

Mrs. Gerald Marvin Zeedar

Zeedar-Colbaugh Rites Of Interest in Valley

News of interest to valley residents is the recent marriage of Miss Carol Joy Colbaugh, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. Wildon Colbaugh, formerly of Medford and now of Springfield, Mo., and Gerald Marvin Zeedar. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Zeedar, Youngsville, Pa.

The 8 o'clock evening ceremony was read June 11 by the bride's father in the Central Assembly of God church, Springfield, Mo. Assisting was the Rev. J. R. Ashcroft, president of Evangel college.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with basque bodice trimmed with reembrodered Venice lace. The bouffant skirt was designed with panels and a short train. Her elbow length veil was held by a crown of pearls and crystals and she carried a white Duchess rose on a white Bible.

Miss Phyllis Colbaugh attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Helen Waggoner, New Town, N.D., Miss Virginia Higgins, Tulsa, Okla., and Miss Carlene Hallgrimson, O'Neil, Neb.

Gowns of Green

All wore similar dresses of nile green silk organza and peau de soie. The long controlled belted skirts extended from high empire waistlines and the backs were designed in a bustle effect. Each attendant carried a Duchess Happiness rose.

Best man was Wayne Klemms, Chico, Calif. Ushers were Keith Colbaugh, brother of the bride, Dwight Colbaugh, a cousin, and William Zancochio.

Mrs. Colbaugh wore a pink silk shantung jacket dress with bone accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a mint green suit. Both wore ivory cymbidium orchid corsages.

Miss Gwen Jones was organist, and the Rev. William Adams, Olean, N.Y., sang. Mrs. Lloyd Colbaugh, aunt of the bride, also furnished songs and Miss Jane DeLange, violinist and Miss Connie Bernet, cellist played duets.

Debbie Colbaugh, a cousin of the bride, and Phillip Colbaugh, a brother, lighted the candles.

The reception was held in the Hogan room of the church. Following their wedding trip the couple is living at 1610 North Washington street, Springfield, Mo.

The bride attended Medford High school and was graduated from Beaverton High school. She is a graduate of Evangel college in Springfield and next fall will be musical instructor at Fair Play, Mo., in both the elementary and high schools.

Evening Ceremony Weds Pair

Ashland - In an evening ceremony at the First Methodist church June 14, Miss Alene Kay Moore became the bride of Ronald Edward Scholer. Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond officiated at the single ring rites witnessed by more than 80 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Moore, Star Route, Ashland, are parents of the bride. Mr. Scholer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Scholer, 800 Liberty street.

The bride's ballerina length frock of lace over white satin was worn with a short veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her attendants, Miss Sandra Hamilton, maid of honor, and Mrs. Alyene Moses and Miss Sandra Scholer, bridesmaids, wore pastel short formal gowns and orchid corsages.

Mr. Moore escorted his daughter to the altar which was banked with baskets of pink and white garden flowers. The bridegroom's brother, Donald Scholer, served as best man and his uncles, Dean and David Dunson, were the ushers.

Mrs. Colleen Lewis was the vocal soloist for the service accompanied by Mrs. Glenn S. Taylor, who also played the wedding organ music.

Following the church ceremony the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a reception at their home on Liberty street.

Mrs. Scholer was a member of this year's Ashland High school graduating class and her husband is a 1962 AHS graduate. He is employed by Parsons Pine Products in Ashland.

After a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and Reno they are at home in an apartment at 580 Siskiyou boulevard.

Style Revue Won by Miss Deppen

Yreka - Miss Sharon Deppen of the Etna 4-H club was winner of the 1963 Dress Revue held recently in the new Yreka High school gymnasium. Chosen alternate county winner was Miss Jan Desoza, Grenada.

Eighty-two girls from 15 4-H clubs modeled clothing they had made the past year as 4-H projects. Approximately 150 parents and friends attended the revue.

As top winner, Miss Deppen will represent Siskiyou county in the State Dress Revue at Davis in August. This year for the first time the dress revue winner and alternate were given cash awards presented by the J. C. Penney company.

Making the presentations of $15 to Miss Deppen and $10 to Miss Desoza was William Huel, assistant manager of the Yreka Penney's store.

Pins Awarded
Ten girls, including the two top winners, won Simplicity pins for outstanding workmanship and appearance of the clothing modeled. Names of the winners, other than Miss Deppen and Miss Desoza, will be announced and the pins awarded on 4-H Achievement day in November.

A white fence centered with an archway and trellis entwined with red roses, large white baskets of mixed spring flowers and pink lawn furniture decorated the stage for the style show.

Judges were Mrs. Alice Scarborough, Mrs. Cleo Hunt and Mrs. Jare Dyer, all of Shasta county.

Mistress of ceremonies was Miss Kay Zediker of the Big Springs 4-H club and commentators for the revue were Miss Elizabeth Dudley, Etna, and Miss Merrilee Morgan, Big Springs, last year's county winner and alternate, respectively.

Pianists who played during the revue were Miss Debbie Silva, Willow Creek; Miss Milly Miller, Big Springs, and Miss Ronda Eller, Grenada.

Mrs. Joe Eller, Grenada, and Mrs. Norman Shaw, Table Rock, were adult cochairman for the evening. Etna 4-H leaders were in charge of decorations.

Bride's Father Reads Roberts-Ralls Service

Central Point - When Miss Lois Jane Ralls became the bride of Leonard Lyle Roberts June 21, the ceremony was performed in the Country Church of Four Corners of which her father is the minister. The bride is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Ernest E. Ralls, 52nd Table Rock road and the Rev. Mr. Ralls performed the ceremony.

The bridegroom, now stationed at the Oakland, Calif., Navy base, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Maywood, Mo.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock in the evening.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath styled floor length gown of dacron organza over taffeta with fitted bodice and scoop neckline. The detachable overskirt had controlled fullness in a modified bell shape and was fastened at the front with a self-material bow. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil. The bride also wore a pin which had belonged to her great-grandmother and which was pinned on her bridal gown by her grandmother Mrs. Edith Ross, who came from Paramount, Calif., for the ceremony. The bride's bouquet was a white orchid with white rosebuds which she carried on a white Bible.

Mrs. Russell Sinclair, Bellflower, Calif., a sister of the bride was the honor attendant. Her sheath gown was of blue silk organza with detachable overskirt and her flowers were white gladioli.

Rebekah Twedell, Ashland, a niece, was flower girl and ring bearer was Connie Keener, Medford.

Lighting the candles were the Misses Linda and Joann Sinclair, Bellflower, who wore matching blue silk organza sheath dresses with white carnation wristlets.

Conrad Twedell, Ashland, a brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man and seating the guests were Gary and Joe Meade, Central Point. Bryan Twedell, Ashland, a nephew, escorted the bride's mother and grandmother to their pew.

Baskets of white gladioli decorated the church and pew ends were marked with blue bows.

Three Sing
Mrs. Twedell, a sister, furnished the organ music and solos were sung by J. W. Nilsen, Fred DeVos and Mrs. Robert Martin.

About 80 guests attended the ceremony and the reception given by the bride's parents in the church annex. Mrs. Ellis Meade cut the cake and Mrs. LeRoy Fellows poured the punch. Marilyn Sinclair, a niece of the bride, registered the guests, and Anita Sinclair, another niece had charge of gifts. Deborah Twedell, a niece, distributed bags of rice.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a two-piece beige flow-
