

Public Accountants To Meet in Salem

The 17th annual convention of the Oregon Association of Public Accountants will open Thursday in Salem and continue through Saturday night. Ivan Smalley of Eugene, president of the association, has announced.

National trends in accounting will be discussed by Norman Holland, vice president of the National Society of Public Accountants, according to Harry Ewing, Salem convention chairman.

Washington-AP-The House Labor subcommittee Wednesday approved a bill that would carry out President Kennedy's request for federal legislation to outlaw job discrimination in private busi-
