Rosewall, Laver To Meet in Net Finals

Forest Hills, N.Y.—(UPI)—Australians Ken Rosewall and Rod Laver pounded their way into the final round of the U.S. pro tennis championships Saturday with Rosewall, the current pro king, ignoring a steady rain in posting his semi-final victory.

Southpaw Laver, rookie on this year's pro tennis tour, eliminated the last native American in the tournament when he rallied to beat Earl (Butch) Buchholz of St. Louis, Mo., 3-7, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3. Although rain preceded the start of this match, no moisture fell while it was in progress.

But rain came down steadily and often furiously after the first five games of the second match as Rosewall battled to a 6-3, 6-3, 11-9 victory over former U.S. Davis Cup Star Alex Olmedo of Peru. Rosewall and Laver will meet in the all-Aussie final today.

Schroeder Medalist in OGA; Pam Stacey Wins 1st Match

Portland—(UPI)—Stew Schroeder, formerly of Medford but now playing out of Corvallis, Friday easily won the Oregon Golf association medalist honors at Riverside Golf and Country club.

Schroeder shot his second sub-par round, a 3-under 69, to give him a two-day total of 135. Schroeder blazed a 6-under 66 on the opening day of qualifying.

Schroeder's nearest rival—Tim Berg of Rogue Valley in Medford—finished with 143—eight strokes back. Berg had a 2-under 70 Friday.

In women's match play, former champion Sue Jennett of Oswego disposed of Joan Edwards of Portland 4 and 3.

Last year's Southern Oregon winner, Pam Stacey, Medford, who qualified with an 84, stayed in contention with a 4 and 3 win over Mrs. Gordon Wolfe of Portland.

Match play in the men's division got under way Saturday.

Two other Rogue Valley golfers, Harry Millette and Mike Miller, qualified for the fourth flight. Millette shot an 80 Friday for 157 and Miller an 80 also for 157.

Dr. Bill Miller of Medford shot 83 Friday for 169 to qualify for the sixth flight.

This year's junior champion, 16-year-old Doug Olson, shot an 85 Friday for a 160 total and faced another Medford player, Dr. N. J. Wilson who had 82 for 163.

In the women's second flight Mrs. Miles Munson defeated Mrs. Bill Miller, Medford, 2 up.

American Legion Tilts Scheduled

Medford American Legion junior baseball team will aim today—weather permitting—to take over first place alone in the Southern division of Area 4. Grants Pass and Central Point Cheney Studs are to mix in a scuffle of third and fourth place teams.

Medford (6-1), sharing the top position with the Klamath Falls Falcons, is scheduled to be at Merrill for a doublebill with the Tri-City Gems (2-6). Grants Pass (5-2) and Central Point (4-3) are slated as foes in two games at Grants Pass. Klamath Falls Hawks (3-5) are slated to be at Ashland (0-8).

Game times are 1:30 p. m. with first tussles of doubleheaders counting in the standing. The threat of rain showers hangs over the schedule.

Despite a holiday being celebrated this week will not lack for junior Legion encounters.

Medford-CP on Monday
Medford and Central Point, rained out on Friday, have a non-league date at 8 p. m. Monday at the fairgrounds ball park here.

Medford and the Klamath Falls Falcons will be involved in a tourney with North Salem and Albany on Wednesday and Thursday at Klamath Falls.

In league games Grants Pass will meet Tri-City at Merrill on Thursday, Ashland and the CP Studs are adversaries on Friday and Grants

Public Indifference To Death Toll Cited
Salem—(UPI)—Gov. Mark Hatfield Friday criticized public apathy and indifference to the state's mounting traffic death toll.

Hatfield, in a press release, noted that the traffic death toll is 30.3 per cent ahead of last year, and said if the present trend continues more than 600 lives may be lost in traffic accidents this year.

Pass faces the Falcons at Klamath Falls on Saturday. Ashland entertains Brookings in a non-league twilight game on Saturday.

In the KF tournament Medford will meet North Salem at 7 p. m. on Wednesday with the Falcons and Albany the rivals in the second game of a doubleheader. Medford will be matched with Albany in the 1 p. m. Thursday tussle. Then the Falcons will take on North Salem.

If Medford is able to play today Bill Enyart is expected to get first pitching call. For the Studs Wayne Clay is the choice for the counting game at Grants Pass.

July 8 has been set as tentative date for make up of Friday's rained out scrap.

Baseball Great Taken By Death

Trappe, Md.—(UPI)—The last of Connie Mack's famed $100,000 infield is dead.

Frank (Home Run) Baker, who earned his nickname by hitting nine home runs for the 1911 Philadelphia Athletics in the era of the "dead ball," died Friday at his home here at the age of 77.

Baker, who was voted into baseball's Hall of Fame in 1955, played third base with Mack's A's from 1908 to 1914, forming the $100,000 infield with Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins and Jack Barry under manager Mack.

The New York Yankees purchased Baker's contract from the A's after the 1916 season and he helped form their original "Murderers Row" in 1921 with Babe Ruth, Wally Pipp, Roger Peckinpaugh and Bob Meusel. Baker called it a career after the 1922 season.

His lifetime batting average was .308 for 13 years in the big leagues and only 93 home runs—considered substandard for a slugger in today's age of the lively ball. His career high came in 1913 when he hit 12 homers.
