Papal Blessing Given To Bride and Bridegroom

Yreka-Miss Marylin Rose Bruns became the bride of James H. Wilson in a ceremony held June 8 at St. Joseph's Catholic church, Yreka. The rites were celebrated by the Rev. Francis A. Sullivan and at the close he presented the couple a papal blessing from the late Pope John XXIII. The special document had been signed by the pope shortly before his death. The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Oregon and will live in Portland where the bridegroom will study at the University of Portland. They will live in Siskiyou county in the fall. Mr. Wilson is a teacher in the Yreka schools.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Bruns, Coldwater, Ohio, and Mr. Bruns escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a sheath of Alencon lace over taffeta with three-quarter length sleeves and scoop

Visits Relatives

Ashland-Mr. and Mrs. William Miles and four children of Salem are vacationing with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Miles, 94 Third street, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, 151 Gresham street.

Following the rites which married Miss Marylin Rose Bruns to James H. Wilson in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Yreka, Calif., the Rev. Francis A. Sullivan presented the couple a special blessing from the late Pope John XXIII. The priest had petitioned for the papal blessing for the couple shortly before the death of Pope John. (Landis photo)

Family Reunion Slated at Lake

Mrs. D. O. Wall and her three sons, Randy, Greg and Mark, have arrived in Medford from Spokane, Wash., to spend several weeks with Mrs. Wall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Darel Huson, 45 Lindley street.

This week end the Husons are holding a family reunion at their Lake of the Woods summer cottage. In addition to Mrs. Wall and her sons, the family group will include the Huson's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown and children, Diane, Karen and Loren, Medford, and the Huson's daughter, Dorelyn.

Miss Huson recently returned home after ending her freshman year at Willamette university, Salem, where she is a music major. She is a pledge of Delta Gamma sorority, and a member of Mu Phi, music honor society for women.

Mrs. Wall's husband, a captain in the United States Air Force, is attending officer school in Alabama this summer. He has been assigned to Geiger Air Force base in Spokane in recent years, and this base has been recently deactivated by the USAF.

Talent Woman Returns Home

Talent-Mrs. John Butler returned home Monday from a long visit in California. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. L. Carter and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Marr, Downey, Calif. Mrs. Carter plans to remain here with her daughter for some time. Mrs. Carter's brother, Cleve Grove, Montana, arrived the preceding Sunday to meet his sister here.

Stribling-Martin Rites Held in Medford Church

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stribling are living at 411 Park street following their wedding trip to Boulder park resort at Medical Springs in northeastern Oregon. Their marriage was an event of June 1 in Medford Foursquare church. The bride is the former Miss Sandra Lee Martin, daughter of Mrs. LaVerne Martin, 32 South Orange street, and George H. Martin, Seattle, Wash.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Stribling, Grants Pass, who were in Medford for the ceremony.

The Rev. Kenneth L. Mathewson performed the 7 o'clock evening rites.

Miss Linda Stribling, Portland, a sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant.

Kenneth Rhodes, Grants Pass, served as best man. Tony Martin, a brother of the bride, seated the guests. Brother Escoris Bride

William Martin, Grants Pass, escorted his sister to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a white street length dress with full skirt and embroidered bodice. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet centered with a pink peony on netting encircled with florets of blue delphinium and pink flos-cucul, a specie of lychnis.

Miss Stribling was dressed in a fuchsia pink sheath frock and she carried a pink peony encircled with netting. Baskets of blue delphiniums with pink peonies and maidenhair fern decorated the church. Mrs. Mathewson furnished the organ music. The bride attended Medford and Grants Pass schools

Picnic Planned By Herb Society

Members of the Rogue Valley Herb society will hold a picnic luncheon and all day meeting Tuesday, June 18 at "Westralia," the country home of Mrs. Stephen F. Counts, 619 Jones Creek road, south of Grants Pass. Mrs. Counts will be aided in hostess duties by Mrs. Homer Grable, Grants Pass. The two will serve dessert and an herb drink to supplement the picnic lunch brought by the members.

Mrs. Counts' extensive lavender gardens will serve as inspiration for her afternoon lecture on "Lavender through the years." Mrs. Grabel will report on rue, the herb of the month.

Society members will meet at 9 a.m. at the Big Y north of Medford, and will leave from there for the drive to Grants Pass. A workshop is scheduled from 10 o'clock until the luncheon hour. Mrs. R. D. Abel, president, Medford, will preside at the meeting.

The May meeting of the society was held at the Girls Community club and featured a review of the book "Old Herbaceous" by Mrs. Frank Carson, Rocambole, as the herb of the month, was discussed by Mrs. Otto Nagel. Members answered roll call with reports of wild herbs. Hostesses during the tea hour were Mrs. Otto Nagel and Mrs. Melchior Heckenger.

DUV To Discuss Convention Plans

Members of Elta Deuel Hubbs tent, Daughters of Union Veterans will make plans for attending a state convention when they meet for dessert luncheon Wednesday, June 19 at 12:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Bessie Young, 425 North Holly street.

Delegates appointed from the tent are Mrs. Carrie Milnes and Mrs. Sadie Delamater. Miss Joan Guyer will attend as department patriotic instructor and Mrs. Ruby Malloy will represent the local group as its president.

Past Matrons, Patrons Plan Dinner Meeting

Central Point—Past matrons and patrons of Nevada chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, their husbands and wives, will meet for a no-host catered dinner Thursday, June 20 at 6:30 p.m., in the Central Point Masonic temple. Officers point out the date rather, than June 30 which inadvertently was placed on invitations sent earlier for the event.

Those who attend should take table service. Members of the Past Matrons club will furnish coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss Kramer will be guests of the club. Mrs. Kramer is to show pictures of the Holy land and other scenes. She recently returned from a trip to Europe.

Miss Martin presented past queen Denna Taylor with her past queen's pin and Miss Taylor presented Miss Martin with a present queen's pin, a traveling tira, and a piece of silver. An addendum was held at which time the new officers gave Miss Martin a term book.

Refreshments were served in the dining room and a dance followed, using the theme "A Night to Remember." Assisting were Mrs. Sam Poirier, Mrs. Fred L. Walker, Mrs. C. L. Leffler, Mrs. Glenn Wilkins, and Mrs. Carl Elhart.

Annual Twelfth Night Revel Slated at Inn

Mon Desir, famed Central Point dining inn, has planned the annual "Twelfth Night Revel" for the Oregon Shakespearean Festival company next Monday evening.

Climaxing the grueling audition, casting and blocking rehearsal period, the "Revel" marks the twelfth night since the 1963 Festival company assembled and the company's first occasion to relax from their arduous schedule.

Mrs. Julie Summers, owner of the inn, will be hostess for the seventh year to about 125 company members as well as an especially honored guest, Carl Werner, Portland. Mr. Werner, representative of the Wine Institute of California, has for several years come to southern Oregon for the Twelfth Night Revel. Not only will Festival company members enjoy an interesting meal in a relaxed European atmosphere, but they will be entertained by John Eads, noted magician. The 1963 season of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival opens July 24 and continues through September 7. The plays are "Merry Wives of Windsor", "Romeo and Juliet", "Love's Labour's Lost", and "Henry the Fifth".

Dinner Given In Central Point

Central Point—The annual fellowship dinner for Jewett Elementary school teachers was held recently with the Central Point elementary and junior high school teachers as guests.
