BURDETTE PAYS 1ST DIVIDEND TO ST. LOUIS CARDINALS, 6-2

United Press International
Lew Burdette always was at his best when he could smell the green stuff. He proved it in the 1957 World Series when he beat the Yankees three times to give the Milwaukee Braves their one and only world championship and he's showed it at other times when big dough was at stake.

The St. Louis Cardinals gambled last Sunday that the 36-year-old righthander still had "it" when they acquired him in a trade with the Braves and they got their first dividend Tuesday night when Burdette pitched them to a 6-2 victory over the New York Mets.

an error, a balk, a wild pitch and a passed ball. The San Francisco Giants walloped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-3, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-5, the Cincinnati Reds topped the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, and the Chicago Cubs beat the Houston Colts, 3-1, in other National League games.

Six-Run Inning
A two-run single by Willie McCovey and a double by Orlando Cepeda were the big blows of a six-run third inning that paved the way for the Giants' victory over the Dodgers. Jack Sanford was tagged for 10 hits, including three by Ron Fairly, to raise his record to 9-5.

Joe Torre tripled and scored the tying run in the eighth inning and then hit a two-run homer in the 10th to give the Braves' Bob Shaw his third win against four losses. Bill Mazeroski homered for the Pirates, whose Al McBean suffered his second loss compared with seven wins.

The Reds pulled out their victory over rookie Ray Culp and the Phillies when Vada Pinson got a bad-hop triple to open the ninth inning and Johnny Edwards ultimately singled with the bases filled. The win went to Al Worthington, who worked only one-third of an inning, but the big news for Cincinnati was the strong eight-inning, eight-hit and one-run pitching of Bob Purkey.

Mel Queen belted a solo homer in the sixth. The Padres had the bags jammed in the ninth with two out when Wayne Schurr came in and fanned long ball hitting Deron Johnson to end the contest.

Salt Lake was breezing to a 3-0 win over Spokane going into the bottom of the eighth. Then the Indians climbed back into the contest when Dick Berardino whacked a two-run homer.

Ken McMullen singled Al Ferrara home from second base in the bottom of the ninth to the delight of the hefty crowd of 7,848.

Norm Koch pitched well for eight innings, but Jack Smith took over just in time to get the win. Wayne Carlander also pitched well, but absorbed the setback.

Jacksons Share Honors In Rogue Tennis Meet

Ashland—Jim Jackson, Portland, won the men's singles championship and shared the doubles crowns in the Rogue Valley Tennis clubs tourney Saturday and Sunday at Southern Oregon college courts.

Jim won the singles crown in a finale against Dick Hallock, Red Bluff. He teamed with his brother, Ted Jackson, to down Hallock and Ken Kerns, Redding, Calif., in the men's doubles title match. Jim teamed with Gertrude Brooks, Klamath Falls, for the mixed doubles title. They beat Mike and Sue Naumes, Medford, in the final match.

Ted Jackson took the junior boys singles with a concluding victory over Mike Naumes. Like his brother, Ted shared two titles, combining with Lee Wimberley, Medford, in junior doubles. They subdued Mike Naumes and Gary Highland in the final match. Sue Jennings claimed women's singles honors with a victory in the finals.

Portland—UPI—Rick Wise, a hard-throwing right-hander who pitched Madison of Portland to the Oregon high school Class A-1 baseball championship this spring, was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies by the Philadelphia Phillies. Glenn Elliott, Pacific Northwest area scout for the National league team, said Wise will report to Bakersfield of the Class A California league this week. No terms were announced.

Ken Koch pitched well for eight innings, but Jack Smith took over just in time to get the win. Wayne Carlander also pitched well, but absorbed the setback.

Gordon Jones picked up the win in relief, while Clay Carroll relieved Denver workhorse Chi Chi Olivo during the wild eighth and was the loser.

Corky Withrow of Denver had a two-run homer in the first which was nullified by 88er Jim Mahoney's two-run belt in the second.

Hawaii broke open the game at Honolulu with three runs in the seventh. Mickey Harrington's two run single was the key blow. Rangers' Ray Jablonski hit a solo homer in the eighth.

Giants Bounce Dodgers 9-3; SF Batters Miller

By SCOTT BAILLIE
San Francisco—UPI—Juan Marichal, who never has lost to the Los Angeles Dodgers in Candlestick Park, braved the no-hit jinx today when he went to the mound for the San Francisco Giants against Don Drysdale.

Marichal made his first appearance since he turned back the Houston Colts without a hit last Saturday and lifted his season mark to 10-3. Hurlers proverbially are belted in their next outing and sometimes never are the same again after they fashion a no-hitter.

Drysdale has a season mark of 8-7 and manager Walt Alston hoped that the support will be better than Tuesday night when the Dodgers committed four errors while taking a 9-3 lacing from San Francisco.

good enough for me," manager Alvin Dark said. "I'd rather win 9-3 than lose 2-1." Mays Hurt Willie Mays left the game in the sixth inning after he whacked a foul off his instep. Trainer Frank Bowman said that the injury was not serious. But, Dark added that he would wait until this afternoon before deciding whether to go with his $100,000 outfielder.

Bob Miller (4-4), beaten three times in as many career decisions by the Giants when he pitched last season for the New York Mets, was battered again in Dodger flannels.

Key blows of the attack were a two-run single by Willie McCovey and a double by Orlando Cepeda that brought around another run and ko'd Miller.

Non-Bonus Hurler Might Be Best of All PCL Prospects

By MICHAEL HUDSON
United Press International
In a year when the Pacific Coast league has a nursery full of bonus baby hurlers, the best prospect of all may be Portland's Jose Santiago, who signed for just a cup of coffee.

Santiago, 23, is the kind of rubber-armed hurler that every manager dreams of. He has already compiled a 17-5 record this year—if you count his 10-2 back home in the Puerto Rico Winter league.

He's 7-3 at Portland after stopping Seattle on five hits Tuesday night. The Beavers, trying to climb in the rugged northern division of the Pacific Coast league, needed the 5-1 win just to stay even.

Dressen New Pilot Of Detroit

Boston—UPI—That's a helluva way to treat a guy on his first time out. Well, I guess it will take a few days to get straightened out.

Thus Charley Dressen, for 10 years a manager of four different major league clubs, marked his return to the big top when he took over the diving Detroit Tigers Tuesday night.

Dressen, with less than 24 hours warning on his shift from a special scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers to successor of the deceased Bob Scheffing, saw the Tigers lose, 9-0, in his first game back.

"They just didn't treat me very well," the 64-year-old Dressen said. "No, we haven't had a clubhouse meeting yet. But we'll have one pretty quick now. Just give us a few days and we'll get straightened away."

Dressen and a three man coaching staff flew here Tuesday after Tiger General Manager James A. Campbell made the surprise announcement that Scheffing and his coaches were being replaced "in the best interests" of the club. The coaches all were promoted from the Detroit organization but Dressen was operating as a manager in the American league for the first time since he directed the Washington Senators early in 1958.

The Scheffing firing came as a shock to the ball club but only mildly surprised Scheffing. He left Boston by plane for Detroit Tuesday and said he would spend a month of vacation considering a job in the Detroit organization.

Before Scheffing left he met with his one-time manager, Dressen, and the two talked over the club. Scheffing's three coaches, Phil Cavarretta, Tom Ferrick and George Myatt, all were paid for the full season when they were released. Scheffing was on the final round of a two-year contract given him after he was named the American league's "manager of the year" for Detroit's second place finish in 1961.

lead going into the second round was Southern California southpaw champion Harvey Rascoe of Inglewood, Calif., a veteran insurance man who managed a 39-35-74 on the shore.

Pebble Beach—UPI—The second round of the 28th annual National Left Handed Amateur golf championship got underway here today with California and Washington southpaws threatening to spreadeagle the field.
Of the first 10 championship contenders, six were from the Golden State and the rest from the Northwest.
Nobody was able to come near beating par during Tuesday's first round over the two fog and wind-swept Monterey Peninsula country club courses and the same difficult weather conditions prevailed again today.
