Van Dyke-Dammrose Rites of Interest Here

On interest in the Rogue valley is the marriage of Miss Karmen Kay Dammrose and John P. Van Dyke which was an event of June 12 in Eugene.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dammrose, Craigmont, Ida., and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Naomi Van Dyke and Frank J. Van Dyke, both of Medford.

The ceremony was read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George R. Ashwood Jr., in the chapel of Central United Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Robert Blessinger, Lewiston, Ida., was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Janet Carter, Lake Oswego, and Miss Bonnie Van Dyke, a sister of the bridegroom.

K. Scott Wood, Eugene, was best man, and ushers were Douglas Dammrose, Craigmont, a brother of the bride, and Dave Breed, Eugene.

Wears Chantilly Lace

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her Chantilly lace gown was styled with a shirred, bouffant full length skirt. The short sleeved bodice was ornamented with seed pearls and sequins designed with Sabrina neckline. Her elbow length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Testament with white satin rosebuds and ivy.

The attendants' organ and gowns were designed the same as the bride's gown, the honor attendant wearing pink with matching veiled hat and carrying melon colored satin rosebuds with ivy, and the bridesmaids wearing melon color with matching hats and carrying bouquets of pink satin rosebuds with ivy.

Pew ends were marked with melon colored ribbons and the chapel was decorated with pink carnations and ivy.

Douglas Dammrose turned a solo and he and James Hoduffer sang a duet.

A reception given by the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Guests attending from Medford included Frank Van Dyke, the bridegroom's father, and Mrs. Van Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Goodwin and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dellencamp.

The bride's traveling suit was white which she wore with moss green accessories.

Her corsage, a gift from the bridegroom, was of pink carnations and rosebuds with ivy.

Live at School
The couple is to return from their trip June 20 when they will live at Hawthorne hall at the University of Oregon.

The bride and bridegroom both attended the University of Oregon. The bride is head resident of Walton dormitories and the bridegroom is a research assistant in physics at the university, while working toward his doctor of philosophy degree. He also has attended California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, and holds his masters degree from the university.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dammrose wore a toast silk jacket dress with beige accessories and her corsage was of Tallman roses. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a Kelly green silk sheath frock with white accessories. She wore a light pink rosebud corsage.

Engaged Pair Visitors Here; Parties Given

Gary Winetrot and his fiancée, Miss Sueann Jenkins of Mesa, Ariz., left last week to return to Arizona after spending 10 days here with Mr. Winetrot's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graff Jr., 2156 West Hillside drive. Both young people are students at Arizona State university, Tempe.

While here the two students, whose engagement and approaching marriage was recently announced, were honored at a number of parties. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker were hosts for a dinner in their honor. Mr. Winetrot's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Winetrot, with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sterton, also hosted a dinner for the visitors. Mrs. O. J. Halboth honored Miss Jenkins at a luncheon.

The wedding is set for August 24 in Arizona. Miss Jenkins is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Jenkins, Mesa.

Mrs. Graff and her two youngest sons, Gregory and Jeffrey Graff, plan to leave tomorrow for Orange, Calif., to visit Mrs. Graff's mother and brother. An older son, Jerry Winetrot, left last week for the University of California, Los Angeles, to attend summer session. He was enrolled at the University of Oregon last school year in pre-law.

Father of Bride Performs Rites

The father of the bride and a brother officiated at the wedding June 14 in Tacoma, Wash., when Miss Helen L. Simon became the bride of Robert D. Swanberg.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. John E. Simon, minister of St. Peter's Lutheran church, and Mrs. Simon. Mr. Swanberg's father is John M. Swanberg, Seattle.

The newlyweds, both teachers this year in the Yelm, Wash., schools, chose Tacoma for their wedding so the ceremony could be attended by their students. The bride, a graduate of Hood River High school and the University of Oregon, teaches music and drama. Mr. Swanberg, who attended West Seattle High school and the University of Washington, is a teacher of German. He will be with the Olympia city schools this fall.

The eight o'clock evening ceremony, held at the Good Shepherd Lutheran church, was attended by 250 relatives and friends.

Bride Chooses Music

For her wedding music the bride chose Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" and the "Wedding March" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn. Miss Carolyn Moelling, Seattle, was organist, and Michael Murphy, Yelm, Wash., a music student of the bride, was soloist. He sang "O Perfect Love" and Heinrich Schütz' "Whither Thou Goest."

The Rev. Mr. Simon, assisted by his son, John M. Simon, seminary student, officiated at the wedding. The bride's father also gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace and miramist taffeta fashioned with elbow length sleeves, portrait neckline accented with Venetian lace applique, and bouffant skirt with taffeta panels. The skirt formed a chapel train.

Her silk illusion veil was held by an open crown of pearlized orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Attendants in White

Mrs. Paul Fratzke, Seattle, was matron of honor and other attendants were Mrs. Ted Brown, Hood River, and Miss Elsie Sherman, Yelm. Miss Cindy Erickson, Yelm, was flower girl and candlelighters were Patricia Mosman, Yelm, and Linda Morris, Tacoma. Their frocks were of white miramist taffeta with bell skirts and they carried white carnations with blue ribbon.

John K. Swanberg, Seattle, served as best man for his brother and seating the guests were Gilbert Penrose, Seattle; William Ward, Tumwater, Wash.; Elmer Erickson, Yelm, and William Simon, Penrose, Colo., brother of the bride.

Jeffrey Swanberg, Seattle, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Acolyte was Thomas E. Simon, another brother of the bride.

White summer flowers decorated the church for the ceremony.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the church.

The couple are traveling in Canada on their wedding trip, the bride left wearing a powder blue suit with white rose corsage and patent leather accessories. They will make their home in Lacey, Wash., after June 21.

Travelers To Return

Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis Donahue, 1687 Spring street, are expected home today after spending the past two weeks traveling in the Eastern states. The Donahues were in New York City and Washington, D.C., and then went south to visit friends in Cape Canaveral.

The travelers first motored south to San Jose, Calif., where they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Green. They attended graduation ceremonies at San Jose State college, Mr. Green having been a member of the class. He plans to enter the University of California, Berkeley, in the fall to study law.

The Donahues continued east from San Jose by plane and in New York City were guests of their daughter, Miss Patricia Donahue, a hostess for Trans-World airlines.
