Installation Ceremony Held by Soroptimists

Ashland - Installation ceremonies that emphasized the purpose and program of the Soroptimist club locally and internationally were conducted June 14 in the Mark Anthony hotel ballroom following a 7 o'clock banquet. It was attended by more than 45 members and guests.

Mrs. Helmi Leidigh, a past president, was the installing officer. She used the Soroptimist insignia as the theme, reminding each new club officer of her specific duties in carrying out the aims and ideals of Soroptimism, ever mindful of woman's responsible role in today's society.

Receiving the presidential gavel for the ensuing year was Mrs. Louise Walters, who succeeds Mrs. Mabel Winston. Both spoke briefly and exchanged the official pins of the executive office.

On the new board are Mrs. Alta Nichols, first vice president; Mrs. Mary McLoughlin, second vice president; Mrs. Caroline Sharp, recording secretary; Mrs. Vina Kapetya, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Marie Austin, treasurer and Mrs. Adelaide Clary, director.

Simpsons Sing

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Simpson, who were introduced by Mrs. Velma Jones, presented a program of American folk music, vocal and guitar, in which they were joined by the audience for the singing of several familiar old songs.

The installation dinner opened with the customary ritual of the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the Soroptimist grace which Mrs. Hattie Litwilled sang and at the conclusion of the evening all joined hands in the Soroptimist Aloha.

The tables were elaborately decorated in blue and gold flowers, golden oak leaves and acorns and lighted by tapers in Soroptimist club colors. Favors were the symbolic gold leaves of the insignia on the large emblem between two tall baskets of daisies and delphinium. Mrs. Amanda Farris was chairman of the decorating committee.

The club's next undertaking is its annual Shakespearean Festival project of the pillow and blanket rental booth during the season. Proceeds go toward Festival scholarships for girls in the company.
