

Tom Clark Victor In JC Links Meet

Tom Clark stroked three under par at Rogue Valley Country Club yesterday to win the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Golf tournament.

Clark headed a field of 20 entrants with 36-33-69. He will lead a five-player crew from Medford into the state tourney at Madras on July 13 and 14.

The other four are Rich Knight, Doug Olson, Stan Kumas and Mike Nuich. Kumas was second low in yesterday's meet with 40-35-75. Doug Olson, who won the Oregon Golf association junior mantle last week, tied for third low with 39-78 and Kumas 42-36-78. Nuich shot 41-38-79.

Had Four Birds

Clark was even par on the front side with a bogey and a bird and three under on the back with three birds. His birds were on No. 6, 13, 15 and 16 holes and the bogey was on No. 2.

Other scores included Mike Soran 40-40-80; Kent Clark 39-41-80; Greg Miller 41-42-83; Carl Voegel 42-42-84; Allen Brooks 41-45-86; Jim Sheldon 43-44-87; Eddie Howell 43-45-88; Jim Wise 44-45-89; Dennis Alexander 46-45-91; Colin Tubbs 47-47-94; Terry Scroggin 49-49-98; Jim Knight 52-49-101.

Mike Miller, state junior tourney semifinalist last week, picked up as did Jim Coovert.

Olson and Miller by their play in the junior meet last week qualified to enter the regular Oregon Golf association tourney which opens this Thursday at Riverside club in Portland.

Rayo, Cookie, Misty II Take Retriever Stakes

Rayo, Cookie and Misty II, dogs owned by Rogue Valley Retriever club members, were winners in the three stakes in the annual joint field trial with the Shasta-Cascade Retriever club of Klamath Falls on Saturday and Sunday.

Rayo, golden male, owned by Ernie Black, led a field of 11 in the open stake. Tom Rickard's Cookie, a Labrador, took the qualifying stake in an entry of the same size. Misty, owned by Floyd Bubb, won the derby. There were 14 entrants.

The trial was headquartered at the Pat Montgomery summer camp. Trial grounds were on the Mickey Wampler ranch and on Ray Bilger's Odessa marina on Klamath lake.

Second In Open

Mystery, owned by Bob Merrillee, Shasta-Cascade, was second in the open, and Nik Nak, owned by Mrs. Margaret Denman, Rogue Valley, and handled by Leonard Nelson, was third. Fourth went to Merrillee's Pepper. An award of merit went to Kim, owned by Norm McGourty, S-C, and handled by O. M. Eifert.

Bubb's King was second in the qualifying stake and Nelson's Hunter gained third. Pepper took fourth with Elfort handling. Merit awards went to Kim, to Jingles, owned by Bob Hissong, RV, and to Gay Knight, owned by Jack Gardner, RV.

Second placer in the derby was Lucky, owned by Bob Trotman, S-C, and handled by Montgomery. Taking third was Duke, owned by Bill Fuchs, S-C. Rickard's Missy was fourth. The merit certificates went to two Shasta-Cascade entrants, Hal Shidler's Perky, and George Duke's Mike, handled by Montgomery.

JOHN NUICH

John Nuich RVCC Golf Medalist

Men's club championship golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club has entered the first round of match play this week with medalist John Nuich leading the way.

Nuich topped 153 qualifiers with a one under par card of 71 and drew Bill Clark in the opening round.

Defending champion Jim Sheldon, seeded No. 2, was matched against Steve Cummins.

Second low qualifiers with 72 were Dr. Bruce Stanley and Ed Simmons. They drew Carl Schmidt and Jim Quincy, respectively. Alan Holmes and Justin Smith qualified with 73s. Their respective rivals are Deane Lambert and John Jensen. Bud Hauptert, who had a 74, will meet Bob Phillips.

Entrants have through July 7 to complete first round matches.

A three-ball mixed six-golf tourney will be held at 1:30 p.m. this Sunday at Rogue Valley.

Sugar Ray Suffers Bad Beating; May Retire

Philadelphia — Sugar Ray Robinson planned to announce today whether he would retire because of last night's lopsided beating by Joey Giardello at Convention Hall here.

Giardello of Philadelphia, third ranking contender, floored 43-year-old Ray in the fourth round, had him reeling in the sixth and holding on in other sessions as Joey won a unanimous decision.

A near-capacity crowd of 8,598, which paid an estimated $59,097, roared encouragement to Robinson—the former welterweight champion and record five-time middleweight ruler—in the seventh and eighth rounds when Ray rallied magnificently. But he ran out of gas again in the ninth and 10th.

The defeat broke Ray's winning string at five bouts.

Giardello, 32, who expects his victory to bring him a title fight in October or November said he felt sorry for New Yorker Robinson.

"He was a great champion," Joey declared, "but it's a shame his reflexes are gone now."

Joey was favored at 7-5.

Giardello, weighing 160½ pounds to Robinson's 158½, started after Ray with a combination hooking attack to body and head in the first round and kept after slender Ray in every round to curtail his punching room.

A left hook to the chin floored Robinson for a count of nine about midway in the

Eugene Finds Something To Cheer About

Eugene hasn't had many chances to crow in the Northwest League last year but it did Monday night.

The last-place Emeralds bopped league-leading Lewiston 10-1 and their ace pitcher, Bruce Howard, came fairly close to pitching a no-hitter.

Howard had a perfect game going until the seventh when Hoss Bowlin led off with a double. The Broncs added two more bingles during the inning for their lone run. The game was called at the end of the seventh because of rain.

Eugene wrapped it up as early as the third inning with a seven-run rally. The big blow of the frame was a grand-slam homer by Jim Lynn.

Softballers Vie This Evening

Two games this evening open this week's Jackson County Softball association schedule.

Colvin and Associate and Tru-Mix Concrete meet at Jefferson school in the Minor league. The Major league game will put Southern Oregon Dry Kilt against Jay Allen Cars at Hedrick Junior High school. The tussles are set for 6:30 p.m.

On Wednesday evening John Wheeler Logging and United Grocers meet in the Major league at Jackson school and Keith Schulz garage and Communications Workers of America vie at Hawthorne park in the Minor.

Studs Play Falcons Wednesday Evening

JUNIOR LEGION SCHEDULE:

Tonight — Grants Pass at Roseburg (non-league).
Wednesday — Grants Pass at Ashland, 6:30 p.m.; Tri-City and Klamath Falls Falcons vs. Central Point Studs at White City, 7:30 p.m. (Southern division games).
Thursday — Klamath Hawks vs. Medford at fairgrounds ball park, 8 p.m. (division game).
Friday — Central Point vs. Medford at fairgrounds, 8 p.m. (non-league).
Saturday — Central Point at Grants Pass; Klamath Hawks at Ashland; Medford vs. Tri-City at Merrill (all division games at 1:30 p.m.).

A full evening of Area 4 Southern division American Legion junior baseball is scheduled on Wednesday. Three games are billed. Most crucial of the three will bring the Klamath Falls Falcons against the Central Point Cheney Studs. This fracas will be at Memorial field.

White City, regular home park for the Studs.
Grants Pass will be at Ashland for a twilight fray and Tri-City will take on the Hawks at Klamath Falls.
The Falcons (5-1) share the division lead with Medford and Central Point and Grants Pass (each 4-2) share third place a game back.
Medford will play the Hawks (2-5) at the fairgrounds here on Thursday. Tri-City is 2-5 in the loop and Ashland 0-7.

Troutdale — Gary Reddaway of the University of Oregon threw the javelin 219 feet Monday night to highlight the All-Corners track meet at Reynolds High school.

Funk Has Best Kartways Time

Speed events in miniature modified cars were provided last Sunday when local drivers sped their go-carts around the tight corners of the Medford Kartway.

Turning in the best time in modified car class was junior driver, Bud Funk, with a 17.2 lap, with Bill Savard right behind with 17.3.

In class I events, Rick Barnes of Medford placed first with second post going to Dick Florey, also of Medford. Jack McCondeless and Paul Hag placed first in class II and III respectively.

Twenty lap events in modified cars and standard cars were run with Bill Savard placing first in modified and Ken Agres winning in standard.
