

Grange News

Roxy Ann Grange
The Roxy Ann Grange met recently with Francis Moffatt presiding.
Marie Pfinster reported on the dinners served. On a display table were pictures of the members' fathers when they were young.
Chaplin Mrs. Paul Dalton gave a lecture program, followed by a father's day program put on by Mrs. Evelyn Hendrix and the women of the Grange.
The next meeting will be held June 21. The lecture program will include colored slides taken by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pfinster on their trip to Europe.

4-H NEWS

Eagle Point Sewettes
The last meeting of the Eagle Point Sewettes 4-H club was held at the home of Ila Moore recently.
Mrs. Ben Moore aided the girls with their projects and plans were discussed for the 4-H club summer camp which will be held at Howard Prairie, July 16-19.

Snappy Cooks
The last meeting of the Snappy Cooks 4-H club was held recently with Gail Glass leading the 4-H pledge and Diana Craven leading the pledge of allegiance.
Plans for a slumber party and the pre-fair were discussed. It was decided to hold future meetings at 7:30 p.m.
Members responded to roll call by naming a food that began with the same letter as their name.
Two members at the meeting were Debbie and Lorenia Zuppann.
At the close of the meeting Kathy Ross demonstrated the making of a vegetable salad.

London Party Girl Guarded by Police
London (UPI)—Police guarded party girl Christine Keeler today because of threats stemming from the Profumo scandal that has rocked the government and shocked London society.
A police spokesman said guards were posted at Miss Keeler's apartment after a number of anonymous threats against her life were made by telephone. Authorities warned the 22-year-old redhead not to answer her door.
Scotland Yard was reported planning to question more society figures in a vice probe connected with the sex and security scandal touched off by the resignation of War Minister John Profumo because of his illicit love affair with Miss Keeler.

Burglary Cases Are Cleared With Arrests
Several burglary cases in the county were cleared with the arrest of two Ashland boys, one 16 and one 17-years-old, by Jackson county sheriff's deputies Wednesday.
More cases and more arrests may be made later, deputies said. The two boys are being held in the Jackson county juvenile detention home.
