

White Sox Seem To Have Found N.Y. Yankees' Number

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox have come up with a number for which American league teams searched for years—the Yankees' number.

It's an old Yankee tradition to play their best against their chief rivals—to knock off the contenders themselves.

The defending world champions may eventually get around to doing just that this season but they'll have to make up for lost time. Here it is almost the half-way mark of the season and they've yet to score a victory over the White Sox!

The White Sox made it three in a row for the season Monday night when Johnny Buzhardt and Hoyt Wilhelm combined in a six-hitter that gave them a 5-2 victory over the Yankees. The win was the White Sox' fourth in their last five games and boosted them to within one game of first-place New York.

Yankee Nemesis

Buzhardt, a low fast ball pitcher whom the White Sox acquired from the Philadelphia Phillies in 1961, has now beaten the Yankees four straight times over the last two seasons. He yielded five hits in seven innings Monday night to raise his overall season record to 9-3.

Catcher Camilo Carron's three-run double off Al Downing was the big blow of a

Trautman's Death Is Minor Leagues' Loss

Columbus, Ohio—(UPI)—Cancer took the life Monday of George (Red) Trautman, 73, dealing a severe loss to the faltering minor leagues of baseball for which he fought for 16 years as president.

Trautman, a life-long sportsman who never was good enough to make the ranks as a professional player, had been ill for three months and underwent surgery a few weeks ago.

LOSES BALL—Card's catcher Tim McCarver (15) loses ball as it bounces off his glove and over his head while Giants' Willie Mays slides home to score in the 1st inning of the game in St. Louis, Monday. Mays came home from third on Ed Bailey's fly out to right fielder George Altman who made a one bounce throw to McCarver. McCarver was charged with an error. (UPI)

Cheney Studs Walk Over Ashland By 22-4 Score

LINESCORE: 040 00—4 4 2

Voth, Susee (1) and DeBoer, Ellis, Pepper (4) and Twedell.

Third place Central Point trounced Ashland last night 22-4 in a five inning non-league game at Jackson county fairgrounds.

Everyone scored as the Central Point Cheney Studs raced ahead in the first inning to lead Ashland 10-0. Ashland picked up four runs early in the second.

Winning pitchers were Studs' hurlers Neal Ellis and Larry Pepper, who combined to give up four hits and three walks and striking out nine. Voth of Ashland gave up the mound late in the first inning to Jim Susee and both gave up 12 hits, 11 walks, and struck out two.

The Studs rolled through the first inning with 10 runs and everyone hitting. Scoring twice in the first was Lou Alvarez, who came in first on a hit by Jones and then again on a single by Pepper. Leading sluggers for the Studs were Dave Twedell and Howard Tomlinson. Both hit three for four.

Ashland scored runs on three hits and an error in the top of the second inning, but then gave up three more runs to the Studs, which left the score at the end of the second inning 13-4.

In the third, the Studs gained six more runs while the Ashland team failed to score. Pepper, tossing for the Studs, struck out three Ashland members and paved the way as the Studs scored three in the bottom of the fourth.

The game was finally called after the top of the fifth when Studs' Pepper struck out three Ashland batters.

Wednesday, the Studs will meet the Falcons from Klamath Falls in an 8 p.m. district league game at Camp White.

Anderson, Rowland Bust 25 Straight In Trapshooting

Joe Anderson broke a perfect 25 at 16 yards and Keith Rowland shattered 25 straight handicap birds yesterday in trapshooting activity at Medford Gun club.

Other high scores were 46 out of 50 in doubles by Mike Drake and 24 of 25 in skeet by George Van Galder.

Smashing 24 birds each in 16-yard shotgunning were Loyd Langston, Max Weston, Bud Wimberly, Bob McIntyre, Harry Cawker, Ed Pease, Byron Backes and Henry Niedermeyer. Langston busted 24 in the handicap event and Merve Colvin, Fred Young, Ray Coleman, Pease and Don Peterson broke 23 each.

There were 40 gunners. Trapshooting is slated at the club again on Sunday, June 30.

Billy Pierce Shines In Relief As Giants Shade Cards, 4-3

United Press International
The classy left-hander Billy Pierce, whose 16-6 record as a starter gave the San Francisco Giants a pennant in 1962, seems ready to push the Giants to the top as a reliever this time around.

Pierce was belted as a starter earlier this season and lost his place in the pitching rotation, but the great veteran turned in his fourth save in relief Monday night in a 4-3 squeak over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The win put the Giants back in first a half-game up on the Cards in the mad, mad National league scramble. Los Angeles and Cincinnati, also currently meeting head-on, are 1 and 1½ games out respectively.

Rematch Tonight
The Giants planned to send out Bob Bolin (3-2) against the Cards' erratic young Ray Sadecki (4-4) in their rematch at Busch stadium tonight.

San Francisco scored four times in a wacky first inning off Lew Burdette, just received by St. Louis in a trade from Milwaukee, and then hung on for victory.

Juan Marichal was belted pretty hard now and then, but bore down in the clutch and then had impeccable help from Pierce. The victory made Marichal's record 12-3 and when Dodger Sandy Koufax (11-3) and Redleg Jim O'Toole (13-3) finish their dog-eat-dog battle at Cincinnati tonight, Marichal should emerge about the best record around.

In that weird first inning here Monday, Willie Mays gave a little demonstration of why he is still worth considerably more than his sub-normal (for him) .260 batting mark would indicate.

Harvey Kuenn tripled and was then thrown out at the plate in a close one while Chuck Hiller legged it to first. Mays dribbled a single and he and Hiller kept going when Dick Groat threw the ball away.

Willie McCovey was walked and Orlando Cepeda was plunked in the shoulder to bring in the first Giant run and keep the bases jammed. Ed Bailey lofted a short fly to George Altman.

Mays halted before breaking for the plate. The stunned Altman threw off target. Burdette, backing up the play, took the ball and tried to get McCovey at third but threw it away as Willie scored and Cepeda went to third. Jimmy Davenport singled Orlando in.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the Houston Colts, 3-0, in the only other National league game.

Denver Lemaster pitched a four-hitter and struck out six as the Braves extended the Colts' losing streak to nine straight games. Lec Mays and Eddie Mathews homered for the Braves. The Colts, who went 40 innings without scoring a run before they tallied one in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday now have gone 16 more without denting home plate.

Denver Wallops San Diego

United Press International
If the Milwaukee Braves should decide they need another hitter, Lou Klimechek is serving notice with his bat that he is ready and willing to give the major leagues another try.

The Braves have already given Klimechek a couple of trials. Each time he has ended up in the minors — this year with the Denver Bears of the Pacific Coast league.

But Lou has been making a lot of noise with his bat lately, an indication that he might like another look at National League pitching. Take Monday night, for example.

Klimechek smashed two 400-foot home runs, also hit a double and single, drove in four runs and extended his hitting streak to 14 games.

His hitting was almost all the Braves needed as they overwhelmed the San Diego Padres 13-6 with a 16-hit attack.

In the only other league action, Seattle and Salt Lake City split a doubleheader. The Rainiers captured the second game 5-2 behind the five-hit pitching of Guido Grill after the Bees won the opener 8-3.

Central Point Teams Win Opening Games

Junior league slate of the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball season will begin this evening when the Central Point Crater Cubs and Medford tangle at 7:30 o'clock at Memorial field, White City.

Central Point teams won opening games yesterday in the Intermediate league of Southern Oregon Junior Baseball.

The Rams broke a deadlock with two runs in the fifth inning to trim Phoenix-Talent 5-3. The Stars defeated the Medford Yankees 10 to 4.

Two bases on balls and a hit by Cary Bradshaw enabled the Rams to get the markers that wiped out the 3-all tie. Nine bases on balls hurt Phoenix-Talent. All five runs were put on base by walks.

Jim Dupree, Morgan Groth Enter Oregon AAU Half Mile Run

Eugene—(UPI)—Jim Dupree of Southern Illinois and Morgan Groth of Oregon State have entered the half mile field for the Oregon AAU Track and Field meet here July 3-4.

Meet Director Bob Newland said there was a chance of half a dozen other top runners entering the meet.

Peter Snell and Murray Halberg, ace New Zealand distance runners, will not be here.
