

Studs Split With Mock Ford, Play Medford at White City

Grants Pass - Grants Pass Mock Ford took firmer hold on third place in the Southern division of Area 4 American Legion junior baseball here yesterday by defeating the Central Point Cheney Studs 7 to 4 in the opener of a doubleheader.

Central Point won the non-counting second game 6 to 1. A first inning onslaught turned the trick for the Studs in the league game. They surged for six runs. Don Summers and Pete Hardin each singled in two runs. Bill Standley and Bob Peters also got hits. There were two bases on balls, a passed ball and a groundout and the Studs' only error of the fray.

Larry Mason checked a one-hitter for the Studs in the second tilt.

for the Studs with Neal Ellis to be available for relief. Coach Cliff McLean reported that all-star Stuart Young will be the Medford twirler.

The Studs and the Medfords have produced some of the top rivalry in Legion ball during the past several years with games generally close. There have been a number of extra inning conflicts and the outcome is considered a loss-up when the two clubs take the field.

Medford won the previous fray this season 3 to 0. It drew the top crowd of the season for Legion ball in this vicinity.

Grants Pass is now 5-2 in the standings and Central Point holds fourth spot with 4-4.

Tweedell Triples
The Cheney's picked up two of their runs in the second inning of yesterday's opener on an error. Dave Tweedell's triple and Howard Tomlinson's sacrifice flyout. The other two came in the second inning on hits by Luis Alvarez, Darryl Summerfield and Neal Ellis, an error and a stolen base. Alvarez advanced on the error and got to third base when he escaped a GP rundown try on the play.

Central Point Cheney Studs will host the Medford American Legion junior baseball team in an 8 o'clock non-league game at Memorial field, White City, this evening. It will be the second meeting of the season between the two clubs. A Sunday story inadvertently and erroneously listed the wrong site for the game.

Colts Treat Foe Cold In Sunday Night Encounter

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Houston Colts have taken Sunday night major league baseball like they invented it—which, as a matter of fact, they did.

The Colts' National League rivals agreed that it's too hot to play on Sunday afternoons, but they never anticipated the cold treatment they'd get in the cool of the Texas evening.

The Colts inaugurated Sunday night ball in the majors June 9 with a 3-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants. They made it two in a row Sunday night with a 1-0 win over the St. Louis Cardinals—giving them a perfect 2-0 mark and a string of 18 consecutive scoreless innings in Sunday night competition.

Hal Brown, a 38-year-old right-hander who hasn't won another game all season, scored both the Sunday night victories—pitching 6 1/2 innings in relief of Dick Farrell on June 9 and going the distance this time with a seven-hitter.

The Colts scored the game's only run in the fourth inning when Howie Goss doubled and tallied on John Bateman's single. Lew Burdette, ex-Milwaukee ace, yielded nine hits in six innings and suffered his seventh loss against seven victories.

Braves Blank Dodgers
The Milwaukee Braves whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-0, the San Francisco Giants topped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-3, the Philadelphia Phillies nipped the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the New York Mets, 3-0, in the other National League games.

Tony Cloninger pitched a two-hitter and Hank Aaron hit his 22nd homer of the season for the Braves, who dealt rookie Nick Willitte his second loss. Roy McMillan also homered for the Braves. Cloninger retired 17 batters in order after a first-inning single by Jim Gilliam, didn't walk a batter and faced only 28 men during the game. He stands 4-4 for the season.

Willie Hit Homer
Willie Mays and Willie McCovey homered for the Giants, who took advantage of three Cincinnati errors to hand 13-game winner Jim

McKinley Opposes Bob Wilson

Wimbledon, Eng. - Chuck McKinley, America's chief hope for victory in the Wimbledon tennis championships, met Britain's Bobby Wilson today in the men's singles quarter-finals.

Frank Froehling, the only other Yank still alive in the men's singles, faced his toughest challenge in the tourney thus far when he opposed the seasoned Fred Stolle of Australia.

Top-seeded and favored Roy Emerson, who is shooting for the "grand slam" of the Australian, French, English and American titles, met Willie Bungert of Germany, and Christian Kuhnke, also of Germany, played second-seeded Manuel Santana of Spain in the other men's quarter-finals.

There were no women's singles on today's program.

Ken Rosewall Defeats Laver

Forest Hills, N.Y. - Ken Rosewall is making a career of beating fellow Australian Rod Laver.

The tiny king of the courts needed only 68 minutes to conquer Laver, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2, Sunday in the final of the national pro tennis championships before an estimated 5,000 at historic Forest Hills stadium.

Rosewall has earned almost $50,000 in whipping Laver 22 times in 41 matches since Rod turned pro last January. His latest victory netted him $1,400 while Laver took the runner-up purse of $1,100.

In a pro-set match to determine third-place money of $800, Earl Buchholz outlasted Alex Olmedo, 17-15.

Rosewall and Laver split an additional $800 when they downed Buchholz and Olmedo, 7-5, 10-8, 7-5, for the doubles title.

Tony Cloninger Stars in Fray

Los Angeles - UPI - Manager Bobby Bragan of the Milwaukee Braves, becoming bold on his club's pitching, tonight sends rookie Bob Sadowski against the Los Angeles Dodgers with the hope he can come close to the performance Sunday of youthful Tony Cloninger.

The 22-year-old Cloninger pitched a masterful two-hitter and the Braves capitalized on his mound performance to score a 7-0 victory over the Dodgers, their second shutout in Cloninger's pitching performance was the story of the game, and even manager Walt Alston praised his work, the Dodger skipper candidly said his club made enough mistakes to lose two or three games.

WINS CYCLE CROWN

Clarksville, Mo. - UPI - Olaf Moetus of Indianapolis, Ind., overcame Bob Parsons of La Canada, Calif., in the final 25 feet Sunday to capture the 100-kilometer national championship bicycle race. The 17-year-old Moetus thus earned the right to represent the United States in the international races in Belgium next month.

Will McCovey, Harvey Kuenn Carry Giants

San Francisco - UPI - Willie McCovey and Harvey Kuenn, who used to earn their pay for the San Francisco Giants as platoon men, rated an accolade from manager Alvin Dark as the "guys who are carrying this club."

"McCovey never used to have much of a batting average against left handed pitchers but he's doing all right now," Dark said following Sunday's 7-3 win over the Cincinnati Reds which willowy Willie triggered with a tie-breaking home run off southpaw Jim O'Toole. "And Harvey Kuenn is getting his hits. He's doing a fine job filling in for Jim Davenport at third base."

Dark added that Davenport, who is sidelined with an injured heel and sore wrist, hasn't been swinging the bat well. Kuenn collected another single Sunday and scored twice while hitting safely in his 11th straight contest.
