New York — (UPI) — Stocks inched ahead today with electronics making the lion's share of gains. Steels were mixed with U.S. Steel and Republic advancing slightly while Youngstown and Bethlehem shaded. Autos clung close to Monday's levels. Expulsion of Secret Police Agent Ordered

Washington — (UPI) — About 9 p.m. on April 28, a Russian-born U.S. employee in a security-sensitive job returned to his apartment in suburban Washington. As he started to enter, he heard behind him a voice from the past. It was his brother whom he had last seen 23 years ago in Russia. Thus began a story of personal terror and stolid courage which led Monday to expulsion from this country of a Soviet secret police agent masquerading as a cultural attaché at the Soviet Embassy.

The State Department demanded the "immediate departure" of attaché Gennadiy G. Sevastyanov, 33, accusing him of attempting to recruit for espionage a U.S. employee by threatening harm to his family in the Soviet Union. U.S. officials identified the federal employee only as "John." His agency was not disclosed, but was understood to be part of the intelligence complex headed up by the Central Intelligence Agency.

The voice behind him as he paused to enter his apartment was that of his brother, Volodya, who had been brought to the United States in a bizarre attempt to persuade him to spy for Russia. Volodya suggested they talk in a car he had parked in the street, but John preferred the apartment and they entered. Volodya was evasive in explaining his presence, saying it had been "arranged."

Shortly, a man entered whom Volodya introduced as "Ivan Ivanovich," his driver. The driver was in fact Sevastyanov, an agent of the Committee for State Security, or KGB, Russia's secret police, and a member of the Soviet Embassy staff since March, 1959.

John's visitors departed after arranging a further talk. When they had gone, he quickly reported the encounter to the FBI, which advised him to continue the meetings. The next two meetings were secretly photographed by FBI agents. On May 4 Volodya left for the Soviet Union. He could have been apprehended on either espionage or illegal entry charges, but U.S. officials let him go. They considered he was only a helpless tool of the KGB, probably coerced himself by threats to his family.

John, whose age and other details were kept secret to hide his identity, is about to receive U.S. citizenship.

Kennedy's European Junket Seems To Have Strengthened Allied Unity

Easing of German Fears Appears As Major Gain

Rome, Italy — (UPI) — President Kennedy's 10-day "invasion" of Western Europe appears to have increased Allied unity — for the time being — and strengthened his hand for trying to negotiate some tension-easing cold war settlement with Russia.

His major accomplishment, in the view of top aides, was in quieting German fears that his new "strategy for peace" might lead to some sort of deal with Moscow at the expense of the Allies — particularly on Berlin.

Another major gain — possibly temporary — was in stemming the drift in some NATO countries toward French President Charles de Gaulle's "go-it-alone" policy for Western Europe.

In any event, Kennedy flies home from Naples tonight convinced that his visits to Germany, England and Italy — with a sentimental sojourn in Ireland along the way — were well worth the effort and might some day be looked back on as a turning point in the struggle to reconcile East-West differences.

The key address of the trip was made last Wednesday at the Free University in West Berlin. It was an address not only to Red-encircled Berliners but to all nervous Allies suspicious of the permanence of America's commitment in Europe.

He reaffirmed in ringing terms U.S. determination to defend Berlin and all other territory in free Europe, but warned this did not mean the Allies should automatically rebuff any Soviet peace overtures.

The NATO shield against Red aggression is unyielding, he said, but "it is not enough to mark time . . . in a situation fraught with challenge, in an era of rapid change . . . Opportunities for West."

He undoubtedly was thinking, among other things, of the opportunities for the West which may arise from the ever-widening Sino-Soviet split, underlined a short time later by the Kremlin's action in expelling three Chinese Communist diplomats.

There is little doubt the Germans, always jittery lest Washington make some deal behind their backs, will need to be reassured again from time to time. But the impact his speech made was evidenced by the fact that West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder has been quoting from it liberally ever since.

Court Hears Appeal By Portland Local

Salem — (UPI) — Arguments on an appeal by Portland Local 701 of the Hoisting and Portable Engineers union from a circuit court decision that made it pay attorney's fees in the suit of a dissident member, were heard Monday by the Oregon Supreme court. Charles L. Gilbert had brought suit asking that the union be placed in the hands of a receiver and that its officers, and Business Agent P. R. Wages, be removed from office. Gunther Krause, Gilbert's attorney, argued that Local 701 was a one-man business, and charged Wages was "an absolute monarch of the hoisting and portable engineers."
