

ROBERTS WINS 250TH—Baltimore Oriole pitcher Robin Roberts delivers final pitch to score his 250th major league win in a Tuesday game with the L. A. Angels at Los Angeles. The Angels lost by their biggest shutout margin in their short history with the final score Orioles 10, Angels 0. (UPI)

Robin Roberts Sees No End to Hurling Career

Los Angeles—(UPI)—Robin Roberts said today that he sees no end to his pitching career as long as he can keep throwing as well as he did Tuesday night when he hurled his 250th major league victory.

The 36-year-old veteran came through with a masterful mound performance in achieving the milestone win, blanking the Los Angeles Angels on four hits while going the entire way to pitch the Baltimore Orioles to a 10-0 victory.

It was the biggest shutout margin in the short history of the Angels and Roberts gave the Los Angeles hitters a lesson in control pitching.

Arm Feels Stronger "My arm seems to feel stronger now than it has in some time," the grinning Roberts said after the game. "I hope to keep on pitching as long as I can be of help to a club."

Roberts currently is third in the majors among active pitchers in total victories, surpassed only by Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves and Early Wynn of the Cleveland Indians. And compared to them, Roberts is a youngster. Spahn is 42 years of age and Wynn is 43.

Four-Way Tiff For Hitting Lead of National League

By FRED DOWN UPI Sports Writer

Forget the National League's pennant race for a moment and take a gander at its race for the batting championship.

It's a tournament of champions involving 1960 champ Dick Groat of the St. Louis Cardinals, 1961 titlist Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates and 1962 king Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

And there's even an uninvited fourth hopeful—the Cardinals' Bill White, who has challenged in the past but never quite made it.

The race today shows Davis and Clemente tied for the lead at .335 each and Groat and White tied for second at .333 each.

Lewiston Keeps Right On Rolling

By United Press International

Thanks to Jack Acker the Lewiston Broncos kept right on rolling in Northwest league action Tuesday night.

The league leaders turned in a 2-0 victory over last-place Eugene on Acker's one-hitter to maintain their three-game yak over second-place Yakima.

Yakima topped Wenatchee 5-3 and Tri-City beat Salem 7-5 in other games.

Dennis Lungen singled in the seventh for the only Eugene hit off Acker. Lewiston got one run in the fourth on two errors and a single by Frank Cipriano and added another in the eighth.

Bill Hiatt of Tri-City broke a 3-1 tie with a solo homer in the sixth and the Braves were never headed. Bob Leopold won his fourth against one loss although he needed relief help in the eighth when Salem pushed over two runs.

contributed two singles to an 11-hit attack that helped Sandy Koufax and the Dodgers down the Cincinnati Reds 4-1. White had three hits and Groat a key double, meanwhile, as the Cardinals topped the San Francisco Giants 6-5, and moved back into first place.

The Cardinals led off first place. The Cardinals held a halfgame lead over both their chief rivals, with the Dodgers second by six percentage points and the Giants third by eight.

Phils Whip Pirates The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Pirates, 5-4, in 10 innings despite two hits by Clemente; the Milwaukee Braves beat the Houston Colts 4-0, and the Chicago Cubs topped the New York Mets, 4-1, in other NL action.

The second of Davis' two hits capped a two-run, tie-breaking eighth-inning rally spearheaded by Murrey Wilk's safe bunt and Jim Gilliam's double. Koufax pitched a six-hitter and struck out nine batters for his fifth straight win and 12th of the season while Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole suffered his fourth loss against 13 triumphs. He had won seven in a row.

Win On Error The Cardinals, given an early lead with the help of slugging by Groat and White, won out in the ninth when Orlando Cepeda threw wildly to third base on a bunt, permitting Tim McCarver to score. Willie McCovey's two-run homer and a two-run triple by Felipe Alou produced four runs for the Giants and a 5-5 tie in the eighth. Ron Taylor was the winner and Earl Wilson's seventh triumph.

Radatz has appeared in 28 games so far and has a shot at Mike Fornieles' AL record of 70 set in 1960, particularly in view of manager Johnny Pesky's announced intention of using him "any time I think it's vital."

Things have reached such a pass now that Fenway park fans begin chanting "We want Radatz" as early as the fifth inning.

The Red Sox clinched Tuesday night's opener with three runs in the eighth inning and rode to victory in the nightcap when Radatz' roommate, Dick Stuart, drove in two runs on a pair of singles and Lou Clinton belted his ninth homer.

Chicago Beat Yankees The Chicago White Sox climbed within nine percentage points of the first-place New York Yankees by beating them for the fourth straight time this season, 3-1, and in other AL games Minnesota defeated Detroit, 1-0, Kansas City walloped Washington, 8-4, and Baltimore blasted Los Angeles, 10-0.

Floyd Robinson's eighth-inning homer off loser Ralph Terry broke up a 1-1 tie between the White Sox and Yankees as Juan Pizarro struck out 11 batters and gave up five hits in gaining his ninth victory. Terry was charged with his eighth defeat.

Tru-Mix, Jay Allen Win Tilts

Jay Allen Cars crushed Southern Oregon Dry Kiln last night 12 to 2 for its third straight win against no losses in the Major league of the Jackson County Softball association.

Tru-Mix made it 3-0 in the Minor circuit by tipping Colvin and Associate 2 to 0.

Jay Allen put its main effort into the third inning when eight hits, walk and a fielder's option produced eight runs. Les Walker homered and doubled in that inning. Laval Meunier and John Payne had two base hits and Jerry Shults, Chuck Hoyt, Tom Perdue and Dave Love hit singles.

Perdue had two singles and a double for the evening and Hoyt two singles.

Jim Reinhardt tossed three-hit ball for the Carmen. He fanned two and walked one. Jay Allen got 14 hits off John Augard who struck out one and walked a pair.

Tru-Mix got both its runs in the third inning. Chuck Marrs had two hits for the victors. Ron Weatherford pitched a one-walk, four-strikeout two-hitter. Jim Tackett of Colvin allowed six hits while striking out 12. He walked one.

Los Angeles dumped Cincinnati 4-1, leaving the Cards on top a half-game ahead of Los Angeles (.577) and San Francisco (.575). Cincinnati is two games out of first and persistent Chicago three games behind.

Manager Alvin Dark gets back in rotation with his big three tonight as O'Dell (10-3) takes on Curt Simmons (7-3) in a battle of veteran lefties.

Radatz Preserves 2 for Red Sox; Boston Challenges in AL Chase

By MILTON RICHMAN UPI Sports Writer

The gag around the American league is that Dick Radatz may win the MVP award but that his arm will be so sore by then that he won't be able to comb his hair for the occasion.

Actually, the Boston strong-boy's chances of winning the most valuable player award are looking less and less like a gag.

And even though he has appeared in 40 per cent of the Red Sox' games so far, including six of their last eight games, he doesn't seem to be worried about arm trouble.

"I don't see any cause for concern," he says. "My pitching motion is smooth. I'm not one of those herky-jerky guys."

The six-foot-six 240-pounder was plenty smooth Tuesday night as he worked both ends of a twilight-night doubleheader against the Cleveland Indians and preserved 4-1 and over the Senators. Diego Segui picked up his third victory with help from Bill Fischer while Dave Stenhouse suffered his eighth defeat. Chuck Cottier and Ed Brinkman homered for the Senators.

Veteran Robin Roberts got his 250th major league victory with a four-hitter against the Angels as Jim Gentle drove in six runs for the Orioles with a pair of doubles and a homer. The victory was Roberts' sixth of the season compared with seven losses. Dean Chance was the loser.

Homer Wins Game The Twins collected only two hits off Jim Banning but one of them was Harmon Killebrew's 15th homer in the third inning and that proved to be the ball game. Lee Stange shut out the Tigers on five hits for his second victory without a loss.

Gino Cimoli's three-run double highlighted a six-run fourth inning rally that carried the A's to their victory in 15 decisions although he held the White Sox hitless until the sixth inning and yielded only three hits all told.

3-2 victories that boosted the Red Sox within 2½ games of first place.

The overpowering Radatz faced a total of 10 men and struck out seven of them. He saved Bill Monbouquette's 11th victory in the opener although tagged for a ninth-inning homer by Max Alvis and then came back to nail down Earl Wilson's seventh triumph.

Radatz has appeared in 28 games so far and has a shot at Mike Fornieles' AL record of 70 set in 1960, particularly in view of manager Johnny Pesky's announced intention of using him "any time I think it's vital."
