

New Plywood Plant Set for Glendale

Grants Pass - Announcement has been made of a new plywood plant to open Oct. 1 in Glendale, north of here.

It is being formed jointly by the Bate Plywood Company, Merlino, and the Robert Dollar company, San Francisco, which has extensive holdings, including a sawmill operation in Glendale.

The name of the plant will be the Glendale Plywood company, and distribution will be nationwide.

Operation will include processing and finishing hot pressed plywood, with the firm employing about 85 men.

Joint announcement of the plans was made by George J. Ritchie, manager of Bate Plywood company, and T. H. Mehler, Jr., vice president of the Robert Dollar company.
