

To every woman who insists on bleach-white clothes (but who'd love to stop adding bleach!)

This product is for you...and for every wash-load to which you would normally add both a detergent and chlorine bleach.

It's called Pruf—the world's first chlorinated detergent.

Lets you clean clothes bleach-white without adding bleach.

TAKE all your bleachable white clothes. Take all your bleachable color clothes. Take any clothes to which you would normally add both a detergent and chlorine bleach.

Now wash these clothes in Pruf—the world's first Chlorinated Detergent. Just one cup of Pruf (nothing more) is all it takes to clean them bleach-white.

How does Pruf do it? Chlorinated Cleaning! The cleaning action of a detergent and the bleaching action of chlorine bleach combined, for the first time, in a single laundry product!

Pruf's exclusive Chlorinated Cleaning means you can stop adding bleach forever, yet still clean clothes bleach-white! What's more, Pruf eliminates any fear of overbleaching once and for all!

So why keep on adding chlorine bleach to your detergent? Get Pruf, the world's first Chlorinated Detergent, and clean clothes bleach-white without adding bleach!

You'll find many other uses for Pruf, too. For example, Pruf is great for disinfecting diapers, removing tough stains, bleaching-out sinks, as well as general household cleaning and disinfecting.

Now! Clean clothes bleach-white without adding bleach!
