Studs Edge Ashland Junior Legion 3-2

Memorial Field, White City — Without using any one of the hits they obtained off rival pitcher John Rhodes, the Central Point Cheney Studs nicked Ashland 3 to 2 here Friday night in an American Legion junior baseball engagement.

The Studs capitalized on bases on balls, errors, stolen bases and passed balls for their runs while Ashland made use of both of its hits in its score production.

Victory gave Central Point a 5-4 fourth place standing in the Southern division of Area 4. Ashland is seventh with 1-9. Both aggregations have encounters today, weather permitting. Central Point opposes the Klamath Falls Hawks in a doubleheader at Klamath Falls and Ashland entertains Medford in a single game. Play ball is set for 1:30 p.m.

Pepper Whiffed 17 Cheney pitcher Larry Pepper struck out batters 17 times in his two-inning. He walked five.

Ashland grabbed its runs in the third inning when Terry Clark walked, Bob DeBoer singled, Ross Coldwell drew a base on balls and Jan Susee safetied Clark and DeBoer home.

Trouble brewed for the Studs in the bottom of the sixth inning when Tim Voth, Rhodes and Dennis Kindell were on base for Ashland on walks with two out. Count was then three balls and two strikes on David Barger.

Rhodes on second base broke too quickly as Pepper prepared to pitch again to Barger. Pepper moved to play to Rhodes who was well toward third. Voth broke from third toward home and the play was to the plate "hot boxing" Voth. Third baseman Pat Pepper tagged Voth out on the throw from catcher Darryl Summerfield. Central Point scored twice in the fourth inning. Neal Ellis was safe at first base on an error and stole second and third. A sharp breaking pitch got away from catcher Voth and he couldn't find the ball. Ellis charged home on the opportunity.

With two out Pat Pepper walked. He stole second, went to third on Voth's bad throw and scored on Voth's overthrow of third.

What proved to be the winning run crossed in the fifth panel. Neil Rivenburg walked and swiped second. Shortstop Kindell threw badly in returning the ball to the mound enabling Rivenburg to go to third base. Voth recovered the ball and his overthrow of third let Rivenburg tally.

Luis Alvarez, Pat Pepper and Howard Tomlinson rapped the hits for Central Point. Pepper's blow was a bunt neatly paced along the third base line. Rhodes walked three and whiffed five.

The Studs played without miscue. Bob Corliss is the probable pitcher for Central Point today against the Hawks in the counting game with Larry Mason slated to pitch in the second game. Dave Barger could get the call for Ashland against Medford.

LINESCORE: Ashland — 002 009 0—2 3 5 Central Point — 008 210 3—3 0 Rhodes and Voth; L. Pepper and Summerfield.

TWINS' INFIELDER Baltimore — (RP) — Minnesota shortstop Zollo Versalles is in the market for a new glove.

The usually slick — fielding Versalles committed five errors during Friday's doubleheader with Baltimore. He made three in the first game and two more in the nightcap. Pat Pepper tagged Voth out on the throw from catcher Darryl Summerfield. Central Point scored twice

THREE-RUN HOMER — Yogi Berra, player coach of the New York Yankees, crosses home plate after hitting a three-run homer in second inning in Saturday American league baseball game with Cleveland Indians. Scoring ahead of Yogi and offering congratulations are Joe Pepitone and Roger Maris. The Yankees won 11-6. (UPI)

Orioles Take Twins 2 to 1; Downing Nears Team Record

Baltimore — (UP) — Jackie Brandt celebrated his return to the line-up Saturday with a two-run triple to lead the Baltimore Orioles to a 2-1 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

Brandt, who had been out for 10 days with a pulled back muscle, hit his wind — blown three — bagger with two out in the third off starter Dick Stigman to score John Orsino and Louis Aparicio, who had singled.

Bonus rookie Dave McNally, who needed help from Stu Miller in the eighth, won his third game of the year against three losses. It was McNally's first win since April 27.

Cleveland — Southpaw Al Downing struck out 14 batters, coming within one of the New York team record, but still failed to finish the game as the league — leading Yankees downed the Cleveland Indians, 11-6, Saturday on the strength of a seven-run rally in the second inning.

Downing, a 22-year-old fireballer, gave up four runs, including solo homers by Max Alvis and Willie Tasby, before being relieved by Hal Reniff in the eighth with the bases loaded and two out. Reniff ended the threat by getting pinchhitter Fred Waitfield to fly out but he gave up a two — run homer to Mike De La Hoz in the ninth.

The late — inning trouble cost Downing a shot at the Yankee record of 15 strikeouts for a nine — inning game set by Bob Shawkey in 1927. Whitey Ford struck out 15 batters in an extra inning game in 1959.

Detroit — The ninth place Detroit Tigers reeled off their fifth straight victory Saturday, banging out 12 hits including Norm Cash's three — run homer and a solo homer by Rocky Colavito to down the Kansas City Athletics, 8-4.

Detroit, playing without all star rightfielder Al Kaline, who was sidelined with a pulled leg muscle but is expected to play tomorrow, fell behind 2-0 in the top of the third.

But Cash slammed his 12th homer into the left — centerfield seats after Gates Brown singled and Rocky Colavito doubled to put Detroit ahead 3-2.

After Detroit picked up its fourth run in the fourth inning on two wild pitches by starter and loser Ed Rakoz, the Tigers put it away with three runs in the fifth off reliever Ted Bowfield.

Jerry Anderson for the Grocers and Les Walker for JA each homered. John Payne, Walker and Chuck Hoyt each had two hits for Jay Allen.

2 Homers by Rutter Willie Barnum and Roy Harris divided the pitching for the Car team. Barnum allowed six hits and five of the runs while walking two and fanning two in three innings. Harris permitted no hits but walked five and allowed one run over the last four frames. He whiffed six. Duke Anderson of UG gave up 11 hits and fanned two. He allowed no bases on balls.

Larry Rutter and Jim Singler did some heavy hitting for CWA in a losing game. Rutter had four hits in four ups with two home runs. Singler hit three for four. Bob Cundance homered for Tru-Mix and he and Ron Weatherford each had two hits.

Weatherford, pitching an eight-hitter for TM, walked one and fanned five. Bill Tope, the CWA chucker, issued two free passes and struck out three in a seven-hit job.

Giants Take 5-3 Victory, Cards Lose 7th Straight

San Francisco — (UP) — Willie McCovey, homering in his fourth consecutive game, smashed a tie-breaking two-run shot across the right field fence to give the San Francisco Giants a 5-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday and hand them their seventh straight loss.

The blow, McCovey's 22nd of the season and eighth of the campaign against left-handed pitching, came in the seventh inning with two out at the expense of Ray Sadecki (4-5).

As a result, the Giants regained second place in the National league race. Southpaw Billy Pierce, now 3-5 for the season, limited the Cardinals to four hits and singled to open the seventh. Then after Sadecki retired the next two batters, McCovey unloaded.

Los Angeles — A pop fly lost in the sun by second baseman Jim Gilliam enabled two Cincinnati runners to scamper home and give the Reds a 3-1 victory Saturday over the National league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

Right-hander Jim Maloney, mixing changeup curves liberally with his fast ball, won his 13th game of the year against only three defeats. He allowed seven hits and struck out five batters.

Gilliam lost Gordy Coleman's high pop in the bright hazy sky with two outs in the fourth inning. Bob Skinner and Vada Pinson, who had successive singles and advanced to third and second on an infield out, both scored on the lost pop fly. Coleman went sliding into second base.

Chicago — Don Demeter backed up Cal McLish's three-hitter Saturday with two home runs in a 6-0 victory for the Philadelphia Phillies which ended a Chicago Cubs winning streak at five games. The Phils sent Bob Buhl down to his sixth setback of the season in a hurry, scoring all six runs off the seasoned right-hander in the first three innings.

Demeter drove in five runs with shots over the left field wall in the first and third innings and Don Hoak belted a lead-off homer in the second. Singles by John Callison and Tony Gonzalez preceded Demeter's first inning homer and Roy Sievers was on base with a single when Demeter walked his 15th home run of the season in the third.

McLish, upping his record to 8-4, struck out three, walked only two, and was aided by four double plays.

notification is made that the new lighted Jackson park diamond is ready for use. The schedule could switch to doubleheaders by midweek.

Bob Haworth said Friday that it might be at least Wednesday before the new diamond could be put in use. Much depends upon the weather.

A backstop was being completed today and it was hoped to get started on putting sandy loam in the baselines. That work could be completed Monday. Targeting of the lights is slated for Monday evening.

Haworth said that ball park dedication ceremonies are not presently scheduled.

Final Postponed At Wimbledon Wimbledon, Eng. — (UP) — The women's singles final between Billie Jean Moffitt, Long Beach, Calif., and Margaret Smith of Australia in the Wimbledon tennis championships was postponed Saturday until Monday because of rain.

It marked the first time rain has postponed the Wimbledon finals in 27 years and only the third time in the 77-year history of the championships. The Moffitt-Smith match was scheduled to be first on Saturday's program on the historic center court at the all-England court, and was to be followed by three doubles finals which now also are postponed until Monday. There is no Sunday competition.

Pride Rates High in Golf Tourney

By HENRY W. THORNBERRY Lythan-St. Annes, England — (UP) — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player — the big three of the American pro golf circuit — agreed Saturday that pride is as important as money to retain the championship touch.

"Once you reach the top, it's enough incentive to stay there," said Palmer after his three — under — par 69 British Ryder Cup captain Dai Rees, 4 and 3, Friday. "I love playing golf well, I hate losing. I like the money, of course, but it's really a matter of pride when people expect you to be first."

"I don't think having enough money kills the urge to win," said Nicklaus. Player added, "I have enough to retire now if I want to, but I want to prove I am the best golfer in the world."

Palmer, Nicklaus, Herman Barron, Doug Sanders, Bob Marshall, Jack Isaacs and Phil Rodgers form the American contingent that will compete in the British Open beginning next Wednesday. Barron, Marshall and Isaacs qualified for the tournament Friday while Palmer and Nicklaus played on the "Rest of the World" team which scored a 6-3 victory over a select British golf team in a special tournament at Blackpool put on by Prince Philip.

Nicklaus, Palmer, Rodgers and Sanders qualified automatically for the championship proper, which features a 120 — man field competing for three days on the Royal Lythan and St. Annes course.

The 20 golfers who competed in the Prince Philip tournament had lunch with the prince and each received a pair of solid gold cuff links worth $120 with the duke's initials inscribed. There were numerous prizes of clothing and other items during the tournament but no one won the $14,000 bonus offered for a hole — in — one on the 169-yard 17th hole.
