

Preparations for a workshop series on economic foreign aid legislation were made at a meeting of the board of Medford League of Women Voters last week. Mrs. F. H. Bogard (center) is chairman and also working on the project are Miss Clara Hinze (at left) and Mrs. L. C. Jensen.

Medford League Plans Foreign Aid Workshop

A workshop to study foreign economic aid legislation now before Congress will be held by the League of Women Voters of Medford in July. Four sessions will be held in the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County on Tuesdays, July 9, 16, 23 and 30 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The group plans to discuss assets and limitations of the proposed solutions to problems of foreign aid and to review the history of League support of foreign economic assistance. Support for the principle of international cooperation goes back more than 40 years, to the earliest days of the League, according to local president, Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, Gold Hill. In the '20s the women of the non-partisan voters group rejected isolation and proclaimed their recognition of the fact that nations are mutually interdependent. They also recognized the essential relationship between economic health and security of other countries and the United States. Mrs. Frank Bogard is chairman of the Medford League study. Others working on the committee in charge of the workshop include Miss Clara Hinze, Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, Mrs. Hugh Collins, Mrs. L. C. Jensen, Mrs. Victor King, Mrs. R. L. Bosworth and Mrs. Kellogg.

Move

Prospect—Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and children, formerly of this community, have returned after making their home for the past two years in Eagle Point. They are living along the Red Blanket road.

Visit Relatives

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Ardon Burns spent three days last week in San Pablo, Calif., with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. William Paulsen and three children.

High Noon Ceremony Weds Pair

Ashland—In a high noon ceremony June 8 in Trinity Episcopal church, Patricia L. Roach and Ronald A. Sjolander exchanged marriage vows. The Rev. Duane Alvord officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Roach, 1455 Bieber street. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Sjolander, Salem. He is a graduate of Oregon State college and his wife received her degree from Southern Oregon college.

In the wedding group were Miss Karen Thomas, Ashland, maid of honor, and Terry Cosette, Alameda, Calif., a fraternity brother of the bridegroom who served as best man. Guests were seated by Terry Sjolander of Salem, the bridegroom's brother, and Mr. Roach gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a sheer white wool suit with fur collar and small veiled hat. Her accessories were white and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses. Miss Thomas wore a honey beige knit sheath with matching accessories and carried a small bouquet of roses.

A yellow and white theme accented with coral was used in altar decorations of garden flowers. Kenneth Brew, Central Point, brother-in-law of the bride, was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Glenn Taylor.

A luncheon for the family and wedding group was given at the home of the bride's parents before the couple left for southern California where they will live.

Scott Valley Hosts Members Of Yreka Group

Yreka—Siskiyou chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, were the guests of the Scott Valley members for its June meeting in Etna. The meeting was held at the Congregational church.

The flower arrangements were of red roses and white peonies.

Following the singing of the National anthem Mrs. Lawrence Lichens read an article about Marian Anderson singing at Constitution hall in Washington, D. C. Persons of all nationalities attend the programs.

An article on national defense from "The Defender" was read. A collection was taken for the memorial fund and also for "Pennies for Pines."

The program consisted of the showing of slides of Hawaii, including sugar cane and pineapple fields and cattle ranches.

There will be no further meetings of the society until September.

Townsend Club To Hold Luncheon Today

A potluck luncheon at noon in Hawthorne park is scheduled for today by the Mt. Pitt chapter, Townsend club. Club members are reminded to take their own table service. Earl Barnes of Ashland is the club chairman. Arrangements will be made at today's meeting for the Fourth District council meeting to be held in Medford Sunday, July 14.

Art Techniques Program Topic For Society

Jack Teeters spoke on painting techniques before Southern Oregon Society of Artists when they met recently. He explained that the media used, the surfaces on which they are applied and the tools all affect an artist's work.

Glenn Scott opened the meeting with a demonstration of visual balanced palette which he uses in painting portraits. All colors used start with the three primary colors and he mixes these to create six different colors and shades for all his portraits, he explained.

Clifford Platz, former Medford artist now of Portland, has been invited to exhibit work at the Medford Greenwich Village Art show to be held in the West Main street City park, Saturday, July 13, it was announced.

Paintings to be on display at the Medford and Jackson County Public Library during July are by Mrs. Afton Carter, Mrs. Joan Bayer, Harry Marx, Mrs. Donna Francis, Mrs. Viola Moore, Mrs. Arlita Pletsch and Mrs. Ruby Twedell.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Evelyn Jenne, Mrs. Sadie Coghill and Mrs. Donna Lantis.

Rock Slides To Be Shown At Senior Activity Center

Chester Fitch, retired fruit grower and long time member of the Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral society, will show colored slides at the Senior Activity center Monday, July 1, at 1 p.m.

Instead of travel films, this showing will be slides made by mounting thin slices of polished native rock and then projected on the screen.

The color, form, and individual design of the heart of the many kinds of rock formations are said to often appear as scenes.

All interested are invited to attend the weekly programs at the center, 601 East Jackson street, each of which is different.

Last week, three out of state guests attended the showing of a trip to the Scandinavian countries by Vernon Rasmussen, two from North Dakota and one from New York state.

Dr. Frank Roberts was back, greeting arrivals after an absence of several months. His committee, Mrs. Karl
