

Southern California Captures NCAA Track Crown for 22nd Time

Albuquerque, N.M.—UPI—The 42nd annual NCAA track and field championships, won by Southern California for the 22nd time, had its heroes in USC's Julio Marin and Rex Crawley and Stanford's Larry Questad. But, it also had its disappointments.

Marin and Crawley provided rookie coach Vern Wolfe's USC Trojans 42 of the 51 points that won the team title going away and Questad provided Stanford a surprising 18 of the 42 points the Palo Alto, Calif., Indians made in nosing out dethroned Oregon for second place. Oregon had 41.

Two of the biggest disappointments, oddly enough, were in the USC camp where Larry Stuart, who owned the year's best javelin throw, failed to qualify for the finals, and Kevin Hogan, touted as a sure point-getter in the 880-yard dash, also flunked his first trial test.

But, as it turned out the Trojans didn't miss those lost points a bit as Marin became the darling of the meet by winning the 6-mile in 30:32.9, the 3-mile in 14:24.9 and finishing in the 3,000-meter steeplechase. Crawley ran on fortitude to win the 440-yard hurdles in 49.6 seconds and push Ullis Williams of Arizona State to the la... in a 45.3 quarter-mile dash.

Another disappointment—especially to hopeful Oregon—was a first night injury to Mel Renfro that could have cost the Webfoots from 16 to 20 points since he owned the second best broad jump and high hurdles times in the nation.

Questad had a hand in contributing to another disappointment as he boosted his own stock by turning in a stunning defeat of Arizona State's Henry Carr in the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds—an event in which Carr has a 9.3 pending world mark.

Carr stoned a bit in the 220-yard dash as he outlegged the Stanford sophomore to the tape in the NCAA meet record time of 20.5 seconds, which also matches the accepted world and American record around a curve.

Mistook Marker
Freckled Tom O'Hara of Loyola of Chicago was a disappointment, and yet he was not either. The slightly-built windy city lad ran the mile-run field down in 4:04.8, then was disqualified for cutting to the post too soon on the first lap when he mistook blue markings on the track for the "break point" where runners may leave their lanes. The penalty made Morgan Groth, a teen-aged Oregon State sophomore the m tie champ in 4:05.3, which caused Groth to call it "a rotten way to win it."

Brian Sternberg, the captain of the fiberglass vaulting pole from Washington, also was a mild disappointment although he boosted the NCAA meet record to 16 feet 4 3/4 inches. The crowd was dismayed when Sternberg, who eight days earlier had cleared 16-8, failed three times at 16-9 1/4—the last time by the brush of his shirt against the bar.

Softballers Will End First Half
First half of the Jackson County Softball association season ends this evening when United Grocers and Communications Workers of America collide in a replay of a tie game halted by darkness.

United aims for lone second place in the first half standings. Outcome of the game at Hoover school also will have bearing on whether CWA will be in the Major or Minor league for the second half of play.

Medford corporation forfeited to Tru-Mix Concrete the game slated yesterday at Butte Falls. This left Medco in ninth place in the 10-team standings with 1-8. Tru-Mix is 3-6 and will be eighth or tied for seventh, depending on how CWA does today.

Drawing
League President Harry Chipman has indicated that if CWA wins this evening, the Communications men will draw with Southern Oregon Dry Kilo to see which team will be in the Major loop and which will be in the Minor. A United victory will assure Minor league play for CWA.

John Wheeler Logging and Central Point Merchants vie at 6:30 p. m. on Tuesday at Hedrick Junior high in a Major loop opener. In the Minor league Keith Schulz will oppose Medco Tuesday at Hawthorne park at the same time. A Sunday story inadvertently listed the wrong tie for the Major league game.

Big Six Session Starts Tuesday
Carmel, Calif.—UPI—The Big Six may become the Big Seven or Eight before the annual summer meeting of the Athletic Association of Western Universities is over.

Expansion is not officially on the agenda of the meeting, which opens Tuesday, but the question annually crops up of whether Oregon and/or Oregon State should be permitted to join their former friends and foes in the old Pacific Coast conferences.

Big Six Executive Director Tom Hamilton says that the conference's administrative committee, consisting of athletic directors will meet through Thursday.

Cards Get Burdette

St. Louis—UPI—The pitcher the St. Louis Cardinals hope will give them the push needed to grab a pennant this season was due to join the club today after leaving his berth with the Milwaukee Braves.

Lew Burdette, 36-year-old right-handed "control pitcher," was acquired by the Redbirds in a last minute trade Sunday morning which sent Cards' outfielder-infielder-catcher Gene Oliver and minor league hurler Bob Sadowski to the Braves.

The new moundman won't have much time to get acquainted before going to work since the Redbirds have announced plans to send him to the mound against the New York Mets Tuesday.

Clay Told Not To Talk

London—UPI—Cassius Marcellus Clay was "muzzled" today as he restlessly awaited Tuesday night's rich world heavyweight challengers' fight with Henry Cooper of England at suburban Wembley's open air Empire Stadium.

Manager Bill Faversham of Louisville, Ky., had told Clay: "No more statements to anyone until after the fight."

Big Bill explained: "Cassius already has done a tremendous job of talking this fight into a sellout. And we want him to relax now until the weigh-in tomorrow."

Their expected weights are Clay 198 pounds; Cooper, 189. Largely through the "Louisville Lip's" salesmanship in glorifying himself and belittling British Empire champion Cooper, the 10-rounder will be a sellout of about 55,000 fans and $448,000, promoter Jack Solomons was able to announce today.

FRANKLIN CHAMP

Portland—UPI—Harold Franklin of The Dalles won the men's championship with 2,245 points and Marcie Bangers of Salem captured the women's title with 1,762 in the 36th annual Oregon Archery Tournament Sunday.

RECEPTIVE!

Readers Welcome
Newspaper Advertising
...It's Not an Intrusion!

People really want newspaper advertising and have said so. Surveys usually show well over 80% in favor of newspaper advertising; less than 70% for magazines; and under 40% in favor of advertising on radio and TV.

Your advertising's first job is to win a friendly feeling for your product. It stands to reason you will win more friends by running your advertising where most people want it.

If you want to sell more people you have to reach them when they are receptive. Newspapers reach more of the most receptive people.
