

Leaves Portland

Portland - (AP) - The main force of Portland's 17-ship Rose Festival fleet steamed out of the city's harbor today. Twelve U.S. Navy vessels, headed by the guided missile destroyer Berkeley and including six mine sweepers, four destroyers and a submarine, left the Willamette river seawall. Four destroyer escorts and a submarine of the Canadian Navy departed Sunday. The ships arrived here Wednesday and Thursday. The U.S. vessels attracted 109,090 visitors. The only event remaining on the Rose Festival calendar is the Queen's Command baseball game Tuesday night between the Portland Beavers and Seattle.
