

Student Assistants To Participate in Sunday Services

Richard Corum, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Corum, 30 Willamette st., who is serving the First Presbyterian church as student assistant this summer, will preach Sunday on "Inner Emigration?" Mr. Corum has completed his first year at Union Theological seminary, New York City.

As a part of the field work program of a candidate for the gospel ministry, he is serving on the staff of the church primarily in the field of youth work. He is heading fellowship programs for the junior high, senior high, and college.

The college-age group meets each Thursday evening with the program consisting of a series of debates and films. In the Senior High group the meeting Sundays at 7 p.m. is primarily Bible study. Mr. Corum will be assisted by his brother, Jim, and Richard Licht. The second part of the program is on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. when recreation, dinner and discussion are held.

The Junior High program is held Tuesdays at 7 p.m. This week there will be a discussion of a short play entitled, "The War Story." After the program, reports from camp will be heard.

While Dr. and Mrs. D. Kirkland West are on vacation the Rev. David Brown will be in charge of all pastoral duties.

Westminster The worship service at Westminster Presbyterian church will be held at 10 a.m. Sunday. Dawson Wilke, student at San Francisco Theological seminary, will assist in the service. A trio composed of Mrs. Harvey Field, soprano, Mrs. John Henson, second soprano, and Mrs. John Collins, alto, will sing "Bless Me Enter In."

The church school meets at 9 a.m. and includes classes for all ages of children, youth and adults. The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. at the church. Dawson Wilke will lead a discussion on "The Church's Evaluation of the Peace Corps." Fireside will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Laurel Case, 31 Glen Oak ct. Junior High Fellowship will meet Tuesday from noon to 3 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dellenback, 257 Windsor ave. Students are to take swim suits and sack lunches. Reports of the Junior High camp at Lake of the Woods will be given and Dawson Wilke will lead a brief study on "Ways We Worship."

The midweek fellowship will not be held due to the Fourth of July holiday. Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

Guest Panelist Noted for Week End Guest panelist this week end on the Ministers' Roundtable program will be John R. Dellenback, Oregon state legislator, moderator of the Oregon Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in the USA, and a member of that denomination's Judicial committee of the General Assembly.

Topic to be discussed will be "The Tension Between Christian Conscience and National Loyalty." Other panelists will be Jack Willcutt, Medford Friends church, and the Rev. John O. Reynolds, Westminster Presbyterian church. The Rev. Robert W. Tull of the Medford Congregational church will serve as moderator. The program may be viewed Saturday at 11 a.m. on KMED-TV and heard Sunday on KMED Radio at 8 a.m.

Eastwood Baptist Announce Schedule Sunday at the Sunday morning service of Eastwood Baptist church, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on, "The Great Confession," using as his text Mark 8:27-30.

At the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will give the message, "Jesus Tells of His Death," using Mark 8:31. At the midweek service of July 3 we shall continue the study of II Corinthians. The Fellowship Bible study group will meet Friday at 7:30 p.m. and the Victory Bible Study group Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

July 14 is the date of an all-church business meeting after the morning service, and an all-church picnic at Touvelle park.

CAPT. and MRS. KENNETH ANGEL Arrive from Wyoming

Salvation Army Officers Arrive

Miss Cunningham to Speak in Prospect

Prospect - The Cascade Gorge Christian church will hear Miss Jean Cunningham as the guest speaker for the next three Sunday morning services.

Miss Cunningham has taught in the Prospect schools for the past year after ministering to the Gold Hill Christian church for several years. She has spent some time in Mexico in mission work and will relate some of her experiences and activities there during that time.

Commencement Set for School

Eagle Point - Sixty-one boys and girls have enrolled at the Vacation Bible school being conducted at the Shady Point Seventh-day Adventist church, Crater Lake highway near Sams Valley junction. The school is divided into kindergarten, primary and junior classes, evenly divided between boys and girls ages 4 to 14.

In a commencement program at the Adventist church Tuesday, July 2 at 8 p.m., certificates of achievement will be awarded by Mrs. Helen Barrow, director of the school. Each of the three age groups of youngsters who have completed the Bible school work will present parts of the program in connection with the graduation ceremony. Parents will view a display of some of the crafts and nature collections on which the children have been working.

The program will also include demonstrations of songs, Bible memory work and recitations which have been part of the Bible school activities during the period. Guest speaker for the event will be Pastor Sidney Nelson of the local Adventist Church.

Communion Slated At Brethren Church

Communion will be observed during the 11 a.m. worship hour at the Medford church of the Brethren, 345 North Mary st. The pastor, the Rev. William Wash will have as his sermon topic, "An Invitation to Breakfast." Stanley Birman will be the soloist singing, "In the Garden."

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the church social hall, the Youth Fellowship will hold a box social. Each person attending is to take a box to be auctioned. All proceeds will go toward sending the youth to camp.

Sunday at 7 p.m. the CBYF will have as their meeting a panel discussion on the topic, "Is the Church Meeting the Needs of the Youth?" The panel will consist of both youth and adults.

Sunday afternoon will begin Junior High camp at the church's campsite at Camp Myrtlewood at Myrtle Point. The pastor will be away all week attending this camp which he will assist in directing.

Eastside Church Open For Charter Members

The Eastside Church of Christ, 132 Vancouver ave., will open its charter membership drive July 1, according to the minister, Mr. Jean M. Shelley.

The membership drive will continue through Sept. 1. Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. communion service Mr. Shelley will speak on "A Fisherman's Way of Life."

Sermon Series to Conclude Sunday

The Book of Judges has been the setting for a series of messages brought in the current Sunday evening services by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 Holly st.

He concludes the series on "Stumbling Over the Stars," Sunday at 7 p.m. with the sermon, "A Weak, Strong Man." Music for this service will be furnished by a girls trio composed of Marilyn Shepard, Doris and Evelyn Young, a duet by Velma Myers and George McUne, and a vocal solo by Elwin Paulson.

"What We Believe" has been the 11 a.m. subject considered by the pastor for some Sundays. He will also conclude this series Sunday. Music for this service as announced by Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education for the local church will be the sanctuary choir singing "Zion's Hill."

June 30 is the end of the fiscal year for the Oregon Pacific District Church of the Nazarene and the statistical record of the church will be completed with Sunday's service. Dr. Hugh C. Benner of Kansas City, Mo., general superintendent of the church, will be the presiding officer for the annual district assembly in Clackamas.

First Baptist Announces Topic

"Urgent - Love Needed," will be the message that the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews will give at the First Baptist church Sunday at 11 a. m. The congregation will meet for at least two more Sundays in the Wilson school auditorium at Grand and Corona aves.

Mrs. Donn Platt will be soloist and a trio composed of Miss Beth Wilcox, Miss Virginia Gandt and the Rev. Byron Evans will sing. A completely graded and departmentalized Sunday school program is conducted at 9:40 a.m. Bus service is provided from most parts of the community. Information may be obtained at the church office, or by phone.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Andrews will speak on the subject, "Where Does Your Faith Stand?" Mrs. Evelyn Thorne will sing and Jerry Goddard will play the French horn. The high school youth people will present a demonstration of the work they have accomplished in the Vacation Bible school the past two weeks.

The mid week service is held on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the education unit of the new church building, 649 Crater Lake ave.

High school age young people of the church are leaving Saturday for the Union-Rogue Baptist camp near Prospect for a week of camping under the auspices of the Shasta-Cascade Baptist association. The camp is under the direction of Mr. Evans. The Rev. Don Watson, pastor from Portland, will be the principal speaker. Dr. Douglas Stave, missionary to India, will also speak each day at the missionary hour.
