

Marriage Of Interest In Valley

Of interest here is news of the marriage of Miss Janice Darragh and Gregory Moore which was an event of June 8 in Burlingame, Calif. The 12 o'clock noon nuptial mass was celebrated and the wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. James Ward at St. Catherine's church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Darragh, Burlingame, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, 1449 Jasper street, Medford.

Miss Molly Buckley, Portland, was the maid of honor. Miss Sue Schechtel, Oswego, and Miss Lorene Deans, Woodland, Wash., were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid was Shelley Moore, a sister of the bridegroom.

Michael Moore, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and Jack Darragh, a brother of the bride, and Ron Spooner, were ushers.

Mr. Darragh escorted his daughter to the altar. Her long gown was of silk organza appliqued with lilies of the valley at the hemline, and designed with scoop neckline and short sleeves. She carried lilacs of the valley.

The attendants wore sheath dresses of yellow chiffon over taffeta and their headpieces were crowns of daisies with clusters of daisies.

The bride's parents gave a garden reception at Stanford Newman center.

The couple will live in Portland where the bride is a teacher in the Portland Public school system. The bridegroom is associated with the United States National bank.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended the University of Portland.

Hornbrook Couple Leaves for Trip

Hornbrook—Visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear and son, Leonard, are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Campbell and three sons of Sepulveda, Calif. On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Bear left with their house-trailer for a three-months tour of the middle west and on into eastern Canada.

They plan to attend the Wally Byam Caravan club's sixth international rally to be held at Bemidji, Minn., June 30 through July 5. The local couple also attended last year's rally, held in Auburn, Wash.

Eurekans Visit In Hornbrook

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burkhardt and two of their three children spent four days here this week as guests of her mother, Mrs. George Sloan. The Burkhardts arrived on Monday from Stockton, Calif., where they had been visiting Mrs. Burkhardt's twin sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Balbi and two children. They left Thursday to return to their home in Eureka, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. James Don Price

Price-McCulley Service Held in Montague Church

Montague—Miss Sheron Rose McCulley became the bride of James Don Price in a double-ring ceremony read June 1 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Southern Baptist church in Montague. The Rev. Elmer Adams officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie McCulley, Montague. The bridegroom is a resident of Hornbrook.

Miss Rose Ann Tanner, Montague, was the bridesmaid.

Michael O'Connor, uncle of the bride from Dana, served as best man. Ushers were Nathan McCulley, brother of the bride, and James Winkle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white Chantilly lace over taffeta with a wide chiffon cummerbund. Her short veil was held from a velvet band and she carried a white carnation corsage. Her single pearl necklace was the "something borrowed", it being a prized possession of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ione Graham, Hornbrook.

The bridesmaid wore a light blue organza frock over taffeta with a hat to match and carried pink carnations. Baskets of mixed garden flowers in shades of blue, pink and white decorated the church. Mrs. William Bertram was the pianist and Mrs. Eddy Conner the soloist.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the church rooms, decorated in white and pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Moore (Matchette-Heritage)

Newlyweds Return Home From California Trip

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Austbo, whose marriage was a recent event in Meeker chapel of First Methodist church, traveled to San Francisco and the Monterey peninsula in California for their wedding trip. They now are living at 1116 South Holly street.

The bride, the former Julia E. Sanford, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orner Haugen, 1796 Thomas road. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Olav G. Austbo of Redwood Falls, Minn., who came west for the ceremony.

Dr. George Roseberry read the 2 o'clock afternoon rites May 18.

Mrs. Bobbie L. Bills was the honor attendant.

Allen Prigge came from Eugene to act as best man, and Howard Haugen, a brother of the bride, and Craig Smith, seated the guests.

The bride attended Everett Junior college, Everett, Wash., and the bridegroom attended the University of Minnesota. He is employed by the department of interior as a forester for the bureau of land management.

Amon, guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Randolph E. Haugen and son, Robert Haugen, Seattle, relatives of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and son, John Moore, Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Abbie Robbins, formerly of Redwood Falls, Minn., also a guest.

Cebu Swamp Session Held In Grants Pass

A number of Medford persons were in Grants Pass to attend a recent meeting of Cebu swamp, Military Order of Lizards, United Spanish War Veterans held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Florenz Breitemeyer.

Among those from here were Mr. and Mrs. James VanderSteen, Mrs. Bertha Nelson, Mrs. Polly Olfutt, Mrs. Arthur Gillmore and daughter, Carol; Mrs. Harry Barneburg and Mrs. Don Anderson.

Mrs. Vanderstee, gila monster for the swamp, presided.

Mrs. Breitemeyer, grand gila monster, spoke of the coming state convocation to be held in Eugene.

Guests included Mrs. Harry Williams, Portland, department secretary, who was introduced and presented a corsage by Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Henry Aliche, Saudi Arabia; Derwood Fairchild, Rogue River camp; Tom Thomas, Renne Grosh, Robert Carter and Mr. Breitemeyer also were introduced as guests. Those who have birthdays in June were honored including Mrs. Walter Sweetland, Mrs. Barneburg, Mrs. Williams and Mr. Thomas.

Mrs. Effie Searles, Grants Pass, a member of Rogue River auxiliary, was initiated into the swamp.

Members voted to form a kitchen band, for which Mrs. Olfutt will be conductor.

The next meeting of the swamp will be held in July in the home of Mrs. Anderson, 803 Pine street, Medford.

Teacher Is Guest In Prospect Home

Prospect—Clarence Neville, a teacher at Hood River, is a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Neville. He plans to be here for two weeks and will leave for Corvallis to attend the summer session at Oregon State university.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Neville and daughter, JoAnna, Roseburg, were week end guests at the David Nevilles. He is with the Forest service division of the bureau of land management.

Newlyweds Now Home After Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Moore will be at home June 16 at 473 North Ross lane, following their return from a wedding trip to San Francisco and Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Moore is the former Winifred M. Weisel, 437 North Ross lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rickard, Hope, N.D. She is the owner and operator of the Country House of Beauty in Medford.

Mr. Moore, 210 West Third street, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Moore, Wellsville, Ohio. He is an accountant with Lewis Accounting here.

Eston Catlett officiated at the June 7 wedding held at the Church of Christ, Court street, at eight o'clock in the evening. Some 20 relatives and friends attended.

The bride wore a pale green raw silk sheath dress with matching picture hat and tangerine colored accessories. She carried a single long stemmed white rose.

Mrs. William Totten attended the bride. She wore a printed jersey sheath dress and carried a nosegay of green carnations. Donald Hagle served as best man.

For traveling the bride wore a cocoa brown two piece suit with tangerine accessories.

The bride attended Hope, N.D., high school and the New York Hairdressing Academy in Fargo, N.D. Mr. Moore attended Wellsville, Ohio, schools.

Advisory Group Names Officers

Mrs. David Kahl, Eagle Point was elected chairman of the Home Extension Advisory committee for Jackson county during a meeting June 10 in the home of Mrs. Lester Wertz.

Mrs. J. W. Martinson, also Eagle Point, was elected vice chairman. Mrs. Alfred Foidal, Central Point, is the secretary, and Mrs. R. C. Fremd, Ashland, treasurer.

Standing committee chairman appointed at the meeting are Mrs. Paul R. Doe, Medford, publicity; Mrs. V. L. Swinney, Medford, safety; Mrs. R. Farrington, Eagle Point, health; Mrs. G. L. Stewart, Medford, Associated Country Women of the World; Mrs. C. E. Chisum, Medford, 4-H club work, and Mrs. Piete, Applegate, Azalea house.

Guests Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Leo King have had as guests the past week Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. Martha Anderson, of Caldwell, Idaho, and her cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Holdridge of Caldwell and the Hawaiian Islands. The visitors left Wednesday to return to Idaho.

Representative To Be Honored

The Eleanor Roosevelt League will hold a summer social evening and "welcome home" party for State Representative and Mrs. James A. Redden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Norton, Hillsinger road, Phoenix Thursday, June 20. The event will be at 7:30 p.m. according to Mrs. Frank Christian, president.

Members of the league and their husbands and friends are invited to attend and participate in the evening's festivities, she said. Guests are asked to bring a potluck dish and supper will be served buffet style.

Reports and sidelights on the recently concluded legislative assembly will be given by both Mr. and Mrs. Redden and the evening will be devoted to "visiting and impromptu entertainment" she explained. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Christian, dial 535-1389.

Amethyst Lodge Plans Visit in Jacksonville

Gold Hill—Plans were made by Amethyst Rebekah lodge members during the last session to attend Friendship night at Ruth Rebekah lodge in Jacksonville Monday, June 17. Mrs. Walter McLean, good of the order chairman for the Gold Hill lodge will have charge of the entertainment to be presented during the evening.

Those going to Jacksonville on that date are asked to meet at the post office corner at 7 p.m.

Reports in conjunction with fund raising events for which all profits went to the IOOF building fund were made by Mrs. Raymond Thompson and Mrs. Paul Molloy. Mrs. Thompson said a benefit dance on June 1 resulted in $70.71 and Mrs. Molloy said $120 was raised by a recent rummage sale.

Mrs. McLean, who recently attended the Rebekah assembly of Oregon at The Dalles with the noble grand, Mrs. Albert Gascon, gave a report. Mrs. Raymond Thompson also attended assembly.

Next meeting of local lodge will be held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Thompson, Wednesday, June 19 at 8 p.m. This will be the final meeting until September.

Mrs. Paul Molloy was hostess for the last meeting. Mrs. Joe Lewis, left supporter to the noble grand conducted the meeting due to the absence of Mrs. Gascon and Mrs. Cassie Johnson, vice grand.

Before using cheesecloth as a dust cloth, dip it in a solution of hot water and lemon oil, then let it dry. It will dust more satisfactorily than a plain cloth.

Eighty-Fourth Birthday Observed in Hornbrook

Hornbrook—One of Hornbrook's elder residents, Mrs. Zela Elmore, observed her 84th birthday recently at a gathering of relatives and friends at a lawn party at the home here of a son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns.

Guests were a sister, Mrs. Evva Gandy of Eugene, Ore., Mrs. Myrtle Grubb, also Eugene, who is a former Hornbrook school teacher; Mr. and Mrs. Harry deJarnett, Talent, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Greene and daughters Linda and Lydia, Ashland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spearin and two sons, Anderson, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dilley and four sons, Yreka; and another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns, Hornbrook.

Another sister of Mrs. Elmore and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Eston Henderson of Oroville, Calif., called on her. Is Oregonian.

The former Zela Tyrrell was born near Butte Falls, Ore. on May 28, 1879. She has lived in the Hornbrook area since she was a small child. Her first husband, Scott Burns, and her father were killed when a train struck their horse and buggy at a railroad crossing near their ranch home north of Hornbrook when her son Floyd was 14 months old. Three years later she was married to Archie Elmore, who died several years ago. Since then, Mrs. Elmore has lived alone in their home. She plants and tends her own vegetable garden and cans the produce. She also raises her own chickens, but had to relinquish her two milk goats when they became too friendly and frisky.

Her hobbies are playing her old-fashioned square piano, singing, and on occasion, writing poetry. She is an eloquent tionist of the old school, and her recitations are always the highlights of local church programs. She is a member of the Hornbrook Methodist church, and of its Christian Women's Community Fellowship.

Sojourners Club Conducts Nominations

Medford Sojourners Club nominated officers at a meeting held last week in the Girls Community club. A new member at the meeting was Mrs. John Watson. Mrs. Roy Loper and Mrs. Donal Gitt, prospective members, were guests.

Winners at cards were Mrs. Marvin Slavens, Mrs. Frae Lytle, Mrs. Asa Lemon, Mrs. Ida Miller, Mrs. Bess Fenney and Mrs. Fanny Wood. Mrs. Edith Southwick won a special prize.

The dessert committee members were Mrs. Lemon, Mrs. Roland Howard, Mrs. William Buhl and Mrs. Harriett Merion.

The group's next meeting will be June 27 in the same club. Any woman who is a newcomer to Medford or vicinity either recently or within the last two years is invited. Dessert is served followed by an afternoon of cards. The organization is a social one and its main purpose is to assist newcomers in becoming acquainted.

With Relative Ashland—Mrs. James Reimers and little daughter Suzanne, San Jose, Calif., have been visiting for the past week with Mrs. Reimers' mother, Mrs. Ruth Morris, 160 Central avenue, and with other relatives, Mrs. Reimers is the former Dorothy Morris.

SALE!
VEGETABLE PLANTS
40¢ doz.
Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cabbage, Brussel Sprouts & Broccoli

ALL TYPES BEDDING PLANTS
Petunias, Moss Roses, Etc.

Crater Greenhouse
1036 Crater Lake Avenue
Phone 772-4401

Park Shop
GLAMOUR GALORE
.... NEW SWIMSUITS

Go down to the sea... in a stylish swimsuit from our sea-worthy selection of dashing one- and two-piece styles designed to make you the prettiest pebble on any beach. Come and see and choose.

Choose From Glamorous One and Two-Piece Styles by

- Cole of California
- Marina Del-Mar
- High Tide
- Colony

Priced From $9.98 to $22.98

Sub Teen Styles $5.98 to $10.98

Parker Woods
Park & Shop and Ride 'n Shop Member
Leons

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT
220 E. Main Downtown Medford

Burelson's
Downtown Medford

The Most Beautiful Bride Is a Burelson Bride

June or January—whatever the month—the bride "knows" she can find the dress of her dreams at Burelson's. The Burelson staff is eager and happy to help in every detail, from the choice of that "Special Gown" to complete trousseau needs.

Park Shop
Ride and Shop Member

YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT INVITED!

Main and Bartlett Streets Downtown Medford Phone 772-6428

Peau and re-embroidered Alencon lace. Bow and streamers in center back waistline. Chapel train. White. Available in long sleeves.