

Luplow's Sensational Catch For Indians Brings Protest By Boston's Skipper Pesky

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Cleveland outfielder Al Luplow was in the middle of baseball's latest controversy today and there's about as much hope of settling this one as there is of proving which came first, the chicken or the egg.

The only point everyone agrees on is that Luplow turned in the catch of the year Thursday when he flipped over a five-foot fence and landed in the Boston bullpen while snaring Dick Williams' 400-foot drive.

The Indians, who won the game, 6-4, called Luplow's fantastic seventh inning catch one of the greatest in baseball history.

Some of the Red Sox went along with that, but to a man they insisted it was illegal because Luplow actually was outside the playing field at Fenway Park.

Makes Official Protest
"As far as I know, the rules say you've got to be on the playing field," said Red Sox manager Johnny Pesky, who officially protested the game, believing that Williams was entitled to a home run.

Two Boston runners were on base at the time and one of them, Lou Clinton scored from third base after the catch.

"Hell, a home run means three runs to us and it ties the game at 6-6," Pesky said.

Umpire Joe Paparella ruled Luplow's catch valid. He said he "saw Luplow catch the ball falling into the bullpen. I saw the play all the way. He disappeared behind the fence but came up almost instantly, carrying the ball. He couldn't have dropped it. He didn't have time."

Some of the Red Sox players in the bullpen at the time, including pitcher Chet Nichols and coach Al Lakeman, conceded Luplow never dropped the ball but argued with Pesky that the catch actually was made in the bullpen.

Up To Cronin
So American league president Joe Cronin who will find Pesky's protest on his desk today, will have to rule whether Luplow caught the ball before or after he landed in the bullpen. Good luck, Joe!

Anyway, the victory, credited to Cleveland starter Barry Lattman, snapped a four-game Red Sox winning string. Mike De La Hoz produced the Tribe's winning margin with his third hit of the game, a two-run single off reliever Dick Radatz in the eighth. Rookie Wilbur Wood was the loser, however.

Jerry Kindall, Max Alvis and Gene Green hit homers for the Indians while Carl Yastrzemski and Russ Nixon connected for the Red Sox.

In other AL action, the Chicago White Sox moved within eight percentage points of the first-place New York Yankees by beating them, 6-0, on Ray Herbert's sixth shutout of the season. Minnesota drubbed Detroit, 10-8, and Washington clipped Kansas City, 4-2, in the only other scheduled contest.

Only one game was played in the National League where Johnny Callison of the Philadelphia Phillies drove in four runs with a homer, triple, double and a single in a 13-4 win over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Handicapped Yankees
Herbert limited the Yankees to five hits in out-pitching Jim Bouton for his eighth victory in 12 decisions. The White Sox rapped Boston for three runs in the first inning with Floyd Robinson singling home two of the runs. The victory was the White Sox' 13th in a row.

Bowling
Purkey's mark stands at 2-4. He last started against the Giants on May 29 and was bounced during the fourth inning by umpire Shag Crawford for beefing over a call.

The Giants are checking in for an 11 game home stand after a short road trip that saw them drop four out of six contests.

SPORTS FANS!
I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW
by Paul Lee

They say the greatest baseball team of all-time was the 1927 Yankees. How many of their starters can you name? Well, here's the run-down to stir the memories of you old timers.

(1B) Lou Gehrig (2B) Tony Lazzeri (3B) Joe Judge (SS) Mark Koenig (CF) Bob Meusel (LF) E. R. Cobb (RF) Babe Ruth (C) Pat Collins.

Of all the heavyweight boxing champs in history, do you know which one was the heaviest? Answer is Primo Carnera. When he won the title, he weighed 270.

Did you know that the great football player, Sam Huff's real first name is not Sam. Although everybody calls him Sam, that is just a nickname. His real name is Robert Lee Huff.

I bet you didn't know Paul Lee Motors, Medford's Rambler dealer, has the best crew of service mechanics in all the Rogue Valley to take care of your requirements for any make of car and that you can avail yourself of their service at the lowest price available in the Medford area. Stewart Schroeder Leads Qualifiers in State Links Tourney

Portland—(UPI)—Stewart Schroeder, an ex-Oregon State university player from Medford, led all qualifiers for the Oregon Golf association match play tournament at Riverside Golf and Country club Thursday with a six-under-par 66.

Schroeder was one stroke ahead of Mickey Shaw of Portland and three ahead of Virg Mitchell, also of Portland. Tied at 72 were two-time champion Don Kreiger, Jim Harding and Dick Barrett, all of Portland, and Bob Prall, of Salem.

Bruce Cudd of Portland, another ex-champion, came in with a 74. Men's qualifying continued today.

Sue Jennett of Lake Oswego won medalist honors in the women's division with a three-over - women's-par 79. Tied for second at 83 were Mrs. Richard Grubbs, Mrs. Lon Stiner and Marie Wolfe, all of Portland.

Tim Berg led golfers from Medford's Rogue Valley Country club in Oregon Golf association tourney qualifying with a 37-36-73.

Doug Olson, OGA junior champion, toured in 39-36-75. Mike Miller, state junior semi-finalist shot 41-36-77 and his father, Dr. William Miller, 38-39-77. Dr. Jim Wilson recorded 43-38-81.

Mrs. William Miller stroked a 93 to qualify for the women's second flight.

Home runs by Jim King, Don Zimmer and Hobie Landrith carried the Senators to their victory over the Athletics. King's homer was his 13th and Zimmer's his first in an American League. Norm Siebern also homered for the A's. Bennie Daniels was credited with his first win of the year while Dave Wickersham suffered his seventh setback.

Callison's one-man slugging show paced an 18-hit attack by the Phillies that enabled rookie Ray Culp to register his 10th victory. Culp blanked the Pirates until the seventh, then gave way to Dennis Bennett in the eighth.

Tony Gonzalez, the Phils' left fielder, committed his first error in 205 consecutive games when he bobbed Johnny Logan's single and turned it into a double.

Haystack Calhoun Wins Seven-Man Battle Royal
The end came after about 15 minutes when Soldat Gorky and Ivan Kameroff, the only grapplers left in the ring with Calhoun, teamed up in an attempt to get the big fellow over the top rope and out of the ring. Calhoun let them struggle with him for a couple of minutes, then applied a headlock on each man and threw them simultaneously out of the ring to end the gang fight.

Most of the wrestlers took turns trying to bring Calhoun down with flying tackles, punches, and other means but their efforts went for naught as they just bounced off onto the mat.

Andre Drappe was the first man eliminated, tossed out by Gorky. Catalina George Drake went next when he was kicked over the top with a drop kick by Rocky Colombo, who was then flipped out by Gorky. Calhoun adopted Abe Jacobs as his sidekick but it didn't help the New Zealand flash, who was ousted in a team effort by the Russians.

Supporting matches, roundly applauded by the crowd of approximately 1,000, saw Gorky take a one - fall win over Drappe, Jacobs and Kameroff go to a 30-minute no-fall draw, and Drake and Colombo end up even after 20-minutes.

GLORIA FAY CHAMP
Neskwonin—(UPI)—Mrs. Gloria Fay of Bellingham, Wash., is the 1963 champion of the annual Helen Dettweiler Invitational Golf tournament. Mrs. Fay, who fired a 75-74 in the two-day contest, took top honors with a low gross score of 149.

Colvin took a 4 to 0 lead in its contest with three runs in the first inning and one in the third. Larry Johnson, Rick Hassman and Jim Tackett had two hits each among Colvin's eight. Tackett limited CWA to four hits while walking one and striking out six. Bill Tope gave up three bases on balls to Colvin.

Rain threatened this evening's 6:30 o'clock slate. Jay Allen Cars and Central Point Merchants are scheduled at Jackson school and Tru-Mix Concrete and Medford Corporation at Hawthorne park.

JACKSON WINS
Spokane—(UPI)—Defending men's singles champion Jimmy Jackson of Portland disposed of Gerry Hopkins, Pebble Beach, Calif., 6-1, 6-1, Thursday in the second round of the Inland Empire Tennis tournament. Steve Fields, Glendale, Calif., scored an upset win over Larry Brooks, Eugene, Ore. The scores were 7-9, 6-3, 6-2.

Jalopy Auto Races Sunday Afternoon

The crash-bash-smash action of auto racing will be in the spotlight this Sunday afternoon as the Medford speedway opens its summer slate of jalopy races.

Drivers and owners have been building and modifying their machines for all-out competition on the quarter mile oval.

With more than thirty drivers already signed up to fight it out for the winner's circle, a stellar program of events is anticipated. Cars from many points in the valley will be entered.

The jalopies all have a value of less than $100 and most of them are models that date from the period 1947-1955. They have been gutted of all glass except for the windshield, upholstery, trim, seats and other items to reduce the weight. Many will have cut-back fenders to provide more clearance for the tires. The doors have been welded or chained shut and some will be equipped with roll bars. All drivers will wear safety belts and helmets.

Portland—(UPI)—Portland is going to make a big bid to land the 1965 NCAA basketball finals. Don Jewel, manager of the Memorial Coliseum, and Howard Hobson, former Oregon basketball coach and a representative of Portland Futures Unlimited, will attend a meeting in Colorado Springs July 10 to present the city's pitch.

Cars of this kind are known as 'Claimers' and it is possible for ownership to change hands between races. Individuals in the crowd may have a chance to buy any of the cars on the track for $99 if they so desire.

Track officials plan to start time trials at 1 p.m. followed by the heat events at 2 p.m., trophy dash and main events. The track will open at 10 a.m. Sunday for practice runs.

Medford speedway is located six miles north of Medford in East White City. Auto race fans are instructed to turn right at Cascade Shopping center and follow the signs.

If you haven't bought a Volvo sedan because you have too many kids, pets, groceries, shrubs and sundry to carry, come in and see how easily everything fits into the new Volvo station wagon.

And while you're here, we'll show you how easily Volvo carries everything that fits into it: Volvo runs away from every other popular-priced compact wagon in every speed range, gets over 25 miles to the gallon like the little economy cars, is virtually indestructible and proves it at trade-in time. And many of the "incidentals" you pay extra for on other wagons come as standard equipment on Volvo: Heater-defroster, padded dash and sun visors, vinyl upholstery, bucket seats, undercoating and whitewalls.

How does Volvo offer so much wagon at compact prices? Volvos are made in Sweden. When the Swedes lay out a dollar, they expect a dollar's worth of value in return. Don't you?

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

Meet Mr. A.B.C. - He Works for our Advertisers

He is one of the experienced circulation auditors on the staff of the Audit Bureau of Circulations. Just as a bank examiner makes a periodic check of the records of your bank—so does Mr. A.B.C. visit our office at regular intervals to make an exacting inspection and audit of our circulation records. The circulation facts thus obtained are condensed in easy-to-read audit reports which tell our advertisers: How much circulation we have; where it goes; how it was obtained; and many other FACTS that tell advertisers what they get for their money when they advertise in this newspaper.

Advertisers are invited to ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, of which this newspaper is a member, is a cooperative, nonprofit association of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers. Organized in 1914, A.B.C. brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing a definition for paid circulation; rules and standards for auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

Dry Kiln, Colvin Gain Victories

Southern Oregon Dry Kiln won its first Major league game of the Jackson County Softball association schedule last night by handing United Grocers its losing, 2 to 1.

In the Minor league deadlock for second place was broken. Colvin and Associates took undisputed hold by beating Communications Workers of America 5 to 3.

Dry Kiln packed three of its four hits into the first inning for both of its runs. Don Ford doubled home the scores following singles by Ray Chapman and Wayne Gillespey and an error. United tabulated in the second inning on an error and a Gene Ingram single.

Matheny Doubles
Dale Matheny had two doubles and Jerry Anderson two singles among the seven UG hits. Dry Kiln pitcher John Augar walked two and whiffed one. United's Duke Anderson issued one free pass and fanned two.

Colvin took a 4 to 0 lead in its contest with three runs in the first inning and one in the third. Larry Johnson, Rick Hassman and Jim Tackett had two hits each among Colvin's eight. Tackett limited CWA to four hits while walking one and striking out six. Bill Tope gave up three bases on balls to Colvin.

Rain threatened this evening's 6:30 o'clock slate. Jay Allen Cars and Central Point Merchants are scheduled at Jackson school and Tru-Mix Concrete and Medford Corporation at Hawthorne park.

JACKSON WINS
Spokane—(UPI)—Defending men's singles champion Jimmy Jackson of Portland disposed of Gerry Hopkins, Pebble Beach, Calif., 6-1, 6-1, Thursday in the second round of the Inland Empire Tennis tournament. Steve Fields, Glendale, Calif., scored an upset win over Larry Brooks, Eugene, Ore. The scores were 7-9, 6-3, 6-2.
