

Cheney Studs Down Ashland Nine 16-2

Central Point Cheney Studs overran Ashland 16 to 2 last night in an American Legion junior baseball fracas at the fairgrounds ball park.

The Studs scored in each of the last five innings, including five runs in the sixth frame, in the non-counting affair.

Cheney pitchers Bob Corliss and Neal Ellis teamed to hold the Ashlanders to three hits while the Studs were collecting 10. Thirteen errors played havoc with the Ashland cause.

Central Point goes into action next on Wednesday. The Studs take on Medford at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial field, White City. It will be an Area 4 Southern division skirmish with the Cheney nine as home team. Ashland on the same evening will play a league game against the Falcons at Klamath Falls.

The 10 Studs hits last night were scattered among eight players with Neal Ellis and Willie Jones each getting two. A Dave Twedell triple in the sixth inning followed a Jones double. Mike Glines also doubled for Central Point. Dave Barger scooped a two-baser for the Ashlanders.

Glines scored four times for the Cheneyes and Luis Alvarez on three occasions.

The five run frame involved three hits, three errors and two walks. Three runs each crossed in the third, fourth and seventh cantos with two coming home in the fifth. Three hits contributed in the fourth inning but only one in each of the other scoring stanzas.

Ashland garnered both its runs in the fourth inning off Corliss, who was in real trouble only in that frame. The markers came on a hit by John Rhodes, two walks, an error, a wild pitch and a stolen base.

Corliss struck out seven, walked one and gave up two hits in five innings. Ellis whiffed seven batters in two innings. One of the strikeouts.

Splendiferous Setting Slated For Clay-Cooper Fight Tonight

London-UPB-In an appropriately splendiferous setting, Kentucky's "g-r-e-a-t" unbeaten Cassius Clay and England's British Empire champion Henry Cooper fight here tonight for a September shot at the world heavyweight crown.

A half-dozen historically clad trumpeters, six American soldiers and six English soldiers will escort Cassius, the "Louisville Lip," and Cooper, London's former house plasterer, into the canopied ring—amid the cheers from a police-limited crowd of 55,000 at London's outdoor Wembley stadium.

The stadium can hold 100,000 for a soccer game but the police will not permit more than 55,000 tonight.

There will be band playing, community singing and other folderol arranged by promoter Jack Solomons for this richest fight ever staged outside the United States—a show for which the gate is estimated at $448,000.

Then comes the scheduled 10-round fight between Clay, 21, and Cooper, 29—a bout in which "Gaseous Cassius" will try to make his fists live up to the boast loudly shouted by his mouth: "I'm not talkin' jive; Cooper falls in five."

Manny King, one of Britain's outstanding bookmakers, announced that Clay is favored at 4-1 in man-to-man betting.

Clay is a prohibitive favorite because he seeks his 19th consecutive victory as a professional and his 16th knockout. Also because he is ranked second among contenders, just below former champion Floyd Patterson. Cooper is rated fourth.

Many British experts believe that Cooper's aggressive style, featuring a good left hook, and his comparatively weak defense—coupled with quick-bleeding brows—provides a "made-to-order" victim for Cassius.

Clay, with the nimble legs and fast hands, usually keeps circling an opponent and spearing him with left jab and shaking him with sneaker rights until he is ready to be bombarded and knocked out at close quarters.

Cooper, a good puncher, scored 19 knockouts while winning 27 of his 36 bouts. He lost eight and had one draw. Those eight defeats include five kayoes—three because of brow cuts.

They will replace Tom Ferrick, Phil Cavaretta and George Myatt. This was Scheffing's third season as Tiger manager.

Scheffing has been offered a position in the Tiger organization and indicated he intends to accept it after taking a rest, Campbell said.

Detroit now is in 9th place in the American League with 24 wins and 36 losses. The team finished fourth last year and second in 1961.

Detroit Fires Scheffing

Boston-UPB-General manager James A. Campbell announced today that Detroit manager Bob Scheffing and his entire coaching staff have been fired "for the best interests" of the team.

Campbell said the new manager will be Charles Dressen, former manager at Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Washington and Milwaukee. Dressen currently is a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The three new coaches will be Bob Swift, now manager of Syracuse in the International League, Stubby Overmire, manager at Jamestown in the New York-Pennsylvania league, and Pat Mullin, scout of the Tiger organization.

They will replace Tom Ferrick, Phil Cavaretta and George Myatt. This was Scheffing's third season as Tiger manager.

Scheffing has been offered a position in the Tiger organization and indicated he intends to accept it after taking a rest, Campbell said.
