Miss Aeschliman Bride Of Curtis Womelsdorf

Miss Karen Joann Aeschliman became the bride of Curtis Vale Womelsdorf in 3 o'clock afternoon rites read June 8 in the Medford First Church of Nazarene. The Rev. Harold Sanner performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Aeschliman, 429 Benson street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Evelyn Womelsdorf, Diamond lake, and Russell Womelsdorf, Ridgefield, Wash.

The bridegroom's parents and his sister had been married in the same church.

Miss Barbara Aeschliman was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were the Misses Willajo Mills, Joann Holmes and Laurene Kellow. Terry Minter, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

The bridegroom's brother, John Womelsdorf, served as best man. Seating the guests were Jerry Gaines and Terry Simmons, cousins of the bridegroom, and Clarence Johnson, his uncle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown with lace bodice trimmed with sequins and pearls. The skirt was styled of lace and net with tiered front. Her bouquet was a white orchid with yellow roses. A pill box had held her elbow length veil.

The attendants wore matching pale lavender satin sheath dresses with lavender chiffon overskirts, and their veils were similar to that worn by the bride. They carried rings of marguerite daisies.

The church was decorated with yellow and white gladioli and white bows marked the pew end. Wedding songs were sung by Mrs. Millie Lindell and Melvin Johnson.

The reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the church annex. Mrs. Melvin Johnson had charge of arrangements and wedding cake had been made by the bride's mother.

Mrs. W. O. Beard cut and served the cake and Mrs. Gail Corbett poured the coffee. Mrs. Melvin Johnson presided at the punch bowl while Miss Deena Beard registered the guests. In charge of the gift table were Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Miss Donna Johnson.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Aeschliman wore a blue lace frock with matching hat and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in beige lace with brown accessories. Both wore corsages of Cecile Brunner roses.

100 at Reception
About 100 guests attended the reception and some 150 were at the wedding ceremony.

The couple made a wedding trip to Crescent City and San Francisco, Calif. They are to return this week and will live at 4523 Table Rock road.

The bride, before her marriage, was employed at Rogue Valley Manor, and also was a dental assistant for Dr. F. L. Mellish. She attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom attended both Medford and Crater High schools. He is employed by Cascade Wood products.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Dohe traveled from Omaha, Neb., to attend the wedding and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Corbett, and family, were here from Los Angeles.

Nile Social Plans Made

Final plans have been completed for the first social luncheon in this area for members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, set for Monday, June 17. The no-hostess event is to be held in the Medford hotel at 12:30 p. m. Cards will be played during the afternoon.

Members from Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford are expected to attend.

It is the plan that such events will be held each month beginning in the fall and this possibility will be discussed during the Monday meeting.

Those who attend should take their own cards.

Roberts-Byrd Ceremony Held in Ashland Church

Ashland-Miss Joan Cynthia Byrd became the bride of Claude Harrison Roberts in a double ring ceremony read June 1 in the Church of the Nazarene. The Rev. E. E. Crawford performed the rites at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon. About 250 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Byrd, 782 Park street, Ashland, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roberts, Glide, Ore.

Mrs. William C. Willis, McKinleyville, Calif., a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Cousins of the bride, Miss Viola Hartwell and Miss Marcia Riddle, both Ashland, were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Nancy Byrd, another sister.

Miss Becky Fowler, and Noble Fowler, both of Colton, Calif., and both cousins of the bride, carried the rings.

Dean Simpson, Glide, was best man, and groomsmen were Charles Wilde and Rollo D. Amewood, both Glide. Steven Roberts, a brother of the bridegroom, was junior groomsmen.

Six Ushers
Ushers were Mr. Willis; James Arnold, Medford; Edward Richardson, Madras, Ore.; Albert Hartwell, Ashland; Brian Laurence, Winston, Ore.; and Raymond Seballa, Myrtle Creek.

Candlelighters were Miss Cookie Coon, Myrtle Creek, and Miss Karen Zimmerman, Dixonville, Ore.

Mr. Byrd escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's full length gown was of Chantilly lace over satin with tiers of tulle and lace. Her full veil was held by a crown of lace and pearls and she carried an heirloom handkerchief, a gift from the bridegroom's grandmother. The bridal bouquet was of white roses centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor wore a lavender chiffon gown over taffeta and her bouquet was of white carnations. The bridesmaids' gowns were of yellow chiffon over taffeta and they carried bouquets of white carnations. The junior bridesmaid wore a matching dress and carried a similar bouquet.

Miss Fowler wore a white silk lace dress over yellow taffeta. The candlelighters wore gowns of mint green taffeta. All had carnation corsages.

Miss Sue Mittag was vocalist.

Flower Girls

The flower girls, Susan Willis, McKinleyville, a niece of the bride, and Betsy Roberts, Glide, a sister of the bridegroom, wore pink chiffon dresses over taffeta and their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace dress over dark pink taffeta and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in pink and white. Both had pink rosebud corsages.

At the reception which followed the ceremony, Mrs. John Richardson, Lakeview, Mrs. N. C. Fowler, Colton, and Mrs. Clarence Hartwell, Ashland, aunts of the bride, served the wedding cake.

Mrs. John Arnold, Medford, and Mrs. Harold Riddle, Ashland, also aunts, had charge of the reception.

The candlelighters served the punch and coffee, and in charge of the guest book were the Misses Dolly and Bonnie Byrd, Ashland, and Greg and Miss Patty Byrd, Tahoe City, Calif., all cousins of the bride.

The couple made a wedding trip to southern California and Mexico.
