Who Needs the Fourth of July?

No pyrotechnical display
Can equal Father any day
I use his new shaver to clip the poodle
Or mash a fender which costs a boodle;
Or when Rover varies stodgy fare
By sampling filet of mailman, rare;
Or when "tomcat Sam," a feline wag,
Has her kittens in Pop's bowling bag—
Then come the explosions, loud and gay!
It's better than fireworks any day!

—Ethel Jacobson

When a fellow tells a girl that he is mad, crazy, insane about her—she thinks he is finally talking sense.

BECKWARD

"Don't ever stop suddenly like that—you startled me!"

Most serious accidents in the home are falls, burns, and slips of the tongue.

—Franklin P. Jones

A middle-aged but obviously vigorous gentleman saw a group of teen-agers idling in the shade of a tree. He immediately launched into a lecture on the poor physical condition of today's youth and the need for a more strenuous life.

"Why, look at me," he said. "In top health at 55—never had a day's illness. Hard work, simple food, no late hours. For 30 years I was in bed at 9, up at 5, worked until noon, then a Spartan lunch, and back to work..."

"Say," asked one teen-ager, "what did they send you up for?"

—F. G. Kernan

KILLER!

(OF FLIES AND MOSQUITOES, THAT IS)

There are over 275,000 insects in every back yard . . . walking, flying, leaping, swimming, boring. They're buzzing, crawling, stinging, biting, eating your barbecued hamburger, drowning in your iced tea, taking the fun out of outdoor living.

And you?

Well, you can swat, swear, suffer . . . hide indoors

Or . . .

use a BVI INSECT FOGGER. Takes but a minute—your outdoor living area remains bug-free for hours.

Just fill the container of the BVI INSECT FOGGER with ordinary oil-based insecticide. When you pull the trigger, a built-in electric pump forces insecticide through the atomizing nozzle into a heated fog-producing chamber. The heat vaporizes the insecticide and a thick fog surges from the end of the barrel. As the fog spreads through the air and rolls over the ground, it kills insects on contact! You can occupy the fogged areas immediately, but the insect-killing effect lasts for many hours. The barrel is easily detachable, converting unit into an effective sprayer for applying water-base garden sprays, weed killers and similar liquids. Just $34.95* wherever garden products are sold.
