Teachers in Fight Over Civil Rights

Detroit (AP) - The National Education Association today backed a firework from the floor in an effort to pass a civil rights motion.

However, there was speculation that Southern delegates planned delaying parliamentary tactics to keep the issue from being brought to a vote.

Civil rights motion was introduced to the delegate assembly Wednesday but proponents of a strong civil rights stand called for an adjournment because their ranks were depleted by persons going to lunch. They asked the chair if a quorum was present and then voted to adjourn when it was ruled there was no quorum.

The NEA board of directors has approved a motion that calls for formation of study groups to facilitate the merger of all local affiliates of the association. In 11 Southern states, NEA members have to belong to separate local organizations, one for Negroes and one for whites.

TAKES BACK SEAT

London - (AP) - A novelty firm is selling masks of President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for $1.75 - twice the price of a mask of Frankenstein's monster.
