

McBarron-Matsen Rites Held in Yakima Church

Rogue River—The Dana J. McBarron family of Rogue River traveled to Yakima, Wash., this week end to attend the wedding ceremony of Miss Karen Elizabeth Matsen and Dana Joseph McBarron Jr., in the Lady chapel of St. Paul Cathedral.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Matsen, Wapato, Wash. The bridegroom came from his home in Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. McBarron north were their son, Mark McBarron and their daughter, Miss Frances McBarron.

The 11 o'clock rites were performed June 22 by the Rev. John Ecker.

Miss Gretchen Goffe, Wapato, was the bride's honor attendant.

John Austen of Vancouver, B.C., Canada, was best man. Brothers of the bride and bridegroom, Mark McBarron, and Thomas Matsen, were the ushers.

Mr. Matsen escorted his daughter to the altar.

Wears Linen
The bride's gown of embroidered candlelight linen was trimmed with insertions of handmade German Klöppel lace. The bodice with elbow length sleeves, was accented by a baroque neckline, and the bell-shaped skirt was floor length. An Irish linen pillbox hat with Klöppel lace held her bouffant veil in candlelight ivory shade. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds with ivy.

The honor attendant wore a rose pink peau taffeta dress with scoop neckline and semi-belt skirt. The band at the waistline was trimmed with a bow at the back and her headpiece of organza matched her gown and the short veil was in pink. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and ivy.

The bride's mother wore a rose silk shantung jacket dress with shirred silk organza bodice. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in elegant beige silk suit. Both had matching accessories and their corsages were white orchids.

Baskets of pink rosebuds and calla lilies decorated the church.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents in Wapato.

The couple left for a boat trip through the San Juan islands. They will live, after July 8, at 1150 Marine drive, North Vancouver, B.C.

The bride and bridegroom both attended Oregon State university. The bridegroom has been attending the University of British Columbia and he will return there next fall. The bride also will enter the university.

Parents Return Students Home From the East
Mr. and Mrs. Glen V. Allen, 951 South Stage road, returned home last week accompanied by their son, Robert Allen, who was graduated June 13 from Harvard university, Boston, Mass., and Frank Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton H. Peterson, 941 South Stage road, who was graduated this month from Cornell university, Ithaca, N.Y.

The Allens went east, accompanied by Mrs. Allen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Richardson of Salem, to attend commencement ceremonies at Harvard university.

En route from here the group went by way of Denver, Kansas City, Louisville, Richmond and Washington, D.C. Their son met them at Philadelphia. While east they also visited New York City and Bar Harbor, Maine.

Following the graduation exercises they traveled to Ithaca and were joined by Mr. Peterson, later visiting Niagara Falls and returned by way of Cleveland and Chicago. In the meantime the Richardsons had returned.

Robert Allen plans to enter Temple Medical school in Philadelphia in the fall. Frank Peterson has received a fellowship to Stanford university for graduate work in geology. He left Saturday for Battle Mountain, Nev., where he will be employed during the summer by an ore manufacturing plant.

Cutting their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jon Kreisman, whose wedding took place June 19 in First Methodist church, Medford. The bride was formerly Linda Ray Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roy Neal, 310 Bridge street, Ashland, and Mr. Kreisman's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreisman, 455 Liberty street, Ashland. (Knackstedt photo)

Ceremonies Wed Brother, Sister

Ashland—Two June weddings, held in Medford and Palo Alto, Calif., are of interest in Ashland and the Rogue valley.

Miss Linda Ray Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roy Neal, 310 Bridge street, Ashland, became the bride of Peter Jon Kreisman, son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreisman, 455 Liberty street, Ashland, in a ceremony held June 19 at First Methodist church in Medford.

In the other ceremony, held June 14 at St. Ann's chapel, Palo Alto, Miss Margaret Anne Doherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Doherty, Naperville, Ill., became the bride of Larry Dwight Neal, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal.

KREISMAN-NEAL
Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double-ring ceremony which married Miss Neal and Mr. Kreisman. About 175 relatives and friends attended. Baskets of pink and white gladioli and white delphinium decorated the church for the 11 a.m. wedding.

Mr. Neal escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with eggshell colored silk brocade overskirt and bodice. It was styled with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and round neckline and her shoulder length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara. She carried American beauty roses.

Miss Karen Sue Fieguth was maid of honor and bridesmatron was Mrs. Jon Chamberlain, Portland. They wore frocks of American beauty roses with matching veils and carried white baskets filled with sweet peas, sweet william, roses and ivy.

David Getty, Tucson, Ariz., served as best man. Groomsman was Steven Alan Kreisman, brother of the bridegroom, and seating the guests were Kenneth Guy, Los Angeles, Calif., and William Blanchard, Fortuna, Calif.

Candlelighters were Fred Roy Neal III, brother of the bride, and James Kreisman, another brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ wedding music. Reception at Church
The reception, which followed in the church parlors, was supervised by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church.

Mrs. Larry Neal, sister-in-law of the bride, cut and served the cake and Miss Betty MacDonald poured coffee. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Lawton Lewis. Miss Diane Fieguth was in charge of the guest book. Richard Kreisman, brother of the bridegroom, was at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Neal chose a brown and yellow print frock with beige and yellow accessories and yellow rose corsage. Mrs. Kreisman wore a blue and white printed dress with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

The couple is at home at 455 Liberty street, Ashland. The bride is a graduate of Ashland High school, attended the University of Oregon and San Francisco State college. She is a student this summer at Southern Oregon college. Mr. Kreisman, is a graduate of Ashland High school and Stanford university. He is employed by Pacific Power and Light company.

Returns
Prospect - Mrs. Raymond Artmire has returned to her home after visiting relatives and friends at Pipestone and Rochester, Minn.

Parties Given For Bride-Elect; Rites Last Night

Miss Marcia Barrell, whose marriage to Grant Quinney Jr. was set for June 22 at St. Mark's Episcopal church here, was honored at several pre-nuptial parties last week.

On Monday, June 17, the bride - to - be lunched with friends at a miscellaneous and kitchen shower given by Mrs. Ralph Hibbs and Mrs. Billy Blackstone at the home of Mrs. Hibbs, 190 White Oak drive.

Miss Barrell and members of the bridal party were the guests of Mrs. Maury Isted, aunt of the bride-elect at the traditional bridal luncheon on Friday, June 21, at Rogue Valley Country club. The group met at the Barrell home prior to the luncheon to see the bride's gifts.

Mrs. Paul Selby was hostess for a party Wednesday afternoon at the Selby home, 2427 Lyman avenue. Miss Barrell was presented personal gifts. Dessert was served, and decorations were in pink and white, the wedding colors. Ester Reed daisies were combined with pink roses in the floral arrangements.

The 26 guests included the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. C. H. Barrell, her sister, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Eugene, her aunt, Mrs. Isted, Mr. Quinney's mother, Mrs. Grant Quinney, and his aunt, Mrs. Ralph Boss. Most of the guests were members of Mrs. Barrell's bridge club and other close family friends.

Following the rehearsal on Friday evening, the wedding party was entertained for dinner at the home of Mrs. Ralph Bross, aunt of the bridegroom-to-be. The party was given by Mrs. Quinney, his mother, Mrs. Bruce Stanley, and Mrs. Bross. The guests included, in addition to the wedding party, several aunts and uncles of the honored couple.

Andres Return From Monterey
Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Andres, 72 Laurel street, returned recently from a week's vacation on the Monterey peninsula in California. Visiting with them now are Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wiegert, Atkinson, Wis., and Mrs. G. T. McCauliff of Webster City, Iowa, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Andres.

In Texas
Talent - Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Foss road, is in Texas where she will attend a family reunion. She was accompanied to Salt Lake City, Utah, by Mr. Wilson, who has returned.

Turner-Sather Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dale Turner made a wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel, Calif., following their marriage June 15 in St. Mark's Episcopal church. The bride is the former Miss Christine Ann Sather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sather, 509 North Berkeley way.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turner, Klamath Falls.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the 8 o'clock evening rites. About 200 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed at Rogue Valley Country club, making it one of the month's largest social events.

Miss Monica Setty was a maid of honor and Miss Sheryl Christian and Miss Karen Hawley, Grants Pass, were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Sara Sather, a sister of the bride.

Earl Bradford, Klamath Falls, acted as best man and the ushers were Arnold Myers, Eugene, David Patterson, and Douglas Pyles and Gene Simons, both Klamath Falls. Bride Wears Organa

Mr. Sather escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's floor length gown of silk organza and imported Chantilly lace over taffeta was made with a fitted bodice. The skirt was designed with bell-shaped front and overskirt of lace and full shepherds back with chapel train. Her bouffant veil with butterfly face veil was of silk illusion held by a cap of Chantilly lace and taffeta embroidered with pearls.

The bridal bouquet was made of a cluster of stephanotis with a cascade of roses of the sterling silver variety.

The attendants' floor length gowns were identical in style and made of cherry pink nylon sheer material over taffeta. They were designed with fitted bodices and the skirts with controlled fullness were made with shepherds backs accented by self - material bows. Their Dior head bows matched their dresses and they carried corsages of shatterer white carnations with white gladioli.

Reception at Club
The reception was given by the bride's parents at Rogue Valley Country club. The room and tables were decorated with white roses, stock and spider chrysanthemums and the tables were covered with Venetian lace cloths.

For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother wore a pale green silk dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a bone silk sheath frock. Both had accessories which matched their dresses and both wore orchid corsages.

Here from out of town were Mrs. John Morton, Miss Cora Sather, Mrs. John H. Loomis, all of Bend; Mr. and Mrs. James Speedling and family, Sunnyside, Calif.; Mr. and William Cogdill, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brosterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Brosterhouse and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Beck and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cogdill and family, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zarosinski and family, Portland, and Mrs. Frederick Loomis and son, Fred Loomis, Palo Alto, Calif.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner served in the Candle room of the Medford hotel.

Pre-wedding events included a party for the bride-elect given by Mrs. Dewey Wilson and Mrs. Michael Morris at the Wilson home; a dinner and shower given by Mrs. Vincent Sakraida with the staff of the Medford clinic as guests; a shower given by Miss Monica Setty and her mother, Mrs. Orlow Setty, at their home, 857 Olympic street, and a shower given by Miss Jenny Dickey at her home, 2200 Dellwood avenue.

Officer, Family Leave Monday
Central Point - Lt. Cmdr. Ferny McKibben of the U. S. Coast Guard, and Mrs. McKibben plan to leave Monday for San Rafael, Calif., where they will live at 524 Cedarberry lane.

The couple arrived here two weeks ago as guests of his mother, Mrs. C. F. McKibben, 833 Hopkins road, Central Point. They are accompanied by their sons, Bruce, three and one-half years old, and twin, John and Jeffery, nine months.

The McKibbens came here from Washington, D.C., where he has been stationed. He has been transferred to the Merchant Marine technical staff of the commandant of the twelfth coast guard district in San Francisco.

O'Brien - Sisters of Sam Menard, Mrs. Gertrude Ruby from Bloomington, Calif., and Mrs. Flora LaFave, of Mira Loma, Calif., are at the Menard home for a visit.

Wedding Date Set by Couple

The marriage of Miss Karen Marney to Ronald Gillaspay has been set for Saturday, July 6.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Marney, Route 4, Medford, and the ceremony will be held in the family home. Mr. Gillaspay is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gillaspay, Central Point.

Miss Marney will be a senior in Phoenix High school next fall. Mr. Gillaspay is in the United States Navy and is stationed at Bremerton, Wash.

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

A Suggestion to Fathers

whose daughters are getting married this summer.

We Are Offering for a Limited Time

Wonderful Savings up to $50.00

on Bride's Sets of International Sterling

When you select the Bride's Set of 8 place settings in International Sterling, you know you will have one permanently beautiful possession that will add prestige and charm to her home all through the years to come! You can now buy a $350 service for $300, tax included.

FREE

With Each Sterling Silver Service for 8

Walnut Silver Chest

Regularly $35.00

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

Propphy's JEWELLERS

MEDFORD, OREGON
Registered Jeweler American Gem Society
Phone 773-6206 209 E. Main

jean hart's

THE NEW SHAPLESSNESS BY COUNTRY SET!
The tent dress . . . your answer to many a special occasion. Wear it belted or unbelted. Cool blue and white cotton check. Sizes 5-15. $14.00

Exclusively Ours!
617 East Main, Medford
Phone 772-8992
Where you find the clothes you love to live in

Newberrys PRICE BUSTERS

OPEN SUNDAYS 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Bring the whole family . . . shop in all 54 big departments, where the selection is wide . . . the savings big. Treat the family to a delicious luncheon at our

ROGUE SIDEWALK CAFE

SUNDAY & MONDAY ONLY . . . Charge It

JUST ARRIVED famous name brands

PAMPERED COTTON PRINTS

• Pre-Shrunk • 36-in. Width • Wash 'n Wear

57¢ yd.

UPHOLSTERY FABRIC

Ends from high quality bolts. Lengths up to 10 yards in wide selection of weaves, fibers and colors. 54" width. Reg. 2.66

$1.77 yd.

SHOPPING CENTER ONLY

635 E. JACKSON - ACRES OF FREE PARKING