

Myers, Smith, Salade, Gordenier Claim State Jaycee Net Crowns

Naumes, Rasmussen Tourney Runnersup

Roseburg —UPI— Eight Oregon junior tennis players won trips to the National Junior Chamber of Commerce tournament at the Oregon State Jaycee tournament here Sunday.

They are Dave Shuford and Craig Cooley, Salem; Kathy Smith, Ken Myers, Mary Gordenier and Jeanne Salade, all of Medford, and Sherry Sewall and Bob McKee, Roseburg.

Shuford won the junior men's title with a 6-1, 6-0 decision over Mike Naumes, Medford. Cooley defeated Ted Brown, Albany, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3 for the boys' title.

Miss Smith swept past Beth Kenward of Portland, 6-1, 6-0, to take the junior women's title and Miss Sewall topped Jill Izett, Springfield, for the girls' championship, 6-3, 6-4.

Uphill Battle

In novice competition, McKee went three sets before beating Nick Rasmussen, Medford, for the junior men's title; Myers fought an uphill battle to beat Mike McKay, Albany, in the boys' division, 6-6, 7-5, 6-3; Miss Gordenier defeated Katie Logan, Salem, 6-1, 6-0 for the girls' title, and Miss Salade defeated Pat Byrne, Springfield, 6-3, 7-5 in the junior women's class.

The national tournament will be held at Provo, Utah, July 14-20.

Myers was down 2-5 and match point before catching fire to defeat McKay in the tourney which saw Medford take four championships and two runnersup places. McKee beat Rasmussen by 4-6, 8-6, 6-3.

One Match Each

On his way to the final Myers won from T. Childers, Beaverton, 6-0, 6-1 and T. Gardiner, Roseburg, 6-3, 6-3. Miss Smith was victor over Epps, Hillsboro, 6-2, 6-2, and LeBeau, Roseburg, 6-0, 6-0.

Misses Gordenier and Salade each played only the one match.

Naumes defeated Chip Harris, Portland, 3-6, 6-1, 6-4, and Don Harris, Roseburg, 6-4, 6-3, to reach the finals. Rasmussen defeated R. Wentworth, Albany, 6-1, 6-0, and L. Kastor, Beaverton, 8-6, 6-2, before playing McKee.

In the boys' open A. T. Highland Medford, beat Tim Cole, Klamath Falls, 6-2, 6-6, and lost to eventual champion Cooley, 6-1, 7-5. Sue Naumes, Medford, defeated Hananishi, Ontario, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2 and lost to Miss Izett 6-3, 7-5, in the girls' open.

West Tops East 22-21

Buffalo, N. Y. —UPI— The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football league apparently grabbed a potential star when they drafted Southern California's Bill Nelsen.

Nelsen, quarterback of the 1962 national champion Trojans coached by John McKay, played all but 35 seconds in directing the West to a 22-21 conquest over the East before 20,840 War Memorial Stadium spectators watching in 80-degree-plus weather Saturday night.

The steady signal caller accounted for 162 yards in the air, fired two touchdown passes to Washington State end Hugh Campbell and found time to reel off several clutch runs when yardage was needed.

But Campbell won the battling as the game's most valuable player on the strength of his eight catches for 108 yards and two touchdowns.

Weather Postpones Dairy Maids' Games

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids softball games scheduled at Salem on Saturday night were postponed because of wet weather. July 21 was tentatively set as makeup date.

Jim Hall Provides Muscle In Twins 7th Straight Win

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the muscular Minnesota Twins apparently have developed a new muscle.

He's rookie Jimmie Hall, and as far as their American league rivals are concerned the Twins need him like Sony Liston needs karate.

The Twins have reeled off seven straight victories, including Sunday's 6-2 win over the Washington Senators in a drive that has carried them to within 2½ games of the first-place Yankees. They've done it with power — personified mostly by Bob Allison, Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey — but given impetus in his last few games by the 25-year-old Hall from Mt. Holly, N. C.

Hall slammed a three-run homer and two singles Sunday, giving him seven hits in his last nine at-bats and enabling relief pitcher Mike Fornieles to pick up his first victory of the year. The Twins have been traveling at a 32-12, 727 clip since mid-May when they were in ninth place.

Yanks Pad Lead

The Yankees lengthened their AL lead to two full games when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2 and 11-4, the Detroit Tigers shaded the Los Angeles Angels, 6-5, the Chicago White Sox won, 4-0, after an 8-4 loss to the Cleveland Indians, and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 4-3, after a 3-1 loss in other American league games.

Hall's homer climaxed a five-run third inning rally during which John Goryl doubled and Zoilo Versalles had his first loss compared with three victories.

Yogi Berra's three-run homer gave the Yankees their opening game victory and the world champions took the nightcap with the aid of the steady five inning relief pitching of Bill Kunkel, who won his second game. Roger Maris and Joe Pepitone homered for the Yankees in the nightcap.

LA Angels' Loss Not Wagner's Fault

Detroit —UPI— The Angels' move to break into the American league's first division is a stop-an-go operation, but hardly the fault of one Leon Wagner.

The all-star left fielder Sunday smacked a home run and double good for three runs batted in — as Los Angeles lost 6-3 to the Detroit Tigers on a ninth inning home run by Dick McAuliffe.

Wagner has a .351 batting average, tops for both leagues, and the American league leading RBI total of 57. His 19 home runs tie him for the league lead in that department with Bob Allison of the Minnesota Twins.

Three-Way Deadlock at Cleveland

Cleveland —UPI— Tony Lema, who sank a pressure putt; Arnold Palmer, who missed one; and Tommy Aaron, who birdied four holes in a row, met today in a playoff for the $22,000 first place money in the Cleveland Open golf tournament.

In the closest and most pressure-packed tournament in PGA history, they tied for first place with 11-under-par totals of 273 Sunday over the sun-baked and heat-seared Beechmont Country club course.

There were actually 12 players in contention in the fourth round, but one by one they fell by the wayside until Lema and Palmer, who led most of the way, charged to the wire to tie Aaron.

Julius Boros, U. S. Open winner, finished with a 10-under-par 274.

He tied for fourth place with Burke and Sammy Snead. They were one stroke off the pace at 274.

Then came Jack Nicklaus, who birdied the last hole for a 275 to pick up $3,450.

Behind him at 276 came Gary Player, former Masters champion Art Wall and Don January.

PRALL TIPS SCHROEDER IN OGA TILT; STACEY SEMIFINALIST

Portland —UPI— Bob Prall of Salem defeated medalist Stew Schroeder, Corvallis (formerly of Medford), 2 and 1 Sunday to reach the semifinals of the Oregon Golf Association's match play tournament at Riverside.

The victory avenged a defeat handed Prall by Schroeder in the finals of the 1961 Southern Oregon tournament.

Prall defeated Mickey Shaw 5 and 4 in a Sunday morning match, and met Chuck Fisk of Columbia-Edgewater in a 36-hole semifinal today.

Defending champ Dick Price of Longview faced Virg Mitchell of Portland in the other semifinal.

Price defeated Leighton Tuttle 2 and 1 on the 20th hole and Jerry Cundari 2 and 1.

Women were idle Sunday. Sunday Mitchell defeated Bob Nordquist 3 and 2 and Bob McReynolds 1-up.

Stiner Versus Stacey Sue Jennett of Lake Oswego played Mrs. R. L. Borst in one semifinal and Mrs. Lon

Stiner Jr. played Pam Stacey of Medford in the other today.

On Saturday, Schroeder defeated Bruce Cudd 2 and 1.

Dick Barrett of Portland took care of 1950 winner Dick Yost of Portland 2-up and last year's runnerup and two-time winner, Don Krieger of Portland, was ousted by Virg Mitchell of Riverside 4 and 3.

George Beecher, Prineville, was defeated by Tuttle 6 and 4. Beecher was the 1955 title winner.

Miss Jennett took a 1-up over Mrs. Richard Grubbs of Portland.

Miss Stacey defeated Mary Wolfe of Portland 2 and 1.

Mrs. Stiner was a 3 and 1 winner over Mrs. Robert Gill of Portland. Mrs. Borst won over Mrs. Henry Stepp, Portland, 3 and 1.

In fourth flight quarterfinals yesterday Jim West def. Harry Millette of Rogue Valley 5-4. In sixth flight Don Cameron def. Doug Olson of Medford on the 22nd hole.

Yakima Pitcher Comes Close

By United Press International
If you want to know how it feels to come, talk to Ron Herr.

The 23-year-old Yakima righthander pitched eight and two-thirds innings of no-hit ball Sunday night as he led the Bears to a 4-1 victory over Tri-City Angels in a Northwest league baseball game.

He had a count of no balls and two strikes on Ernie Foll with two out in the ninth when Foll lined a single to center, ruining the bid for a no-hitter. Brown Taylor followed Foll to the plate and singled to right and Charlie Strange was safe on an error, allowing the Angels' only run to score.

Newspaper Advertising
...It's Not an Intrusion!

People really want newspaper advertising and have said so. Surveys usually show well over 80% in favor of newspaper advertising; less than 70% for magazines; and under 40% in favor of advertising on radio and TV.

Your advertising's first job is to win a friendly feeling for your product. It stands to reason you will win more friends by running your advertising where most people want it.

If you want to sell more people you have to reach them when they are receptive. Newspapers reach more of the most receptive people.
