

Jaycees To Ring Bells on July 4

The Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce will ring every church, school and fire bell in the community for a period of two minutes at noon July 4. Frank M. Grimes, chairman of the "Let Freedom Ring" committee has announced.

The Medford observance will be part of the national movement "to put the patriotic spirit back into July 4," Grimes said.

"The Jaycees, locally and nationally, feel the true meaning has been put astray. Few people today think of July 4 as the day when our freedom was won. Most think of it as a day of pleasure given by their employers," Grimes continued.
