KF Falcons Grab Legion Ball Lead

Klamath Falls — The Klamath Falls Falcons took over the front-runner spot last night in the Southern division of Area 4 in American Legion junior baseball.

A 9 to 3 verdict over Ashland gave the Falcons a 4-1 status in the league. The Klamath club was helped when Medford downed the Central Point Cheney Studs also yesterday evening 3 to 0, handing the Cheney nine its second loss.

Klamath's big inning was the fourth when three runs crossed. Dave Johnson walked and LeVoy Young followed with an inside the park homer. Larry Binney hit and stole second base and Mike Kitching singled him home.

Ashland got two runs in the third inning on singles by Tim Thompson and Jerry Dickerson, a groundout, a wild pitch and a double by John Rhodes. In the sixth inning Rhodes walked, went to second on an error, moved to third base on a Jan Susee hit and swiped home.

Kitching got four hits in four times up for Klamath, including a double and a triple. Dickerson had two hits for Ashland.

Gary Benson, tossing a five-hitter for KF, fanned 15 and walked six. Rhodes gave up 11 hits to the Falcons. He whiffed eight, walked two and hit two.

Clay Prefers Philadelphia

New York — (EP) — Cassius Clay prefers Philadelphia as the site of his proposed bout with heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, who used to live there.

"Then the hometown people can watch the annihilation of the hometown boy," the undefeated Louisville slugger said Wednesday upon his return from London, where he stopped British Empire champion Henry Cooper in five rounds Tuesday night.

Clay wants to challenge Liston before mid-December because he has dreams of becoming the youngest boxer ever to wear the heavyweight crown. Floyd Patterson, who meets Liston in a return bout at Las Vegas July 22, won the crown first at the age of 21 years and 11 months.

McKinley, Hard Carry U.S. Hopes

Wimbledon — (EP) — Chuck McKinley and Darlene Hard, ranked No. 1 among American men and women, carry United States hopes in next week's Wimbledon championships, each seeded No. 4 against a strong Australian contingent.

Roy Emerson of Australia, generally recognized as the world's top amateur tennis player, drew the top seed as expected, while Margaret Smith, the leading Australian woman player who was knocked out in the second round at Wimbledon a year ago, drew No. 1 in the feminine seeds.

The 22-year-old McKinley, who comes from St. Louis and attends Trinity University in Texas, went all the way to the men's final in the all-England championships two years ago before bowing to Rod Laver.

Ranked behind Emerson are Manuel Santana of Spain and Ken Fletcher of Australia. Then come McKinley, followed by Martin Mulligan of Australia, Pierre Darmon of France, Jan Erik Lundquist of Sweden and Mike Sanget of England.

Lesley Turner of Australia is seeded No. 2 behind Miss Smith with Ann Haydon Jones of England three. Following Miss Hard are Jan Lehane of Australia, Vera Sukova, the chunky Czechoslovak housewife who lost out to Karen Hantze Susman of San Diego, Calif. in the finals last year, Maria Esther Bueno of Brazil and Renee Schuurman of South Africa.

Ralston, Osuna Face NCAA Foes

Princeton, N.J. — (EP) — Top-seeded Dennis Ralston took on 10th seeded Dave Reed of UCLA and second-seeded Rafael Osuna, Ralston's teammate from Southern California, played sixth-seeded William Lenoir of Arizona today in the quarterfinals of the NCAA tennis championships.

Big Three Against Little Ones in U.S. Open Tangle

By LEO H. PETERSEN UPI Sports Editor
Brookline, Mass. — (EP) — Golf's "big three" of Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player as they teed off with 147 little ones — who hope to become big ones — in the U.S. Open championship today.

The star-studded field of 150 faced a treacherous course in the first of four rounds which will decide America's premier golf title when the sun sets over this Massachusetts scene Saturday evening.

It's 4-1 that the 23-year-old Nicklaus, the defending champion and only in his second year as a professional golfer, will be at the top of the heap when they have played 72 holes over the 6,870-yard course of the Country Club of Brookline, labeled by most of the competitors as "impossible."

like the weather forecast for this afternoon. If called for scattered thundershowers.

"But we'll have to take it as it is," said Palmer, the second choice in the betting to Nicklaus.

"I think that when you keep complaining about a course, it gets on your mind, so I'm not going to have any feelings about it."

Nicklaus, completely recovered from the neck ailment which hampered him in the Thunderbird last week, was undoubtedly the man to beat.

"Well, all I can say is that I'm a better player now than I was when I won it last year," Nicklaus shrugged.

Right behind Nicklaus in the list of favorites came Palmer at 6-1 while Player, Julius Boros and Gene Littler were listed at 8-1.

Low Qualifier Has Close Call
Wichita, Kan. — (EP) — The NCAA golf tournament swung into the third round today with two conference champions missing and the medalist sweating.

Medalist R. H. Sikes of Arkansas, Walker Cupper and Public Links champion, battled to the 21st hole of the second round Wednesday before he sank a 10-foot putt to dump Jim Colbert of Kansas State 1 up.

Dave Stockton, the Big Five champion from Southern California, and Big Ten titlist Roger Everhardt of Wisconsin were eliminated Wednesday.

Defending champion Kermit Zarley of Houston and George Hixon of Oklahoma State, another favorite, remained in play.

It's called the Great Entertainer (and for a good reason.)

The reason is very simple. Seagram's 7 Crown has brought more pleasure to more people than any other whiskey in the world. Drinks made with 7 Crown taste so good because the whiskey itself does.

It should. No whiskey anywhere is made with more dedicated care. Try Seagram's 7 Crown tonight. Whatever the drink, here's a prediction: The Great Entertainer will have another fan.

Portland — (EP) — An unidentified bettor won $5,140.80 on a $2 ticket at Portland Meadows Wednesday night. It was the third largest payoff in the track's history.

The bettor held the only ticket on the winning "Big Q" numbers, a quinnella parlay. He picked Red Ear Jr. and He's Quick, a couple of 19 to 1 shots in the eighth race and Case Card and Clear Act in the ninth race.

The winner did not attempt to cash his ticket before the mutual windows closed Wednesday night.
