

Medford Plays Hawks Tonight In Legion Baseball; Opposes Studs Here Friday Evening

Medford American Legion junior baseball team will try to repeat previous success this evening.

The Medfords entertain the Klamath Falls Hawks at the fairgrounds ball park here. Game time will be 8 p.m.

KF Falcons Beat CP Cheney Studs In Extra Frames

Memorial Field, White City—Jay Paxton singled home two runs and Dave Johnson tripled in another pair in the extra ninth inning here last night to bust a tie ball game and give the Klamath Falls Falcon American Legion junior diamond aggregation a 6 to 2 verdict over the Central Point Cheney Studs.

Johnson three-baggered twice and knocked over three tallies in the contest which saw the Falcons move in to sole possession of first place in the Southern division standings of Area 4. Central Point dropped into fourth position in the loop.

The clubs were 2-all at the end of the regulation seven innings and that's the way the score stood after one out in the top of the second extra frame. At that point Studs' pitcher Larry Pepper, who had struck out 15 batters and had not walked a man, yielded to a sore arm.

Reliever Larry Mason gave up a base on balls to Lanny Guyer, who stole second base and went to third when Larry Parisotto walked and swiped second. Then, Paxton, getting his second hit of the evening, smacked the ball into right field. Guyer romped home to break the deadlock and Parisotto followed him across the plate.

The play to home allowed Paxton to get to second base. John Gray drew a free pass and the two runners advanced on a wild pitch. Johnson then blasted a pitch by second reliever Wayne Clay into deep left field.

A strikeout, pop out and groundout retired the Central Point batters in the bottom of the inning to end the scrap.

The Cheney's grabbed advantage of Falcon errateness to take a 2 to 0 lead in the third inning. Lou Alvarez walked and stole second. Catcher Paxton's throw hit him and rolled into the outfield on the play and Alvarez picked himself up and went to third base. Neil Rivenburg singled Alvarez across. On a wild pitch Rivenburg went all the way from first to third base. He scored on a passed ball.

Klamath tied the skirmish in the fifth inning. Paxton singled and was brought in by Johnson's first long blow, also into deep left. A balk was called on pitcher Pepper when Johnson broke off third and the umpires waved.

The Count Yogi show will be presented at Oak Knoll Golf club here on Sunday, June 30. A nine-hole match is scheduled for 5 to 7 p.m. with an exhibition planned for 7 to 8 p.m. It is open to the public free of charge.

Flyers on the show describe Count Yogi as a preacher, trick golfer, versatile magician, straight shot golfer, comedian, philosopher, prognosticator, psychologist, yoga student and humanitarian. He is termed an unusual character with unusual patter and commentary.

Hawks 12 to 0 and 4 to 3 last Sunday with the first mix counting in the league.

The locals sport a 5-1 standing in the circuit and the Hawks are 3-4 after beating the Tri City Braves 15 to 2 last night.

Bill Enyart who beat the Hawks in the first game on Sunday is the probable pitcher for Medford this evening.

Choice for the Hawks on the hill may be from among Steve Young, Marv Cunningham and Jon Pilgrim.

Depends on Ankle Mike Barnes may be the catcher for Medford if his ankle is okay. Otherwise, the receiver will be Ken Phipps. Barnes turned his ankle Saturday in a non-baseball mishap. Rest of the lineup could be Don Anderson, first base; Jim Calhoun, second base; Ron Edmonds, third base; Dan Miles, shortstop, and Darryl Stockton, Mike Neathamer and Tom Barker, outfielders.

Medford will play Central Point on Friday evening, also at the fairgrounds. This will be a non-league game. It also is billed for 8 p.m. Stuart Young is the probable pitcher for Medford.

Granville Britton, chairman of the American Legion Post 15 junior baseball committee, reported that a public address system will be in operation this evening for the convenience of fans. The need for the PA equipment has been felt during a number of games which have been conducted without it.

Legionnaires have announced that a $25 savings bond and a 1964 season ticket will be awarded as top prizes in a contest to give the Medford team a nickname. The name will not be known, however, until this season is completed. Deadline for submitting names is the end of the season.

Entries in the name contest may be mailed to American Legion Post 15, 404 Walnut st., Medford.

The contest was announced last Sunday. As of yesterday, no name suggestions had been submitted.

Wimbledon, England—UP—Two of the last six American survivors in the men's singles division of the Wimbledon tennis championships crossed racquets today when Chuck McKinley met Arthur Ashe in a fourth round match.

It figured to be an interesting battle despite the fact McKinley is ranked No. 1 and Ashe is 18th in the current American rankings.

Ashe, the first American Negro male ever to play at Wimbledon, is a fast-rising court star. In last week's U.S. (N.C.A.A) championships at Princeton, N. J., he dropped a thrilling five-set semi-final match to Dennis Ralston, the eventual champion, who was eliminated in the third round here Wednesday.

Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., Jack Frost of Monterey, Calif., and Tom Edjensen of Los Angeles were the other Yanks from an original 20-man entry who reached today's fourth round.

Froehling was pitted against Australia's Bob Howe today, Frost plays Britain's R. Taylor, and Edjensen meets Jan Erik Lundquist, veteran Swedish Davis Cupper.

The six U.S. survivors, Herb Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., resumes his third round match against Adrian Bey of Rhodesia. It was deadlocked in the fifth set when darkness halted play Wednesday.

Five of the seven Americans remaining in the women's singles also were scheduled to play today.

Darlene Hard of Los Angeles plays Hedi Schultze of Germany. Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., meets Miss N. Baylon of Argentina, and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., faces Lea Pericoli of Italy in third round matches.

Dorothy Head Knode, formerly of Forest Hills, N. Y., but now living in Tokyo, faces Italy's Silvano Lazzarino and Tory Ann Fretz of Harrisburg, Pa., plays Miss F. Durr of France in holdover second rounders.

Wheeler, CWA Take JCSA Tilts

John Wheeler Logging blanketed United Grocers 8 to 0 in the Major League and Communication Workers of America shut out Keith Schulz Garage 2 to 0 in the Minor League yesterday evening in Jackson County Softball association scuffles.

Gordon Mellecke had three hits in three times up for Wheeler, one a home run. Milan Kurtz, pitching for the Loggers, allowed only one hit — to leadoff batter Dale Matheny. Kurtz struck out eight and gave up no walks.

Fuzz McCoy, Kay Vaughn and Bill Weddle each socked two hits for the Loggers. Vaughn and Kurtz belted triples.

United pitcher Duke Anderson also allowed no free passes. He whiffed two while yielding 11 hits.

A two-run first inning homer by Jim Singler brought all the scoring in the CWA-Schulz game. The Garagemen had a roundtrip blast nullified for failure of the hitter to touch third base. Rich Nelson held Schulz to two hits and no walks. He fanned four, Don Cain gave up four hits and a walk to CWA with seven strikeouts.

In 6:30 o'clock games this evening CWA faces Colvin and Associate at Jefferson school and the Grocers oppose Southern Oregon Dry Kiln at Hedrick Junior high.

Mock Ford Victor Over Ashlanders Ashland—Grants Pass stood in third place alone in the Southern division of Area 4 American Legion junior baseball after defeating Ashland 5 to 0 in a twilight game here yesterday.

Rich Wolney led the Mock Ford team with three hits in three times up and Jerry McCormack pitched a three-hitter, walking one and striking out 10.

GP tabulated twice in the first inning on doubles by Wolney and Bill Standley and an error. One run was scored in the fifth panel on an error, a Wolney single, a groundout and a wild pitch. A base on balls, a steal and two errors brought two more markers in the seventh.

John Rhodes pitched a five-hit game for Ashland. He walked one, hit one and fanned eight. Bob DeBoer, Jan Susee and Jerry Dickerson hit safely for Ashland and McCormack swatted the other hit for GP.

Grants Pass is now 5-2 in the league and Ashland is 0-8.

The golfers who hit 'em straight rather than long were favored in the crack field of 150 who started out today after the $22,000 Cleveland Open tournament. "There's no premium on hitting them long here, but there is in hitting them straight," said Mike Souchak, hoping to get back on the winning track because "I always play well in the Cleveland area."

Medford Speedway Race Season Opens on Sunday

Stock car racing opens in the Rogue valley this Sunday, June 30, with a slate of jalopy events at the Medford speedway at White City.

The older stock cars (known as claimers to many) go to the pole at 1 p.m. for time trials. Elimination heats and the main event follow at 2 p.m.

More than 30 drivers have signed to participate. Speedway officials said they were pleased with the interest in the program and felt sure racing would be top-notch.

Drivers interested in entering can get additional information by contacting Crosby's Mobil station, 843 West Jackson street, Medford. A special meeting is being held this evening, June 27, at the Medford YMCA at 8 p.m. for all drivers and owners who plan to enter this Sunday's meet. Any other persons interested may attend. Contestants so far signed represent Medford, Ashland, Talent, Eagle Point, Gold Hill and Central Point. Other entries are expected from the Grants Pass area.

The track has set up a point program for the drivers with special cash awards going to the high point drivers at the conclusion of the season. Medford speedway is located in east White City off Antelope rd. Those going to the races are instructed to turn right off Crater Lake highway at Cascade Village and follow the signs. A concession stand will be in operation and there is bleacher seating.
