Housewife Slays Family of 6, Self

Prospect, Pa. — A 44-year-old housewife, dependent over ill health, turned her home into a bloodbath Monday, killing her husband and five young children with blasts from a 12-gauge shotgun before committing suicide.

State police said Mrs. Elizabeth Gregor, wife of a tractor salesman in this Western Pennsylvania farming community, killed the children, including 19-month-old twins, then telephoned her husband at work on the pretext that one of the children was ill.

When Joseph Gregor, 52, walked in the door of their home, she killed him and telephoned coroner Clinton Atwell to come to the house.

Before Atwell arrived with police, she apparently tied a string to the trigger of the shotgun and killed herself by pulling the string.
