

Doyle-Rausch Rites Held

Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Richard Doyle Jr., wed in a ceremony June 22, are to return today from a southern California honeymoon. They will live at 311 Howard street, Medford.

The bride is the former Miss Virginia Rose Rausch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rausch, 3061 Table Rock road, Medford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Doyle, 531 Apple street, Medford.

The Rev. John Ilg celebrated the 6 o'clock evening mass and officiated for the wedding ceremony held in Sacred Heart Catholic church.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta was designed with a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The scalloped sweet heart neckline was embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant petal skirt was of lace over tulle with lace appliques accented by sequins and pearls. Her pure silk illusion fingertip veil was held from a queen's crown embroidered with pearls and sequins highlighted with rhinestones. The bride's bouquet was of red roses and white carnations which she placed on the side altar following the ceremony.

Miss Anita Johnson, Halstead, Kan., a cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant and Mrs. Paul Brugato, Shelton, Wash., was bridesmaid for her sister, Miss Jennifer Espey was the bridesmaid.

Their gowns were of mint green brocade made with scoop necklines and bell skirts. They wore matching green veiled hats and carried nosegays of red roses and white carnations.

Donald Rausch, a brother of the bride was best man and seating the guests were Mr. Brugato and Michael Moore.

Groomsmen were George Doyle, Yreka, a brother of the bridegroom, and Francis Murphy.

The church and altars were decorated with red and white gladioli and the pew ends were marked with the same flowers.

Bruno Pellegrini played the organ music.

About 200 guests attended the wedding ceremony and 150 were at the reception given by the bride's parents in the Knights of Columbus hall. A buffet supper was served and dancing was a diversion of the evening. Bouquets of roses and wedding bells decorated the hall.

Special guests at the wedding and reception were Mrs. Angela Keiper, Colwich, Kan., grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Nancy Weitzel, Yreka, Calif., grandmother of the bridegroom.

During the reception Mrs. Robert Doyle, Yreka, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Dottie Bilderbach, poured the punch. Mrs. Thomas Hora served the coffee and the Misses Ramona Rausch, a sister of the bride, Sherry and Beth Hall and Diane Maehren, had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Jerome Maehren and Mrs. Vernon Hall served the cake, and Miss Sharon Walters registered the guests.

Kathy, Christine and Cynthia Bateman distributed packets of rice.

The bride, now a student at Medford Beauty school, attended St. Mary's High school and Medford High school. The bridegroom attended Canyonville schools and is with the prod. department of Safeway, Inc.

For traveling the bride chose a beige suit with yellow accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Elmer Schonecker, aunt of the bride, and sons, Michael and Rodger, Tacoma, Wash.; Michael and Joanne Brugato, nephew and niece of the bride, Shelton, and Robert Doyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James Alley

Alley-Atkins Rites Of Interest Here

A wedding of interest here was held recently at First Methodist church in Mt. Vernon, Wash., when Miss Janice Jane Atkins of that city became the bride of Thomas James Alley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Alley, 124 Greenway circle, Medford. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Atkins.

The Rev. Carroll Sprague officiated at the rites held June 15 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Baskets of orchid gladioli and white snapdragons decorated the church and the center aisle. Harold Fisher was organist and Henry Leander was soloist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white silk fashioned with fitted bodice, elbow length sleeves and full skirt with matching roses at the waistline in back. The cathedral length train was of Chantilly lace and appliques of the lace were on the bodice. Her veil was of tiers of English tulle and fell from a taffeta and Alencon lace pillbox hat which was edged with seedpearls with a single pearl drop in the front. She carried white gardenias and stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Janice Hermanson was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Mary McElraith, Miss Karen Montgomery and Miss Janet Hanson. They wore frocks of nylon orquandy in lilac color over taffeta fashioned with belled skirts. Miss Hermanson carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations and gardenias and the other attendants' bouquets were of carnations.

Miss Darcy Gearhart, Mt. Vernon, and Miss Nancy Roloff, Vallejo, Calif., sorority sisters of the bride, were candlelighters. They wore white linen sheath dresses with matching accessories and corsages of white rosebuds and lavender lace.

Gerald Fanger, Tacoma, Wash., served as best man for his cousin. Seating the guests were Dale Smith, Medford; N. K. Potter Jr., Los Altos, Calif.; and Dr. Richard H. Alley, Pasadena, Calif., brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Atkins chose a silk crepe dress of antique gold color with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Alley wore a rose-beige silk chiffon dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids. Orchid colored gladioli and white snapdragons decorated the rooms at the church where the reception was held. A lei of vanda orchids, sent from Hawaii by sorority sisters of the bride, encircled the punch bowl.

Reception Held In charge of the reception were Mrs. Gordon Hermanson and Mrs. R. B. Plummer. Miss Marilyn Fanger and Miss Sara Sprause cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Pouring were Mrs. Douglas Atkins, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. John Bellach, Eugene, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Marilyn Sandall, Miss Darcy Palmer and Miss Linda Sundred, also sorority sisters of the bride, served punch and Miss Mary Lee Clark, Medford, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple traveled to southern California on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pink silk sleeveless sheath dress with matching coat and hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of phalaenopsis orchids. They are making their home at 1004 South Holly street.

The bride attended the University of Oregon and will continue her studies at Southern Oregon college. She is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. Mr. Alley attended the University of Oregon and was graduated from Menlo Men's college, Menlo Park, Calif.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Golden, Medford; Mrs. Alma Engbertson, Santa Monica, Calif., grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Alley, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Gausman, and daughter, Sue, and Miss Jean Gansert, all Los Angeles.
