

Cincinnati's O'Toole Chalks Up 13th Victory; 3-Run Blast Aids

United Press International
Cocky Jim O'Toole, who once won 20 games without even bothering to run, figures to do it again this year without any sweat.

The swaggering Cincinnati southpaw reeled off his 13th victory of the season and his seventh in a row Thursday night by beating Philadelphia 11-1 to boost the Reds with in 3½ games of the National league lead.

O'Toole struck out six batters and gave up only five hits but developed blisters on his pitching hand after eight innings and gave way to Jim Owens in the ninth.

Although his 19 wins for the Reds in 1961 represent his top one-season total in the majors, O'Toole won 20 games for Nashville in the Southern association during 1958 and was rather proud of the accomplishments when he reported to Cincinnati the following spring.

One of his teammates prodded him about not doing any running in spring training that year and O'Toole blithely replied:

"I've got news for you. I won 20 at Nashville last year without running at all."

Major's Biggest Winner
O'Toole does some occasional running now but he certainly has nothing to sweat about with a 13-3 record that makes him the biggest winner in the majors so far.

He was the beneficiary of a three-run homer by John Edwards Thursday night and another solo homer by Bob Skinner.

The Reds had only a 2-1 lead until the fifth inning when Edwards' homer assured a five-run rally at the expense of Art Mahaffey, who suffered his ninth loss in 12 decisions.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 and the Chicago Cubs blanked the Houston Colts 5-0 in the only other NL games scheduled.

Pitcher Homers
Southpaw Denny Lemaster of the Braves held the Pirates to five hits and then won his own game with an eighth inning homer.

Rookie Ron Brand put Pittsburgh aghast with his first major league homer in the third inning and Don Schwall nursed that 1-0 lead until a back cramp forced him out of action in the sixth. Eddie Mathews tied the score in the same frame by connecting for his ninth homer off reliever Tommy Sisk.

Larry Jackson limited the Colts to four hits and posted his eighth victory for the Cubs with the aid of Billy Williams' ninth and 10th homers.

Tri-City Gems Vie At Medford Tonight

A newcomer to American Legion Junior baseball will provide the opposition for Medford this evening.

The local aggregation is host to the Tri-City Gems. Game time is billed for 8 p.m. at the fairgrounds ball diamond. It will be an Area 4 Southern division contest.

The Gems roster has players from Merrill, Malin and Tule Lake. Its home field is at Merrill.

Tri-City comes with a 1-4 standing in the division. Medford is 3-1. The Medford team, which relinquished the league leadership last week end, has a chance this evening to get a share of it back. The Klamath Falls Falcons head the circuit with 4-1.

This evening's battle leads off a slate of nine billed for the week end.

Grants Pass opposes the Hawks at Klamath Falls on Saturday evening in the league. Medford will play the Hawks at KF in a Sunday twinbill. The KF Falcons will tackle Mock Ford at Grants Pass in two Sunday games and Ashland will play Tri-City at Merrill. The tilt at Merrill and the first of the doubleheaders at Klamath and Grants Pass will count in the league standings. All these Sunday games are afternoons.

Fans Cheer Stengel, Boo Maris

New York (UPI)—The Mets' fans had a ball from cheering Casey Stengel to booing Roger Maris.

The Yankee Stadium was their oyster for a night and they made the most of it as their ragamuffin heroes defeated the world champions 6-2 in a benefit game for New York sandlot baseball played before a crowd of 50,742.

In fact, about the only thing the Mets' wildly enthusiastic fans didn't make off with was the stadium's center field flag pole—and it wasn't because they didn't try. A small mob of 'em seemed bent on taking it home as a souvenir until Yankee Stadium special police gained control.

The Yankees shrugged it all off as just another exhibition game.

"That's the way I like to split a doubleheader," said manager Ralph Houk, referring to the fact the Yankees beat the Washington Senators 5-4 in an American League game Thursday afternoon.

"Just look at the standings of the two teams and you'll see we didn't lose a thing."

YANKS QUALIFY
Roehampton, England (UPI)—The anxiety was over today for Bob Siska of San Francisco, Ron Fisher of Houston and Bill Hoogs of Berkeley, Calif.—They'll be in the field on Monday when play begins in the Wimbledon tennis championships. All three Americans earned berths for the all-England championships by banging their way into the quarter-finals of a special qualifying tournament.
