

Miss Paulsen Wed to Officer

Miss Connie Lee Paulsen and Lt. Robert Leroy Thrush were married in an 8 o'clock evening candlelight ceremony June 15, in the Medford Friends church. The Rev. Bernard E. Andrews of the Medford First Baptist church performed the double ring rites. About 150 guests and relatives attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Paulsen, 508 Hamilton street, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery R. Thrush, Camas Valley, Ore.

Baskets of white gladioli and tangerine carnations, and white candles decorated the front of the church. Lighted candles marked the pew ends where white bows, tangerine carnations, and greenery were placed.

Mrs. Douglas Cummings, Rancho Cordova, Calif., played the organ and Miss Julia Gandt, Medford, sang the wedding songs.

Mr. Paulsen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie in classic design which she had made. The fitted bodice had a boat neckline and the skirt was designed with an apron-type front and long flowing train. The dress was trimmed with rose design lace.

The bride also had made her elbow-length veil of nylon illusion which was held in place by a low circle crown of lace trim that matched the dress trim. Her wedding bouquet was of white carnations and stephanotis.

Attendants in Green

Miss Betty Young, Medford, was maid of honor and Mrs. Don Tinseth, Medford, was bridesmaid. Bridesmaids were Miss Diane Paulsen, Medford, sister of the bride; Miss Mary Lee de Place, Medford, and Miss Carol Swanson, Portland, sorority sister of the bride. They all wore moss green peau de soie sheath dresses with matching apron overskirts. Their hats were of white roses on white petal-shaped net and they wore long white gloves. They carried round bouquets of white and tangerine carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Dawn Paulsen, sister of the bride, and Miss Rita Gates, a cousin, both Medford. They wore white dresses which had petal-shaped overskirts over the slightly gathered skirts. Their hats and bouquets were miniatures of those worn by the bridesmaids. The candlelighters were Miss Anne McDuffee and Miss Deanna Russell, both Medford. Their dresses were of moss green peau de soie which had fitted bodices and slightly gathered skirts. Their hats were identical to the bridesmaids' and their wristlets were of tangerine carnations.

John Wheeler, formerly of Camas Valley, was best man. Grooms men were Irvin Thrush, San Diego, brother of the bridegroom; Harry Ketchum, The Dalles; Wayman Schmidt, Camas Valley, and Dwayne Brown, Camas Valley.

The bride's mother wore a moss green, pink and white two-piece flowered dress with pink hat and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue sheath dress with flowered jacket and blue hat. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Reception Given

The reception following the wedding was held in the church annex and was given by the bride's parents. Tangerine and white carnations decorated the reception tables. Mrs. Martin Gates, Medford, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Keith Hockeramith, Medford, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Kenneth Wald, Central Point, was in charge of the punch bowl assisted by Miss Linda Thrush, Camas Valley, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Lester Wilcox, Central Point, was in charge of the reception.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Zeona Korslund, Seattle, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wheeler and Joyce, Springfield, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom;

Miss Musie Thrush, Camas Valley, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. A. E. Swanson, Portland.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a white three piece cotton knit suit with a pale blue hat and scarf and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home in Camas Valley until August.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school and attended Oregon State university for three years majoring in home economics education. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta. The bridegroom was graduated from Camas Valley High school and is a 1963 forestry graduate from Oregon State university. He was commissioned at graduation as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Marine Corps. In August he will begin marine flight training in Pensacola, Florida.

Visitor Leaves For Vermont; Parties Given

Mrs. F. Adair Monroe left Medford Thursday night for her home in Manchester, Vt., after a stay in Medford with relatives and friends. Mrs. Monroe came west to attend the graduation of her grandson, Anthony A. Monroe, Medford, from Stanford university on June 16.

She stopped first in San Francisco and was joined there by her son, Allyn A. Monroe, Medford, for the trip to Palo Alto for the ceremonies. Also present for the exercises were the student's mother, Mrs. Dorothy Monroe, and other members of his family, including his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Roberts, all Medford.

The Vermont visitor returned to Medford with her son, and was registered at the Medford hotel during her stay here. Several parties were given for Mrs. Monroe, who has often been a visitor in the valley in the past. Mrs. Martin Luther and Mrs. Harold Jordan gave a party in her honor, and Wednesday night John S. Day was host for a dinner at the hotel which honored Mrs. Monroe.

Tuesday night Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Neeley were hosts for a cocktail party at their home, 111 Portland avenue, and later Mrs. Allyn Monroe gave a dinner at Rogue Valley Country club in celebration of her husband's birthday anniversary. Twelve guests attended.

Couple Returns From Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. James Sorenson, 134 Highland drive, arrived home the end of the week from a month's tour of Alaska. The couple made the trip to and from Alaska by ship.

Among the points which they visited were Ketchikan, Anchorage, Fairbanks, Mt. McKinley National park, and Skagway. They made the trip from Anchorage to Fairbanks by the Alaska Railway and they also traveled the Trail of 1898.

On their return they stopped at Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerman Allen Bennett

Newlyweds Return Here After Honeymoon Trip

Trail - Mr. and Mrs. Kerman Allen Bennett returned early last week from their wedding trip to California. Their marriage was an event of June 9 in the Church of Christ, Court street, Medford. The bride is the former Miss Joan C. Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orage Houston, Trail.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Gibbon road, Central Point. The 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony was performed by Eston Catlett, pastor of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a nylon organza gown embroidered with rosebuds, styled with a rounded neckline and accented with a bow at the back. She carried a nosegay of tangerine colored rosebuds on a white Bible.

Miss Claudia Heglund, Ashland, the honor attendant, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Sandra Piers, Ashland, and Miss Sharon Roberts, a sister of the bride, wore tangerine colored crystalline gowns with full skirts. They carried matching rosebud bouquets.

Flower Girl
Cindy Gilmore, Medford, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Gordon Gilmore, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man.

Bernard DeCosta and Doyle Bransom, both Ashland, were ushers.

Baskets of white peonies and tangerine colored snapdragons decorated the church.

Mrs. Henry Friesen was organist. Mrs. Friesen and her brother, Eldred Peyton furnished a duet and they with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trimmer sang a quartet selection.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the Girls Community club.

Friends Assist

Miss Molly Gregg and Miss Theresa Thomas served coffee and cake. Mrs. James Vandervliet and Miss Carol Gwaltney, Ashland, poured punch, while Miss Vernola Hutchinson registered the guests. In charge of gifts was Mrs. William Skeeters.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise suit with white rosebud corsage and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in beige with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The couple visited Disneyland during their trip and now are living for the summer at the Wheel Inn motel, Medford. In September they will move to Castro Valley, Calif., where both will teach the sixth grade in the public schools.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Southern Oregon college. The bride attended Eagle Point High school and the bridegroom attended Crater High school.

Son Home

John Frohnmayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, 1656 Spring street, has arrived home from Stanford university for the summer months. He has completed his junior year there.

Locke-Stevenson Ceremony is Held

Ashland - In an afternoon church ceremony Sunday, June 9, attended only by relatives and close friends, Vivian Jean Stevenson became the bride of Raymond Lance Locke. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Galen H. Onstad in All Saints Episcopal church, Redding, Calif.

The bride's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Elmo N. Stevenson, 610 Elkader street, Ashland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huck, 1880 Parker street.

Dr. Stevenson, president of Southern Oregon college, gave his daughter in marriage and Miss Rosemary Stevenson was her sister's attendant. Michael Morgan; Castro Valley, Calif., served as best man and Kenneth Stevenson, the bride's brother, was usher. Miss Lillian Voimiers played traditional wedding organ music.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of white organza over taffeta. Bands of lace trimmed the fitted bodice and full skirt. Her shoulder length veil fell softly from a coronet of pearls and she carried a white orchid encircled by stephanotis on a white prayer book. Her lace handkerchief had been made by her great-grandmother.

Miss Stevenson, the maid of honor who had flown to Redding from Los Angeles, wore a turquoise chiffon frock and matching hat and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Stevenson chose a silk suit of delphinium blue with white accessories. Mrs. Huck wore a beige suit with avocado accessories and cymbidium orchid corsages were worn by both.

For her traveling attire Mrs. Locke wore a three-piece raw silk beige ensemble accented with darker brown accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor where Mrs. Michael Morgan and Miss Marian Simon, both of Castro Valley, presided at the tea table. New In Arizona

After spending a few days in the Bay area the couple left for Tempe, Ariz., where Mr. Locke is attending the National Science Foundation in biochemistry and cellular biology. They expect to return to Ashland in mid-August.

The bride and her husband both attended the Ashland schools. After graduating from high school Mrs. Locke attended Oregon State university, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. For a year she was a Trans-World airline hostess and for a summer was in Europe with Overseas National airlines. After graduating from Southern Oregon college in 1961 she became a teacher in the Hayward, Calif., schools.

Mr. Locke, a 1960 graduate of SOC and a quarterback on the Red Raiders football team for four years, is a teacher of science at Ashland Junior High school and coaches football and basketball. While in college he was a member of Theta Delta Phi, men's honor society.

The bride was honored at several pre-nuptial events. Among those who entertained were Mrs. E. C. McGill, Mrs. Herbert Lewis and Mrs. Raymond Lininger of Ashland; Mrs. Dale Goff, Mrs. Michael Morgan and Miss Marian Simon, Castro Valley.

Miss Joanne Callaghan (center), Miss Wynn Jacksonville, 1963 Miss Oregon, Mrs. Jack Couch and Miss Gloria Alexander (seated), Miss Rogue Valley wore for the tea a gown from Jean Hart's shop which is part of her wardrobe for the coming Miss Oregon contest to be held in Seaside June 27-29. (Hooker-Johnston photo)

Nuptial Mass Read for Pair

Miss Colleen Dunn became the bride of George W. Miller in a ceremony June 15 in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Ilg celebrated the nuptial mass and performed the wedding ceremony at 12 o'clock noon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dunn, 238 South Holly street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Miller, Portland.

Miss Cheryl Dunn was the honor attendant for her sister, The Misses Joan Torelle, Rose Hardy and Florence Miller, all Portland, were bridesmaids, Miss Miller being a sister of the bridegroom.

Escorts Bride
John Pingo, Portland, was best man, and seating the guests were Michael Woodruff, and Richard DeMartini, both Portland, and Robert Betschart. Altar boys were Daniel Stinson and Michael Holtzinger.

Newlywed Pair To Live Here

The marriage of Donna Hill to Charles Haas took place Saturday afternoon, June 15, in the fireplace room of the First Baptist Church, Salem. Dr. Arlin Halvorsen performed the 4 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hill, Talent, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dan F. Haas, 106 Niantic street, Medford.

The bride wore a white organza dress, and shoulder-length veil caught by a pearl crown. She carried white carnations over a white Bible. Her only attendant, Mrs. Rosella Satell, sister of the bridegroom, wore a blue lace dress with a white carnation corsage.

Charles Johnson was best man for his brother-in-law. The reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Williams, Salem.

Following a wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the couple will be at home in Medford.

If you want something new and different to stir your soul
Listen to...
HOUR OF JUDGEMENT
KRVC
Every Sun. 10-10:30 A.M.

Orange Blossom
ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING RINGS

Our Diamonds Are Imported Directly From South Africa!

Lawrence's
Southeast Oregon's Diamond Center
21 N. CENTRAL Est. 1906
Convenient Terms If Desired

SUMMER 3 DAY FUR EVENT!

Mon., Tues. and Wed. JUNE 24, 25 and 26

Irwin Stern, master furrier of fine furs, has just returned from the fur market with the latest in fur fashions. You may buy a new fur coat, jacket or stole now at tremendous savings.

- Mink Coats from $1699.
- Mink Jackets from 499.
- Mink Stoles from 199.
- Mink Boas from 39.
- Mink Collars from 10.
- Fox Shrugs from 88.
- Beaver Jackets from 499.
- Dyed Broadtail Lamb Jackets from 279.
- Squirrel Boas from 29.
- Fur Hats from 10.
- Cashmere Sweaters With MINK Collars from 79.

• Restyle your out-dated furs to the latest fashions.
• Guaranteed workmanship - have work done now and pay in the fall.
• Exceptional trade-in allowance on your old furs.
• Use your charge account.
• A small deposit will hold your selection until fall!
• Free estimates on your furs.

Rath's
MEDFORD'S FASHION CENTER
214 E. Main St. Phone 772-7169

Gail Eva McNutt (Locke photo)

News Received From Klamath

Phoenix - The engagement of Miss Gail Eva McNutt and Jack Richard Cornett recently was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McNutt, Klamath Falls. The news was announced in this area at the home of his mother, Mrs. Marian Cooley of Phoenix.

The bride-elect is a senior at Klamath Union High school. The bridegroom-elect is stationed with the Navy on the USS Ft. Marion, which is docked in Seattle, Wash. He is a quartermaster third class. A December wedding is planned.

FINAL DAYS!

OF OUR BIG MOVING SALE

MANY ITEMS--FURTHER REDUCED

FIRST COME FIRST SATISFIED!

TOWN & Country SHOP - WHITE CITY ORE.