

To report improper or non-delivery of the Mail Tribune in Medford, phone 772-4141; Ashland call at 416 Bridge st., or phone 482-3002; Trask, phone 442-2402, before 8:45 p.m. daily and 10:30 a.m. Sunday.
If regular delivery arrives shortly after you call please notify office, thus eliminating special messenger service.

Highlights From New Pope's First Speech to World

Vatican City — (UPI) — Following are highlights from Pope Paul VI's Latin language message to the world Saturday.

SPIRITUAL INHERITANCE
Our predecessors have left us a sacred and glorious spiritual inheritance... Pius XI with his indomitable spiritual strength, Pius XII who enlightened the church with the light of a teaching filled with wisdom, and finally, John XXIII, who has given the whole world the example of his singular goodness.

ECUMENICAL COUNCIL
The preeminent part of our Pontificate will be concerned with the continuation of the Ecumenical Council, Vatican II, on which the eyes of all men of good will are fixed. This will be the principal work for which we intend to spend all the energies that the Lord has granted us, so that the Catholic church, which shines in the world like a flag hoisted over all distant nations, may attract to itself all men.

SOCIAL JUSTICE
The unequal order of love for others, a testing ground for the love of God, demands from all men a more equitable solution of social problems. It requires help and assistance to underdeveloped countries... it imposes a conscientious study on a universal scale for the improvement of living conditions.

WORLD PEACE
Our work, with the help of God, will also devote every effort toward the preservation of the great asset of peace among the nations — a peace which is not only the absence of warlike rivalries or of armed blocs, but reflects a constructive and tenacious will for understanding and of brotherhood.

CHRISTIAN UNITY
The common aspiration to restore the unity painfully broken in the past will find in us an echo of fervent will... we are opening our arms to all those who take pride in the name of Christ. We are calling them by the sweet name of brother and letting them know that they will find in us constant understanding and benevolence. They will find in Rome the father's home...

CHURCH OF SILENCE
In particular, we want the brothers and children of those regions where the church is prevented from using its rights to feel close to us. They have been called to participate more closely in the cross of Christ, which will be followed, we are sure, by the radiant dawn of resurrection. They will then be able to finally return to the full practice of their pastoral ministry which, by its institution, is meant to benefit not only individual souls but also the nations in which it is exercised.

FAITH AND LOVE
"May a great flame of faith and love, igniting all men of good will, pass over the whole world. May it illuminate the road of reciprocal collaboration. And may it draw down on mankind, now and ever, the abundance of divine gifts, the strength itself of God, without whose help nothing is valid, nothing is sanctified."

Local Red Cross Chapter Named as Semi-finalist

The Jackson county chapter of the American Red Cross has been named a semi-finalist in consideration for the 1962 Lane Bryant annual awards for volunteers engaged in projects for the benefit of the community.
A citation has been sent to the chapter signifying that it is now in the running for the top awards.
Established in 1948, the awards of $1,000 are presented annually to an individual and to a group in an effort to encourage voluntary participation in projects that benefit American home and community life.
As its entry, the Jackson county chapter of the American Red Cross submitted a report, including photographs, on its service to the blind program.
According to Jerome E. Klein, awards staff director, semi-finalists were selected by the Bureau of Applied Social Research at Columbia University in New York, at which time all nominations were subjected to "rigid standards criteria of exclusion."
"Citizens are presented to approximately ten per cent of the nominees meeting these criteria and surviving this preliminary screening," Klein said.
The final selection for the awards will be made by a committee composed of Christian A. Herter, former secretary of state; writer Marianne Moore; David Sarnoff, RCA chairman of the board; Senator John J. Sparkman of Alabama, and John Hay Whitney, publisher of the New York Herald Tribune.

Macmillan Vows to Remain in Office
London — (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said Saturday he will not be panicked into resigning over the Profumo sex and security scandal despite a flood of "disgusting" rumors that higher ups may be involved.
But in a rare show of emotion he took note of the national debate on his possible resignation later this year and said, "Any decision I have to take will be taken in the spirit in which I have tried to serve the country these years."
Political observers saw this statement as his first admission he may resign in the future.
A group of hecklers, most of them members of a "ban-the-bomb" group, were pumpeled by Macmillan's supporters at a rally in suburban Bromley carried bodily to the door and thrown out of the door of the hall where he was speaking. He watched in silence.
Macmillan said to resign at this moment would be to make his whole life "worthless and meaningless" and would be untrue to the convictions he has held through 40 years of political life.

INAUGURAL SPEECH — Pope Paul VI delivers the inaugural speech of his reign in the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City Saturday. Behind him is Monsignor Salvatore Capoferri, an official of papal ceremonies. The Pope said that his pontificate would be dedicated to a continuation of the unifying ideals of the Ecumenical Council and a peaceful preservation of world order. (UPI)

Pope Paul Pledges To Continue the Ecumenical Design

Vatican City — (UPI) — Pope Paul VI pledged Saturday to continue the Ecumenical design of Pope John XXIII for Christian unity and world peace. He prayed that a "great flame of faith and love" would envelop the world.
The 69-year-old pontiff quickly assured the world there would be no interruption of the work of his predecessor which had won the praise of men of all faiths.
It was so to speak, his keynote address. Pope Paul spoke in firm, measured tones in Latin in the Sistine chapel before the 79 Cardinals who chose him Friday to lead the world's 500 million Roman Catholics.
It seemed likely Saturday that President Kennedy will be the first foreign chief of state to have an audience with the new pope. Kennedy, also a Roman Catholic, is due to arrive in Rome June 30, the day of the coronation.
U.S. officials said the President's arrival probably would be delayed until after the ceremony so as not to clash with it.
Pope Paul, who has worked closely with the Vatican and his three previous predecessors for half his life, charted his own pontificate with a 2,000 word address that showed the cool mind of an intellectual.
Round of Calls
Characteristically, the new pontiff devoted part of his first day on missions of mercy. After praying Saturday evening at the tombs of his predecessors in the Vatican grottoes, he began a round of sick calls both in and outside the Vatican.
One person on his list was Enrique Cardinal Pla Y Denciel, 86-year-old archbishop of Toledo, Spain, who was taken to the Spanish Pontifical college in downtown Rome after the conclave Friday. He has influenza.
Another was Bishop Josef Slippy, Ukrainian Roman Catholic, who was released this year from 18 years in Soviet prisons and detentions.
A third was Bishop Angelo Botta, 90, who once taught the pope when he was a priest in Lombardy. Botta is seriously ill in an apartment inside the Vatican.

California Solos Pass Housing Bill

Sacramento, Calif. — (UPI) — The California legislature used its final hour Friday night to pass an angrily debated Fair Housing bill that will cover an estimated 60 to 70 per cent of all dwellings in the state.
The measure, which could send a racially prejudiced home or apartment owner to jail, cleared the Senate and Assembly only seven minutes before their mandatory adjournment at midnight.
Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who made the bill his key civil rights proposal of the six-month session, immediately called the passage "an historic step towards giving every Californian the right to live where he pleases."
It was Brown who estimated the bill would cover 70 per cent of dwellings. Negro Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford, the Berkeley Democrat who introduced it, was more conservative at 64 per cent.

Runaway County Prisoner Relaken

A prisoner serving time on a disorderly conduct charge walked off a work detail Saturday, but was recaptured about two hours after his escape was discovered.
Sheriff's deputies apprehended Alva Allen Doty, 28, at his home at 218 Snowy Butte In. Central Point, at about 6 p.m.
He had been out on a work party at the Hanley ranch during the day. When members of the party were rounded up for the trip back to the jail shortly before 4 p.m., Doty was found to be missing.

FOUNDER DIES

Beverly Hills, Calif. — (UPI) — J. C. Garrett, president and founder of the Garrett Corp., died Saturday of a heart attack. He was 55.

FILES LIEN

Portland — (UPI) — Andersen-Westfall Construction Co. of Portland has filed a $1,307,211 mechanics lien against the Hilton hotel and the Metropolitan Hotel Corp.

Integrationists Promise to Back Kennedy Program

No Pledge Given On Demonstrations
Washington — (UPI) — Key integrationist leaders promised President Kennedy full-scale support of his civil rights legislation Saturday but declined to pledge an end to protest demonstrations which he fears might antagonize Congress against the program.
Immediately after meeting with the white and Negro racial spokesmen at the White House, the President took two major civil rights actions:
He issued an executive order enjoining all government agencies to cut off funds from any federally-assisted construction project where discrimination against Negroes is practiced. The authority extends to such state and local projects as highway, hospital, school and other construction.

Report Views
He sent to Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara a recommendation by a White House committee that the armed services consider shutting down military installations near cities or localities where race discrimination is widespread. Mr. Kennedy asked McNamara to report his views on this and other recommendations within 30 days.
Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield declared meantime that he would vote to kill the expected Senate Southern filibuster against the civil rights package. Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen still has not yet committed himself on the question.
Mr. Kennedy made no direct request to the civil rights leaders for a "no demonstration" pledge, but he was hopeful of persuading them to temper their activities. He spoke out forcefully on the dangers of violence that un-disciplined demonstrators can generate, particularly while the sectionally-divided House and Senate debate his far-reaching program.

After the White House meeting, Dr. Martin Luther King, one of approximately 20 white and Negro leaders who attended, said: "I made it very clear we could not in any good conscience call off any massive demonstration until the problems that brought these demonstrations into being are solved."

Suspect Nabbed in Murder of Leader

Washington — (UPI) — The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced early today the arrest in Greenwood, Miss., of a man being held for the slaying of Negro integration leader Medgar Evers in Jackson, Miss., June 12.
FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover identified the white man as Byron De La Beckwith, 42.
He said Beckwith was arrested early today in Greenwood, and would be arraigned as soon as possible. An FBI spokesman said the arraignment probably would take place in Jackson.
Hoover said Beckwith would be turned over to Jackson authorities as soon as possible for questioning and filing of murder charges.

Cuban Exile Leader Resigns in Anger

Miami — (UPI) — Dr. Antonio Maceo resigned as president of the Cuban revolutionary council Saturday with an angry blast at other council members for talking too freely about the landing of exile commandos in Cuba.
He said the talk about this week's landings jeopardized underground security and "those risking their lives in the fight."
Maceo, who took over as president of the disintegrated council less than two months ago, said he had repeatedly cautioned council members of the "need for discretion" in discussing the landings.
Since the council chose to ignore his warnings and because of the lack of "coordination" under his leadership, he said he was resigning as president and member of the exile organization.

Navy Launches Four Nuclear Submarines

Groton, Conn. — (UPI) — The United States made naval history Saturday by launching four nuclear submarines in simultaneous ceremonies.
The subs' combined armaments are capable of destroying any belligerent nation in the world.
The occasion also marked the first simultaneous christening in the 66-year history of submarine construction. The super-Polaris sub Tecumseh and the attack sub Flasher — one of each type of America's awesome undersea weapons — went off the ways together here at the Electric Boat shipyards of General Dynamics Corp.
The super-Polaris Daniel Boone was launched at Mare Island, Calif., and the super-Polaris John C. Calhoun hit the waves at the Newport News, Va., Shipbuilding Co.
Flasher is a sister ship of the ill-fated Thresher, which sank in the Atlantic April 10 with 129 men aboard. Thresher was the lead boat of the class.

Medford Woman Hurt in 2-Car Crash

Betty J. Bullock of 1507 Ridgeway dr. was reported in good condition at Rogue Valley hospital Saturday night following a two-car collision on Hillcrest rd. at about 6 p.m.
Mrs. Bullock, driver of one of the cars, suffered a fractured right arm. A passenger in her car, who was not immediately identified, and the driver of the other car, Barrie Witte, of South Pacific highway, were both treated at the hospital and released.

JFK Leaves for Visit to Four European Countries

Republicans Pick San Francisco as Convention Site
Chicago Loses Bid In Committee Action

Denver — (UPI) — Republican leaders agreed Saturday to nominate the GOP's 1964 presidential candidate at a San Francisco convention in the Cow Palace, the setting for Dwight D. Eisenhower's renomination in 1956.
The action was taken at the final session of a Republican National committee meeting at which a resolution also was adopted indicting the Kennedy administration on 20 counts, including a "failure to deal effectively with the problems of civil rights."
Outside of the conference rooms, this three-day assembly of GOP leaders from throughout the country was loaded with presidential politics. Soundings were taken by partisans of Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the current front-runner, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, who has fallen behind, and by uncommitted party leaders trying to test the political winds.

George L. Hinman of New York, a Rockefeller lieutenant, invited newsmen to his suite Saturday morning to tell them that his findings indicated that competition for the presidential nomination "is wide open." He said he also wanted to spike "irresponsible talk here" that Rockefeller might withdraw.
After a very feeble protest from Illinois Republicans urging a Chicago convention, the national committee approved the recommendation of its site selection committee to go to San Francisco for a convention opening Monday, July 13, 1964.

Speaking for the site committee, Jean K. Tool of Colorado reported that hotel or convention hall problems had been found in Chicago and the other five cities which originally bid for the convention. San Francisco pledged $400,000 in public money from its convention fund, plus $250,000 to be raised by a citizens committee.

Portland Leaders Tell Disaster Plans

Portland — (UPI) — Portland apparently was back in the good graces of the federal government Saturday after disclosing its plans to have some kind of disaster relief program.
The City Council voted 4-1 last month to junk its Civil Defense program.
The disclosure was made here Friday afternoon at a 90-minute meeting between city officials and S. L. Pittman, assistant U. S. Secretary of Defense who is in charge of the nation's Civil Defense.
Pittman pledged support of the government in matching funds for a local city-county disaster relief program if the officials would include public shelters in their program.
They said they would.
No amount of federal aid was specified by the assistant secretary. He was insistent on the need for a full-time civil defense coordinator for the Portland area. This brought no adverse comment.

Medford Woman

Betty J. Bullock of 1507 Ridgeway dr. was reported in good condition at Rogue Valley hospital Saturday night following a two-car collision on Hillcrest rd. at about 6 p.m.
Mrs. Bullock, driver of one of the cars, suffered a fractured right arm. A passenger in her car, who was not immediately identified, and the driver of the other car, Barrie Witte, of South Pacific highway, were both treated at the hospital and released.

CHAMPION MARKET LAMB — A Suffolk lamb raised by Kathy Zapell, 16-year-old member of the Talent Bunnies 4-H sheep club was judged grand champion market lamb of the 110 entered in the first annual 4-H lamb and wool show at the Jackson county fair grounds Friday night. The lamb was bred on the R. S. Zapell farm in Talent.

Talent Girl Wins Top Prize in 4-H Lamb, Wool Show

Tall, blond 16-year-old Kathy Zapell, of Talent, received the grand champion market lamb rosette Friday night as a climax to the first day of the two-day first annual 4-H lamb and wool show and sale at the Jackson county fairgrounds.
Thirteen-year-old Darlene Balog, of the Sis-Q 4-H sheep club in Ashland, received the reserve market lamb championship.
Miss Zapell, a member of the Talent Bunnies 4-H sheep club, exhibited a black-faced Suffolk which was bred at the R. S. Zapell ranch in Talent. This is her seventh year of 4-H work. She estimated she had about $15 invested in her lamb.
Miss Balog bred her South-down cross on her father's ranch on Emigrant rd. She had been in 4-H club activities two years.
The two girls were among 110 4-H members plus a few Future Farmers of America members who had one lamb each in the show.
This is the first year the lamb and wool events have been grouped in a show separate from the regular Jackson county 4-H and FFA fair scheduled this year for Aug. 10-17 at the fairgrounds south of Medford.

Livestock Auction

Veteran Eagle Point 4-H leader and fair board member William Bigham said the new arrangement will save a day of fair time. It will also shorten the usually lengthy livestock auction at the end of the week-long event, other leaders said.
About 80 lambs were scheduled to go into the auction ring in the main barn Saturday night following the annual lamb barbecue presided over by Francis Krouse, Applegate 4-H leader, and longtime fair board member.
The livestock judging contest and sheep showmanship contests were held Saturday. The wool and sheep shearing contests preceded on Friday.
Crater FFA chapter from Central Point almost made a clean sweep of the sheep shearing contest with Clint Gibson, Crater FFA and Steve Clark, Crater FFA, taking first and second places respectively. Mike Elmore, Applegate 4-H club member, came in third.
Local 4-H club officials and fair board members seemed well pleased with this year's lamb entries. Bigham noted that there were only 15 feeders so classed in this year's show compared to 25 in last year's fair. Harlan Cantrell, Applegate 4-H club leader, noted that there were many more lambs graded choice this year than ever before. This is remarkable since this year's lamb events were being run off much earlier. The young owners of the lambs had two months less to bring their animals up to peak condition.
A chill wind kept the show audience to a scattered few in the stands at the main barn both Friday and Saturday.

President Slated For Audience with Pope During Trip

Washington — (UPI) — President Kennedy left Saturday night for a 12-day visit to Europe where he will deliver five major addresses and confer with the leaders of West Germany, Ireland, Britain and Italy.
He also will have an audience with Pope Paul VI just before returning home on July 3. This, a visit to the land of his Irish ancestors, and a tour of the Berlin wall will highlight a venture in personal diplomacy that comes at a time of differing shades of political trouble in the countries he will visit, plus racial unrest in the United States.
The President departed after a day he spent conferring with various civil rights figures and then saying farewell to his family at Camp David.

Long Planned

Mr. Kennedy's trip — the longest foreign tour he has made since entering the White House and his second to Europe — was planned long before domestic difficulties swirled up in the countries he will visit and in the United States as well.
Critics have said he should stay at home to deal with the rampant civil rights crisis, and that this would be just as well because the state of turmoil in Europe is such that little can be accomplished anyway.
But the President was said by high U. S. officials to feel that this time of political uncertainty in Europe makes it doubly important for him to go there and restate the basic principles of U. S. foreign policy. He will be able to do so in five major speeches as well as in individual talks and a news conference.
The President's first visit to Europe since his confrontation with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev in Vienna two years ago has two aims: to tighten the bonds of friendship with the United States' allies, and to show the Communists that his strategy of peace means a continued American presence in Europe.
Kennedy will stress that presence Wednesday when he visits U. S. soldiers stationed a few feet from Communist territory at Checkpoint Charlie on the Berlin wall.
He will be the first western Allied chief of government to visit Berlin since 1945.
The President's European trip will begin with talks with West German leaders, then swing to Berlin.

Sports Bulletin

Saturday Night Baseball AMERICAN LEAGUE
New York 3 Boston 2 (2nd game)
Detroit 3 Kansas City 2
PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE
Portland 10 Salt Lake 2
San Diego 10 Spokane 8
Seattle 3 Tacoma 0

Brezhnev Seen as K's Successor

Moscow — (UPI) — Soviet President Leonid Ilyich Brezhnev, considered one of Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's strongest supporters and closest friends emerged Saturday as a leading candidate to succeed the 69-year-old Communist leader when he steps down from office.
At Friday's closing session of the Communist Central committee meeting here, Brezhnev and presidium member Nikolai Podgorny were elected committee secretaries.
Western observers viewed the move as a possible first step toward making the energetic, bushy-browed Soviet president the Communist party's "crown prince." As such he would succeed deputy party leader and central committee secretary Frol Kozlov.
Kozlov, long considered the No. 1 candidate to step into

LEONID BREZHNEV
Leading Candidate

ther he will ever be able to resume his duties.
Thus Brezhnev, 58, appeared to be emerging as a possible successor to Kozlov.
There has been some speculation among foreigners here that Khrushchev might be getting ready to give up some of his powers because of his age. But there has been nothing even resembling an official announcement.
In another development, the central committee threw its unanimous support to Khrushchev in his ideological battle against Red China. The committee is the highest political body in Russia.
The committee, in a statement published in Saturday's issue of the Communist party newspaper Pravda, termed "groundless and slanderous" China's continuing attacks on Russia's line of "peaceful co-existence" with the West.

NEWS BRIEFS

TERRORISTS BLOW UP PIPELINE
Caracas, Venezuela — (UPI) — Terrorists believed to be Communists Saturday blew up a pipeline of the American-owned Venezuelan Transmission Corp., cutting off service to sections of the capital.
ADENAUER LOOKS TO U.S. LEADERSHIP
Bonn — (UPI) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said Saturday night on the eve of President Kennedy's arrival that West Germany and the free world can be protected from enslavement only under the leadership of the United States.
DE GAULLE COLD SHOULDERS OFFER
Paris — (UPI) — President Charles De Gaulle cold shouldered an offer by President Kennedy to meet him during his European tour, reliable diplomatic sources said Saturday. The sources said the offer was made through diplomatic channels and that it was more of a hint or a suggestion than a formal offer.