Bethel 55 Installation Is Unique

Miss Patricia Selby was installed honored queen of Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters, during ceremonies held last week in Medford Masonic temple.

The event was unique in that Patricia is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Selby, 2427 Lyman avenue, to become queen of Bethel 55. The new queen's sister, Miss Karalee Selby, a past queen, was installing queen and with Mrs. Philip Selby, Ashland, a third sister and the former Margaret Selby, past queen of the same Bethel, performed the coronation ceremony.

Mrs. Selby's three-year-old daughter, Meg, was crown bearer. Meg wore a dress which had first been worn by her mother when she had presented roses to Mrs. Margaret Fabrick of Medford when Mrs. Fabrick was crowned queen of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile. Mrs. Selby and Meg are granddaughter and great-granddaughter of the late Mrs. Fabrick. The Nile ceremony had taken place in April of 1943 when Margaret Selby (Mrs. Philip) was also three years old.

The Misses Pamela Nelson, senior princess; Madeline Buonocore, junior princess; July Mee, guide; and Elaine Hastings, marshal; were the elective officers installed.

Also installed were the officers appointed by the honored queen to serve during her six-month term. They are the Misses Sharon Mast, chaplain; Cheryl Hastings, recorder; Patti Eastwood, treasurer; Alicia Buonocore, musician; Ruth Wilcox, Trissie Crovette, and June Hendry, messengers; Patricia Shafer and Robyn Davis, junior and senior custodian; Bette Jo Vogel and Faune Skinner, lady of the lights; Stephanie Parkinson, page; Linda Messal, Bible escort; Paula Mincar, gavel escort; Marty Mast, flag bearer and Diane Vinzant, Nancy Edward, Sidney Slead, Joanne Morton and Debbie Dyer, Bethel choir.

Open Event

The ceremonies were opened by Mrs. Richard Mayfield, Bethel guardian and Roy Henry, associate guardian, who welcomed those attending and explained the absence of the retiring queen, Miss Jalinda Langston.

Karalee Selby, as installing queen was assisted by Miss Lauri Beth Buonocore, guide; Miss Marcia Barrell, marshal; and Miss Pamela Trowbridge, chaplain, all past queens of Bethel 55; recorder, Miss Patricia Harris, junior past queen of Bethel 14; senior custodian, Miss Dena Taylor, junior past queen of Bethel 69 and junior custodian, Miss Sue Kelley, queen of Bethel 38, Central Point and Miss Charlotte Brown, Bethel 69, musician. Mrs. Philip Selby served as honorary marshal.

Meg Selby who escorted by Miss Jean Allen, and Miss Christine Helman was Bible escort.

Jarl Dyrud sang after the coronation ceremony during which Wayne Kelsoe, master counselor, Medford chapter, Order of De Molay, assisted. Officers Prayer.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster of St. Mark's Episcopal church gave the altar prayer. The newly installed queen introduced members of her family, her parents, her sisters, her niece Meg, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fabrick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Selby, Bellview, Wash., and Mrs. H. S. Ingle, Ashland, aunts and uncles; and Mrs. Daniel Voorhies, a cousin. She also introduced her godparents, Dr. Oscar Halboth and Mrs. Ray Frisbie.

The line officers presented their parents and members of their families who were present.

Several presentations were made with the honored queen receiving her queen's pin and traveling Jobina doll from Miss Karalee Selby, installing queen. Her father, Paul Selby, presented his daughter with a gavel and Meg Selby presented a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses to her aunt, Honored Queen Patricia Selby then presented the traveling guide and marshal pins to Miss Judy Mee and Miss Elaine Hastings.

Mrs. Mayfield, guardian and Mr. Henry, associate guardian, presented the queen and senior and junior princesses with their traveling tiaras and the queen with a Jobina doll.

Escorted to the east and introduced in addition to the installing officers and family of the honored Queen were the Misses Cathy Harsh, Bethel 38, Central Point; Lola Ackerman, Bethel 56, Shady Cove; Ada Harris, Bethel 14, Medford, honored queens of their respective Bethels; Karen Smith and Linda North, junior and senior princesses of Bethel 69; Barbara Jacobson, senior princess of Bethel 14; Mrs. Carl Elhart, past grand guardian; L. R. Manning, past associate grand guardian; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kelley, associate guardian and guardian of Bethel 38, Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bishop, royal patron and matron of Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth.

Several introductions were made from the sidelines including past guardians of Bethel 55, Mrs. Paul Selby, charter guardian, Mrs. Harold Gordon and Mrs. Raymond Reter; and Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, president of the Scottish Rite Women's club.

Wayne Kelsoe, master counselor, introduced the officers and members of Medford chapter, Order of De Molay, who assisted with the crowning ceremony.

Two Sons Visit Parents Here

The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Frake, 22 Richmond avenue, were in Medford for the Fathers' day week end. The older son, William H. Frake, will remain here until mid-July and will return to Berkeley where he is to enter his senior year in law school in the fall.

The younger son, Jim, who will be a junior at the University of Oregon journalism school in the fall, has left for Portland where he will work with Associated Press for the summer weeks.

Theme

The rainbow theme was used for the meeting and reception that followed with the honored queen's motto being "Lift Up Thine Eyes." Miss Pamela Nelson made the favors given each guest.

Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore was chairman of the reception and refreshment committee and was assisted by the Misses Linda Messal, Wendie Weixel, Cheryl and Elaine Hastings, Robyn Davis and Mrs. Reter. Mesdames Fabrick and H. S. Ingle served the cakes with Mrs. Ray Frisbie pouring. The Misses Christine Finch, Katherine Foley and Connie Armstrong presided at the punch tables and Miss Susan Root and Miss Beverly Bush had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Frank Mee and daughter, Miss Judy Mee, were on the cleanup committee.

New Term

The first meeting of the new term was held Tuesday evening in the Medford Masonic temple with the honored queen, Patricia Selby and her officers presiding. Following the meeting an addenda was held honoring the retiring junior past queen, Miss Jalinda Langston.

Her officers each recited a verse, using the letters in her name, and concluding by presenting her a blue carnation. The addenda was planned by Miss Pamela Nelson, senior princess. The queen then presented the past honored queen's pin and a Jobina doll to her and a traveling crown, given to the Bethel by Mrs. Murray Gardiner, to be worn by each succeeding junior past honored queen on their visitations to other Bethels.

Final plans were formulated for the girls and adults attending Grand Guardian council and Grand Bethel to be held in Portland on June 20, 21, and 22.

Parents Attend OSU Graduation

Prospect — Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard attended the graduation of their daughter, Miss Mary Ann Hubbard, June 2, at Oregon State university in Corvallis.

Miss Hubbard received her bachelor of arts degree in business administration and technology. Of the 1835 who graduated, 468 were women. There were 35 states represented and 26 countries.

Miss Hubbard will spend her vacation in Los Angeles with her aunt, Mrs. Betty Sherman, who lives in Van Nuys, and her grandfather, Mr. R. F. Abbott, who lives in Los Angeles.

Miss Janet Young of Medford will accompany her, with the two planning to return home July 1.

Miss Cherye Meggers was crowned queen of the coming Ashland Water carnival in ceremonies held Saturday night at the Mark Anthony hotel. Miss Meggers, who wore a short formal gown of blue organdy embroidered in white, was crowned by Cleatus Mitchell, president of the Ashland Junior Chamber of Commerce. An outdoor enthusiast, the queen skates and swims and is especially fond of water skiing. (Mike Rountree photo)

Cherye Meggers Is Named Queen of Water Carnival

Ashland-Dark eyed Cherye Meggers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Meggers, 925 Beswick Way, was chosen queen of the Ashland Water Carnival during Saturday night's coronation banquet in the Mark Anthony hotel ballroom.

Queen Cherye will reign over the water fete, which it is thought will be an annual event, at Emigrant lake Sunday, June 23, and on Saturday morning will ride in the parade in downtown Ashland with the two princesses chosen at the coronation ball.

Miss Karen Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wood, 1180 Oak street, and Miss Loretta Whipple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whipple, Eagle Point, will be the queen's attendants.

The three pretty contestants were among nine finalists who were guests of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce Saturday evening after having demonstrated their water skiing skills the previous week in try-outs at the lake. Following the dinner each appeared in swim suit and formal gown. Is Crowned

To the queen went not only her crown placed by Cleatus Mitchell, president of the Water Carnival Queen contest, but also a Jantzen swim suit and a U. S. savings bond. Each of the three winners also will be given a portrait by Whitland Locke and the two princesses will receive swim suits.

Judges were Mrs. Robert O'Hara, Bill Purdy, Phil Holman, Edward Carle and Mrs. Rena Locke. Music for dancing was furnished by a three-piece orchestra. Whitland Locke was the master of ceremonies.

The Saturday morning parade will feature water sports of all types. The line of march is to form at the Plaza entrance to Lithia park at 9:30 a.m. The Kilty band will play and there are to be boats and various types of outdoor floats.

Bill Williams of the Medford Ski club is general chairman of the June 23 show at Emigrant lake. Program and entertainment will begin at 1 p.m. and continue throughout the afternoon with contests for all ages and in many classifications.

Queen Cherye and Princesses Karen and Loretta will be the honored guests.
