WATER SHOW CROWD - Part of the crowd which attended the first Ashland Water Show Sunday at Emigrant Lake is shown in this picture taken near the boat dock. Cool weather failed to keep the crowd away - estimated at 10,000 - with contestants entered in the events from northern California and southern Oregon. Cars at the lake exceeded 3,000, according to show officials.

Vehicle Accident In Idaho Claims Life of Vale Man

By United Press International
An accident at Caldwell, Idaho, Sunday took the life of Stan Monson, 21, of Vale, Ore., a former Vale High School football player.

Monson was a passenger in a car driven by Maurice Edward Chester, also of Vale, when the auto was struck broadside by a car driven by Jack E. Eckman, Ontario, Ore.

The accident occurred early Sunday as the Chester car was turning into the parking lot of a Caldwell tavern.

Traffic accidents in Oregon over the week end took six lives, all of them Friday night or early Saturday. Four died in a two-car collision near Independence Friday night.

They were Mrs. Doris Colgan, 49, Monmouth; Esther Sandoval, 17, and her sister, Rose, 16, of Independence, and Sadie Feden, 16, Independence. Other week end victims were Leonard Wise, 27, Heppner, and Mrs. Willoughby Blowers, 55, Creswell.

Three persons were killed in southwest Washington accidents. Kay Payne, 18, and Duane Fitzpatrick, 19, both of Longview, died Saturday when their car went over a 250-foot embankment east of Kelso. Orville J. Hushagen, 61, Kalama, died late Sunday night when he was struck by a car as he walked across a road two miles south of Kalama.

The Oregon crashes ran the state's traffic toll for the month to 43, compared to 31 for a similar period in 1962.

So far this year 241 persons have been killed on Oregon's highways, compared to 188 for the same period in 1962.

Ashland Water Show Attracts Crowd To Emigrant Lake

Ashland - An estimated 10,000 persons watched the Ashland Water show Sunday at Emigrant Lake.

The show lasted until 5:30 p.m. Contestants from southern Oregon and northern California competed in the event.

Exhibitions were given in trick water skiing, platter board skiing and a special kite act. In the afternoon three parachutists dropped into the show area landing in the lake as planned.

In the competition events Craig Miller took first place in the water slalom event. Darrell Miller, second, and Bud Simmons, third.

A comparatively new event was run at the show, a water ski race. It was run over a one mile course with the racers completing five laps. In the kids' ski race Steve Skinner, with Bill Wall driving, won first place and his brother, John Skinner, with Meyers Jones driving, took second place. Third place winner was Howard Dunlap, with Cliff McGinty driving.

Wimmen's first place winner was Vickie Brown with Ken Phillips driving. Mary Simons, with Jerry Ward driver, second; and Bab St. John, with Jones driving, third.

Ray Deffr, with Lon Skinner driving, won first place in men's ski race; Craig Miller, with Jones driving, was second, and R. Bilyer took third place, with Evert Leach driving.

The boat race was run in two heats. First place winner was co-drivers Lon Skinner and Howard Lage. Lee Edwards and Ward took second and third places, respectively.

Chief Barker said the three firemen instructed classes in pre-fire planning at the convention.

Three other organizations, the Oregon Rural Fire District association, the Volunteer Firemen association and the Fire Instructors association, also were represented at the meeting.

The annual convention is scheduled for Corvallis next year. Chief Barker said instruction in budget making and record keeping will be featured at the 1964 meeting.

Federal Hearing Set for Suspect In Evers Slaying

Jackson, Miss. - (UPI) - A slender gun fancier, charged by the state with murder in the sniper slaying of Negro leader Medgar Evers, faced a federal hearing today on civil rights charges growing out of the case.

Byron De La Beckwith, 42, was arrested by FBI agents Saturday night on the federal charges, and the state slapped the murder charge on him Sunday.

Beckwith was scheduled to appear before U.S. Commissioner John R. Countiss III today in a hearing to determine whether there are grounds for charges he and others conspired to deprive Evers of his civil rights.

The murder charge, however, will have priority over the lesser federal charge.

Evers, state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), was shot to death outside his house on June 12 when he returned from a civil rights rally.

Prints Match
Beckwith, a fertilizer salesman, was arrested at Greenwood, Miss. after the FBI said a fingerprint found on a rifle believed used to kill Evers matched one of his fingers.

The suspect was widely known for his segregationist views in his hometown of Greenwood and was said to have printed handbills and distributed them on Greenwood streets protesting the Episcopal Church's stand on integration.

Charles Evers, brother of the slain NAACP field secretary, said Sunday, "The NAACP and all Negroes in the state as well as other citizens interested in justice and fair play will be watching to see if there is vigorous prosecution by officials of the City of Jackson."

Vehicles operated by Clarence Oscar Lack, 56, of 2132 Harrison st., and Norman George Kurz, 18, of 240 South Second st., collided about 10:45 p.m. at Sunrise and Capital aves. Lack was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Martin Dettlef Schrack Jr., 16, of route 3 box 206, was cited for violation of basic rule after his car struck a parked vehicle registered to James Elvy Bray, Jacksonville. The accident occurred about 11:35 p.m. at 905 South Central ave.

About 11:30 a.m. Saturday, a vehicle operated by Robert Bennett Angel, 35, of 925 Gilman rd., struck and damaged a city parking meter on North Fir st. between Sixth and Main sts.

Three boys, formerly from Arizona, were apprehended Sunday on burglary charges and all the items taken from a home near Butte Falls recovered, state police reported today.

Terry Nathan Robinson, 18, Phoenix, Ariz., was lodged in the county jail. The other boys, ages 16 and 17, from the Butte Falls-Eagle Point area were turned over to juvenile authorities.

Reign To Continue Battle for Peace, Diplomats Told

Vatican City - (UPI) - Pope Paul VI promised today that the Vatican will not interfere in the affairs of other states.

In an audience for the Vatican diplomatic corps, the Pope pledged that his reign would continue the battle for world peace based on "the four pillars of truth, justice, love and liberty."

He told the diplomats of some 50 nations in his second official audience that "the Holy See does not propose . . . to intervene in the affairs or interests that pertain to temporal powers."

The United States has no relations with the Vatican so did not have a representative among the diplomats in the red-draped consistorial hall for the audience.

The Pope told the diplomats that "the Holy See is highly honored by your presence here."

"Whether it is a matter of normal diplomatic relations or of extraordinary occasions - such as the recent funeral rites for Pope John XXIII - the presence of the representatives of nations is a highly significant tribute to the spiritual mission of the Holy See."

Some observers said the remark could be interpreted as an indirect "thank you" to the United States since Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was the highest government representative to attend the rites.

The pontiff's remarks came only a week before President Kennedy is scheduled to arrive for an audience, possibly the first chief of state to meet with Pope Paul, chosen pontiff last Friday.

Speaking slowly and clearly in fluent French, Pope Paul said that "after the instructions of our predecessors - and we think particularly of the encyclical Paecem in Terris - it seems scarcely necessary for us to repeat to you all the respect which the church holds for the dignity and the mission of each of the nations of the world."

Seattle - (UPI) - Only four bids were submitted today for parcels of the abandoned Tongue Point Naval Station near Astoria. The bids were opened by the General Services Administration here.

Tongue Point Inc., of Astoria, which has been attempting to acquire the base for industrial use, submitted the only bid of $307,000 on the main base, including some 400 acres and 24 buildings.

There were three bidders for a small housing area known as Tongue Point Village, which contains some 102 units, including 40 World War II dwellings. The apparent high bid of $68,250.22 was submitted by Harold Dickey and Robert Michlitch of Seattle.

The trailer, which bears the emblem of the annual Rogue River Rooster Crow, has been stolen - for the second time in three days.

The vehicle, which was stationed at Depot and Main sts. in the center of Rogue river a few days ago to publicize this year's rooster crow, set for June 29, first disappeared some time late Friday night.

It was found Saturday morning on North River rd. about five miles west of Rogue River. Late last night or early this morning, it disappeared again.

LEADERS MEET - President Kennedy and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer stand at attention following Kennedy's arrival in Bonn. The stop in Germany marked the start of a 12-day tour of European nations by Kennedy. He is stressing again the United States' determination to defend Europe. (UPI)

Milk Producers Manager Urges Price Formula

Salem - (UPI) - A price formula that would give farmers $5.87 1/2 per hundredweight for 4 per cent butterfat Grade A milk was urged today by D. P. Shoup, manager of the Oregon Milk Producers.

He spoke at the first of four scheduled hearings on the new milk price stabilization act, approved by the 1963 legislature.

More than 100 dairy farmers and distributors were on hand for today's hearing in the Capitol building.

Shoup said the recent drop of 36 cents in the price of 4 per cent milk was "an attempt to force a low price on farmers."

"A $5.86 price prevailed for five months without controls," he reminded.

Shoup's proposed formula would set a base price of $5.50 per hundredweight for 3.5 per cent butterfat milk, with an additional 7 1/2 cents to be paid for each additional percentage point of butterfat.

Carnation Dairy dropped the price of milk from $5.86 to $5.50 effective June 1.

Attorney James O. Goodwin, representing several producer groups, blasted Carnation for cutting prices just before the new milk price law went into effect.

"It was an apparent effort to change the price structure under the new law," he said.

Henry Hagg, Mayflower Farms, Beaverton, commented "as a producer, we need all we can get for our milk."

Herbert Hardy, Safeway Stores, urged a 1 1/2 cent fee to finance administration of the new control program.

"Audits, producer quotas, and equalization payments are the key to making this a good act, and we don't think it can be done for less than a 1 1/2 cent fee. You've got to have enough money to hire qualified experts," Hardy said.

Demonstrations In British Guiana

Georgetown, British Guiana - Anti-Communist forces of Premier Cheddi Jagan followed up a dynamite attack on his wife's office with a call today for week-long "passive resistance" demonstrations throughout this South American colony.

The demonstrations were expected to affect most government offices, as well as private enterprises which are not taking part in the "general strike" which has crippled British Guiana for more than two months.

If they follow the pattern of such displays in the past, the demonstrators will march through Georgetown and outlying communities, singing anti-Jagan and anti-Communist songs and occasionally dancing.

McMinnville Workers Heed Firm's Warning
McMinnville - (UPI) - About 25 men reported for work at the Yamhill Plywood Co. here today following a company ultimatum to striking workers.

There was no violence but a few calls of "scab" were heard.

The firm resumed limited operation after telling members of Local 3-213 of the International Woodworkers of America IWA to report for work today or they would be replaced.

4-H, FFA Lambs Sell For $3,714.80 At Saturday Auction

Jackson county will have another 4-H and FFA lamb and wool show and sale, County 4-H Agent Jerry Brog said this morning.

County 4-H club leaders are pleased with the results and have been talking informally about also having a separate hog show and sale. The hog entries have been about as numerous as the lambs which totaled 110 for this week end's show. A separate hog show would remove some of the pressure during fair time in August, Brog said, but emphasized that no decision has been made.

Saturday, Kathy Zapell, of the Talent Bidders sheep club, added another champion rosette to her week end collection of ribbons by becoming Friday her lamb was awarded the grand championship for a market lamb.

Saturday night bidding was brisk among the large number of buyers at the lamb auction with average price set at $50.19 per hundred pounds. A total of 7,401 pounds of lambs were sold at a gross sale of $3,714.80.

Miss Zapell's champion 4-H choice Suffolk lamb brought the top price of $1.39 a pound from North's Chuck Wagon restaurant. Dan Mainwaring, Crater FFA chapter, got the second highest price at $1.37 1/2 from Tex Nash, Medford sand and gravel contractor, for his FFA champion choice Southdown lamb.

Aboard the USS Fort Snelling at Sea - (UPI) - The two-man bathyscaph Trieste dived to a depth of 8,400 feet at 7:35 a.m. (pdt) today in a last-ditch effort to locate the missing nuclear submarine Thresher.

The seas were running at about four feet and the sky was bright and blue overhead when the radar reflector atop the bathyscaph disappeared from sight.

In order to dive, a quantity of aviation gasoline was released from the 58-foot-long, 11-foot in diameter float which holds the gondola in which the two crewmen ride on their perilous descent to the bottom.

The dive was expected to last six hours.

Kennewick, Wash. - (UPI) - A search by the Coast Guard has failed to locate the body of Albert Nelson, 37, of Portland in the Columbia river near here.

Nelson fell out of a small boat Saturday and is presumed to have drowned.

Alaskan Senator Urges Fishing Limit

Washington - (UPI) - Sen. E.L. Bartlett (D-Alaska) urged today that the United States join Canada in setting a 12-mile limit for coastal fishing waters.

Kennedy declared Sunday there would be "no turning back" in the administration's efforts to press for broad new civil rights laws.

Changes Sought In Interim Zoning

Representatives of the Oak Knoll development south of Ashland asked the county court this morning to consider possible changes in the interim zoning for an area southeast of Ashland.

Harry Skerry, Ashland lawyer, said he had neglected to mention during the earlier public hearing 80 acres of the Oak Knoll projected development across south of Crowson rd. from the main 50-acre Oak Knoll development. The development is planned to include commercial and multifamily residential developments in a district now zoned for farm and single family residences.

"We are not asking for exclusion of this property from the interim zoning, but we do wish the county court and county planning commission to go on record recognizing the problems involved in attempting to include this area under the present zoning provisions," Skerry said.

County Judge Earl M. Miller said the matter would be recorded in the county court minutes and asked Skerry to send a letter to the planning commission.

Boundaries for the interim zoned area were determined at a meeting of the planning commission June 17. At that time the Oak Knoll property north of Crowson rd. was withdrawn from the proposed zoned area.

Police Arrest Man For Snagging Fish

Vincente Avon Flores, 1068 Oak st., Medford, was arrested Sunday at Bett's rifle on the Rogue river, on a charge of fish snagging, state police said.

An officer said he was the first man arrested on this charge so far this season. Snagging consists of using a triple hook with a weight fastened to the bottom and dragging the bottom with it, officers explained.

Fines for such illegal fishing have run as high as $150, it was noted.

Press Conference Follows Meeting With Adenauer

Allies Urged To Close Ranks

Bonn, Germany - (UPI) - President Kennedy declared today it is essential that a nuclear test ban be concluded this year. He said that otherwise there is a danger more nuclear powers will emerge and "that would be a disaster."

Kennedy issued the warning in the first news conference of his European tour. He spoke after meeting with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in 3 1/2 hours of talks on cold war problems.

The U.S. President urged the Western Allies to close ranks in the face of mounting international uncertainties and warned Russia that time was growing short for conclusion of a nuclear test ban.

Kennedy declared the Atlantic community is the "center, the great core" of a worldwide effort to bring peace to the world.

To Miss Coronation
Kennedy said that with the military security of Europe well guaranteed by Allied security measures, it was necessary to bring equal security to other people.

At a news conference in the World Hall of the West German Foreign Ministry, Kennedy disclosed he would not attend the coronation in Rome Sunday of new Pope Paul VI.

Earlier, Kennedy appealed to "dozens" of other free nations to join the United States in organizing a peace corps "in a great international effort in the 1960s for peace."

The President, speaking to about 300 American and European newsmen following his 3 1/2 hours of talks with Adenauer, said it was natural for the German people to want reunification.

"No Immediate Solution"
"That is the object of our policy," he said, but he added that he saw "no immediate solution."

Kennedy said he hoped the will of the German people for reunification will be strong enough in time to bring it about.

"Today, the future is uncertain, and the date for reunification is impossible to mark," the visiting U.S. President added.

He said, however, that no one should despair.

Kennedy arrived in West Germany Sunday to begin a 12-day swing around Europe.

Zip Code Number Listed for Phoenix

Phoenix - (UPI) - The five digit post office Zip code for Phoenix has been announced, according to Marie Furry, postmaster. The postal zone plan will become effective July 1.

The Phoenix post office number will be 97535.

When the new zone plan was announced in May, the number for Phoenix had not been decided.

The postmaster stressed that all citizens of Phoenix should use the Zip code number in their return address.

The new designation number consists of five digits. The first digit, or "9" stands for the Pacific Coast. The second number, in this case the "7," signifies Oregon; the third, the "5," identifies the sectional center, the city of Phoenix, and adjacent areas.

Use of the code number will speed delivery of mail throughout the country.

The Medford code number is 97501 and Central Point is 97502.

First Delaying Tactic In Civil Rights Opens

Washington - (UPI) - Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) today injected the first Southern delaying tactic into the civil rights battle in Congress.

Thurmond notified Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (Mont.) that he objected to any meeting of the commerce committee while the Senate was in session.

A committee cannot meet while the Senate is in session if one senator objects. Thurmond's move would limit the civil rights hearings to hours when the Senate is not meeting.
