The Prospect Garden club again won the Richfield Civic Beautification award for the Siskiyou district for their efforts in establishing the Prospect public park. Pictured above is Mrs. F. Everett Shafer, club treasurer as she received the gold engraved redwood plaque for the group from G. J. Dunne, northwest manager for Richfield Oil Corporation. The presentation was made in Portland recently during the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc. With the plaque was a check for $50 for trees or shrubs for the park. Mrs. Shafer and Mrs. Jo Slack, were delegates at the convention. (Wall Hicks photo).

Film, Television Actor And Family In Valley

Among the interesting visitors in the valley for summer vacations are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Staley and their sons, Michael, 12 and Marc, 5. The Staleys arrived from New York City last week and will remain for a month at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Staley, at Genelec lodge on the Rogue river above Eagle Point. Mr. Staley is a film and television actor. He just completed a small role in "Fall Safe" directed by Sidney Lumet and starring Henry Fonda. Earlier he played the role of an army captain in "The Victors" which was directed by Carl Foreman and filmed in Europe. Vince Edwards, Romy Schneider, Eli Wallach and George Hamilton are in the cast, and the play is to be released in December of this year. The actor also had a bit part in "Sunday in New York" with Jane Fonda and Rod Taylor, in "Act One," a Moss Hart story directed by Dore Schary with George Hamilton, Jason Robards Jr. and played a beatnik in "The Greenwich Village Story." In television he has appeared in episodes of "The Naked City" and "The Defenders" and also in "East Side, West Side" which will be seen in September. This is a new series about a New York social worker. He has also played
