Archer and Wayne Gillaspay each hit safely twice for Dry Kiln. Archer and Jerry Shults of Jay Allen homered.

Three hits, two walks and an error got five Jay Allen runs in the first inning.

CWA came close to winning its game with United in the 10th inning. John Bigham tripled. He tried to stretch his hit to a homer but a good throw from the outfield by Dale Matheny and a perfect relay heave by pitcher Duke Anderson got Bigham out at the plate.

CWA pitcher Rick Nelson fanned 16 batters in a five-hitter and allowed only one base on balls. Duke Anderson hurled seven-hit ball for the Grocers with 14 strikeouts and one walk. Anderson and Shepherd each had two hits for United with Anderson socking a two-baser. Nelson and Larry Rutter each singled twice for CWA.

Baltimore Will File Protest

Baltimore — UPI — Club president Lee MacPhail and manager Billy Hitchcock of the Baltimore Orioles said today they will protest Tuesday night's loss to the Cleveland Indians, but both admitted it looked like a situation in which "the smart fellows lose."

Chagrined manager Birdie Tebbets of the Indians, who forgot one of the simplest rules in baseball, and plate umpire Nestor Chylak agreed. "We're protesting the game on two grounds," said MacPhail and Hitchcock. "But we doubt that the protest will be allowed."

"I believe in being brief," said Tebbets, in explaining his role in the 'He's in, he's out' pitching changeover that touched off the protest. "I'll tell you in three words: I was stupid."

"The only guy who didn't foul up was Hitchcock," continued Tebbets. "And he lost. So what good does it do to be smart?"

Last of Ninth

The situation developed in the last half of the ninth inning of the Indians' 9-5 victory over the Orioles. There were two out, the bases were filled and Jim Gentile was the batter.

Tebbets walked to the mound and brought in Bob Allen to replace pitcher Jim Grant, who had allowed 10 hits in 8 2/3 innings. Allen made two pitches — both balls — to Gentile and Tebbets immediately called in Ted Abernathy.

Abernathy reached the mound, stepped on the pitcher's plate and prepared to pitch to Gentile. Then Hitchcock made his appearance and reminded Chylak that the rules state a relief pitcher must complete pitching to at least one batter before another relief pitcher can be called into the game.

That meant, in effect, that the Indians had two pitchers in the game at the same time.

Recalls Allen

Chylak resolved the issue by recalling Allen to the mound. Allen completed the walk to Gentile, forcing in the Orioles' fifth run of the game, and then Abernathy returned to retire Russ Snyder for the final out.

MacPhail and Hitchcock said they were protesting because 1) Rule 3:05-B says a relief pitcher must complete pitching to the first batter he faces and 2) Rule 8:03 stipulates that a relief pitcher can take only eight warm-up pitches whereas Abernathy had a total of 16.

Hitchcock spent a half-hour studying the rule book after the game and added another comment:

"If the protest were allowed, I don't know where we'd resume play but we'd have everything to gain and nothing to lose if it goes through."

"It was just an oversight," said Chylak. "Just an oversight."

It's American league president Joe Cronin's baby now.

Weak Hitter Allen Crosses Strategy; Twins Trip Chisox

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Remember Eddie Stanky, the modern Muggsy of Brooklyn's "ferocious gentlemen?" "He can't hit, he can't field and he can't run," they said of Stanky. "But in a tough game he'll find a way to beat you."

Well, they're saying pretty much the same things about another second baseman today — Bernie Allen of the Minnesota Twins. Allen is a skinny guy often overlooked among all those Minnesota muscle men, but he's maintained his regular status despite a .164 batting average.

"Don't let that average fool you," comments manager Sam Mele, "or you'll liable to be sorry."

The 24-year-old native of East Liverpool, Ohio, made his manager's words look good Tuesday night when the Twins beat the Chicago White Sox, 8-6, for their 18th victory in 20 games and moved to within 2 1/2 games of the American league lead.

Bats In Ninth

Allen went to the plate in the ninth inning with one out and Rich Rollins on second base. First base was open but White Sox relief ace Hoyt Wilhelm elected to pitch to the .148-hitter, who had made only seven singles in his previous 68 trips to the plate.

But Allen crossed up the strategy with a double to right center field and then scored the icing run on a pinch single by Jimmy Hall. The win went to relief pitcher Bill Dailey, who gave up one run in 2 1/2 innings and now has allowed only that single tally in his last 19 1/2 frames.

Zorro Varsalles contributed four hits and Rollins' Earl Bettle, Harmon Killebrew, Lennie Green two each to the Twins' 16-hit attack while Tom McGraw had three hits for the White Sox.

Indians Beat Orioles

The Cleveland Indians beat the Baltimore Orioles, 9-5, the Boston Red Sox topped the Detroit Tigers, 7-3, in 15 innings and the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 5-2, in other AL games.

Hit Four Homers

Al Luplow, Fred Whitfield, Dick Howser and Willie Kirkland hit homers for the Indians, who scored their eighth victory in nine games. The Orioles protested the game when manager Birdie Tebbets brought in relief pitcher Ted Abernathy before relief pitcher Bob Allen had completed pitching to one batter but the protest is expected to be rejected. Jim Grant went 8 1/2 innings to win his fourth game for Cleveland.

Dick (Smockey the Bear) Radatz struck out 11 and pitched shutout ball for 8 1/2 relief innings to win his fifth game for the Red Sox. The 6-6, 245-pound relief star has now pitched 31 consecutive shutout innings since May 12. Frank Matzone and Dick Stuart hit back-to-back homers in the 15th when the Red Sox poured over four runs.

Gino Cimoli's double and a two-run single by pinch-hitter George Alusk featured a four-run fourth-inning rally.

Point System Projected for Jalopy Races

A point system to determine a season champion is planned for a jalopy auto racing slate this summer at the Medford Speedway in the White City area.

Substantial cash and other prizes are to go to high point drivers at the end of the season, track officials said. Along with the points, cash and trophies are to be awarded for each race program, the first of which is set for June 30.

This year's slate of races is to feature more entries than last year, a better track and other improvements.

Claiming Rule

Maximum value of any entry may not be greater than $99. In theory all entries are up for sale at all times they are being raced on the track. Interested buyers in the crowd may have a chance to buy any of the entries at any race for $99. Track management said this feature of the program, called the "claiming" rule, has provided a slate of cars of nearly the same value.

Additional information on the jalopy program may be had by writing Medford Speedway, P. O. Box 1581.
