

Luggage Goes Long Way Toward Pleasing Dad

A Father's day gift that packs year-round appeal is the new leather luggage that is light, rugged, masculine.

Whether Dad travels near or far, favors public transport or drives a car, you can find handsome leather luggage that's just right for him, notes Leather Industries of America.

A matched set of leather luggage makes a truly luxurious gift. Basic in such a set is that bag-of-all-work, the two-suit. An unfitted companion bag that is somewhat smaller than the two-suit, and a club bag that opens at the top for quick, easy packing, complete the basic set.

If a matched set would put too much strain on your budget, give him one piece this Father's day. You can always add other sizes later to suit your budget or the occasion.

The two-suit is available in the soft-sided leather version, built on aluminum or magnesium frames. With its "one-finger" weight and increased carrying capacity, it is ideal for plane, train or car travel.

Men's leather luggage is handsomer this year. Soft tans, deep rich browns, jet black - all are available in glossy smooth or dulled matte finishes. Sophisticated olive leathers are growing in popularity - particularly among executives and professionals. In addition, modern tanning methods have made these tough, thinned-down leather bags resistant to the scuffs and stains of travel. Some of them have waxes tanned into them. If the surface is scratched, the waxes make their way into the nicks and fill them. Others have special surface protection that adds years to their life.

Attache Case
An unexcelled assistant to Dad on his travels is the attache case. Slim or extra roomy, it can be a simple case or be fitted with the useful accordion file that gives instant access to papers.

Another much-appreciated gift for Father's day is a new wallet. Here again the new leathers have been used to produce utility and good looks with a total absence of old-fashioned bulk.

The new slender secretary case makes another welcome gift. Money and card compartments are on one side, memo pad and pencil or ballpoint on the other.

And if Dad travels abroad from time to time, a bright new passport case is a wonderful way to say "Bon Voyage." This too can be had in a choice of leather finishes and colors.

LUGGAGE - Luggage gifts give Dad "mobility" in fine style. Consider a matched set in genuine cowhide, like this, suggested by Luggage and Leather Goods Manufacturers. From top: two-suit, companion bag, carry-on bag, attache case.

GIFTS FOR SMOKERS
Smoking gifts make fine Father's day presents. Boxes, cartons or cans of his favorite cigars, cigarettes or pipe tobacco will please him. So will humidors, smokers' stands, ash trays, pipes and pipe racks. Tobacco pouches and cigarette cases are other suggestions.
