Yanks Homer to Back Up Terry, Beat Red Sox 2-0

By United Press International Elston Howard and Yon Tresh hit home runs to back up Ralph Terry's six-hit pitching Saturday, enabling the New York Yankees to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 2-0.

The victory moved the Yankees one full game ahead of the Chicago White Sox in the American league race. The White Sox were defeated by the Cleveland Indians, 5-2.

In other afternoon games, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Kansas City Athletics, 3-2, and the Los Angeles Angels beat the Detroit Tigers, 7-4.

Howard and Tresh hit their home runs off lefty Chet Nichols, who was making his second start of the season for Boston. Tresh's homer was his 13th. Terry's victory evened his season's record at 8-8. He struck out five batters and walked two.

Bob Allen was summoned from the bullpen to quell Chicago's seventh-inning uprising and saved the victory for Cleveland starter Jack Kracklik.

With two runs in and runners on first and second, Allen retired the next two batters and pitched one hit ball the rest of the way. Tito Francona's fourth-inning homer off John Buzhardt started the Indians on the road to victory.

der, whose home run won Friday night's game, singled home Bob Saverine in the eighth inning Saturday, to beat luckless Moe Drabowsky of the Athletics.

Jim Gentile hit his 15th homer of the year for the Orioles and Mill Pappas pitched a seven-hitter for his sixth win. Drabowsky lost his fourth game without a victory.

Leon Wagner of the Angels collected three hits to take over the American league batting leadership and Lee Thomas drove in three runs in Los Angeles' win over Detroit. Wagner boosted his average to .349.

Reliever Don Lee shut out Detroit during the last four innings to earn the victory, while Jim Bunning was the loser. Thomas' two-run homer topped off the Angels' scoring in the seventh. Jim Fregosi also hit a Los Angeles homer, while Al Kaline and Dick McAuliffe connected for Detroit.

The Minnesota-Washington twilight game was postponed because of rain with the Twins leading, 2-0, after 3 1/2 innings. Minnesota picked up a run on a walk and three singles in the second inning and Earl Batley homered in the fourth.

By United Press International KANSAS CITY 010 100 000-2 7 0 Baltimore 010 000 11x-3 6 1 Drabowsky (0-4) and Sullivan, Pappas (6-4) and Brown, HR - Gentile (15th).

Cleveland 000 102 002-5 7 3 Chicago 000 000 200-2 5 0 Kracklik, Bell (7), Allen (7) and Azcue, Buzhardt, Horton (7), Wilhelm (8) and Carreon, WP - Kracklik (8-8), LP - Buzhardt (9-4), HR - Francona (5th).

For the second straight game, Russ Snyder's hit earned a Baltimore victory. Snyder, whose home run won Friday night's game, singled home Bob Saverine in the eighth inning Saturday, to beat luckless Moe Drabowsky of the Athletics.

LOST SOME LUSTER

New York-UP-The U. S. Golf Association Friday detracted a small amount of luster from Julius Boros' recent U.S. Open triumph. Upon checking its records, the association found that Boros was not, after all, the oldest player to win the Open. The distinction still belongs to England's Ted Ray, who was 26 days older than Boros in comparative age on the day of victory.

Cards Place Three On All-Star Team

By FRED DOWN New York-UP-The St. Louis Cardinals placed three members of their brilliant infield on the National league all-star team today while pinstriped Albie Pearson of the Los Angeles Angels was picked to replace ailing New York Yankee slugger Mickey Mantle on the American league squad.

First-baseman Bill White, shortstop Dick Groat and third-baseman Ken Boyer of the Cardinals were named to the NL starting team which also will include second-baseman Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates, centerfielder Willie Mays and catcher Ed Bailey of the San Francisco Giants, leftfielder Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers and rightfielder Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves.

The AL squad, with Pearson replacing Mantle in a unique "double vote," will open with the Yankees' Joe Pepitone at first base, Nelson Fox of the Chicago White Sox at second, Zolo Versalles of the Minnesota Twins at shortstop and Frank Malzone of the Boston Red Sox at third.

The AL outfield will be manned by Pearson in center, the Angels' Lew Wagner in left and the Detroit Tigers' Al Kaline in right. Earl Batley of the Twins will be the catcher. The Angels and Twins are the only teams with more than one starter in the AL lineup.

The selections were made in league-wide balloting of the players, who were forbidden to vote for players on their own teams, and announced by baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. This year's All-Star game - there will be only one this year as opposed to two in each of the last four years - will be played in massive Cleveland Stadium, July 9.

The pitching selections will be made by rival managers Alvin Dark of the NL and Ralph Houk of the AL, a few days before the game.

8 National Champs in AAU Track

Eugene - Half a dozen national AAU champions and a pair of NCAA titlists head up the field which will compete July 3-4 in the Oregon AAU track and field championships at Hayward field.

Preliminaries will be run Wednesday starting at 6:30 p.m. with finals in all 19 events scheduled for Thursday starting at 1:30 p.m.

AAU titlists set to perform are Ullis Williams in the 440, Dyrrol Burleson in the mile, Brian Sternberg in the pole vault, Ralph Boston in the broad jump, Dave Davis in the shot put and Gene Johnson in the high jump.

In addition, meet director Bob Newland, has lined up 1963 NCAA champs Lew Hoyt in the high jump and Julio Marin who captured both the three-mile and six-mile at Albuquerque. Sternberg and Williams were also NCAA winners this year.

Feature events figure to be the mile, 440, high jump and broad jump. The mile matches Burleson, former Oregon track great, against Cary Weisiger, Jim Grelle and Archie San Romani in a race that could well produce a sub four-minute clocking.

In the 440, it's another renewal of the personal battle between Williams and world record holder Adolph Plummer, who established the current world standard of 44.9 this spring.

The high jump field has Johnson, Hoyt, Paul Stuber, second in the AAU and third at the NCAA meet, and Oregon's tiny Terry Llewellyn.

Boston tangles with Phil Shinnick of Washington in the broad jump with Darrel Horn and Charles Moseley ready to step in if either falters.

Softballers Rained Out On Friday

Shrine Football Office Opened

Portland - Headquarters for the 18th annual Shrine's hospital all-star football game, scheduled for Aug. 17 in Multnomah stadium, have been opened at 1119 Southwest Park ave., with Mrs. Jo Ryan again in charge.

The game pits the state's outstanding senior high school players of last year against each other on a State versus Metropolitan basis. The rival 27-man squads will report here Aug. 4 to begin two weeks of intensive practice.

Mrs. Ryan said that mail orders for tickets are being accepted at headquarters now. All seats are reserved at $3, $2 and $1.

Wheeler In Albany Tournament

John Wheeler Logging of Medford will enter the Albany invitational softball tournament on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 2, 3 and 4.

The Loggers were to meet Klamath Falls Chuck Wagon this afternoon at Jefferson school in final tuneup for the trip.

Wheeler's county association game slated with Southern Oregon Dry Kiln on Wednesday has been postponed. This afternoon's doubleheader is set for 1 p.m.

Derby Won By Ragusa

Dublin-UP-Ragusa, Ireland's strongest challenger in the $182,000 Irish Sweeps derby, romped to an easy two and one-half length victory in the mile and one-half classic today after Reiko, the overwhelming favorite, turned up lame at the post and was withdrawn.

Reiko, winner of the French 2,000 Guineas and the Epsom Derby, had been expected to sweep the international triple crown by winning the Irish Derby which decided sweepstakes winners throughout the world.

But the long-striding son of Tanager had to be declared out of the race by owner Francois Dupre de France shortly before the start.

Vic Mo Chroi, a nother French colt, was second two lengths ahead of Tiger, a challenger from England.

Ragusa, third in the Epsom Derby, was heavily played and closed at 100-7 in the betting. Vic Mo Chroi was a 28-1 longshot while Tiger was 18-1.
