

Mrs. R. L. Smith

Wedding in Germany Of Interest Here

From Germany came news last week of the marriage of Miss Carolyn Lois Miller and Capt. R. L. Smith. The wedding ceremony was performed June 15 in the Nurnberg Post chapel of the U. S. Army at Furth, Bavaria.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Miller, 2200 Ruhl Way, Medford, who has been in Nurnberg teaching children of the American Army personnel stationed there. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Smith, Cleveland, Ohio.

Capt. Robert W. Rippe, interdenominational minister for the 20th Station hospital chapel, performed the 1:30 o'clock afternoon ceremony.

Volrad Pfucker, Nurnberg, gave the bride in marriage. Her floor length sheath gown was of lace over taffeta with overskirt of nylon chiffon. Her fingertip length veil was of silk net held from a lotus flower crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Ann Moldenshardt, Erlanger, Germany, also an American teacher, was the honor attendant. Her street length sheath dress was of pink peau de sole and her flowers were pink carnations.

Lt. Paul Mitchell, was best man, and ushering were Lt. Constantine Kalandros and Lt. Phillip Darienzo, all Nurnberg.

Vases of pink and white carnations with potted hydrangeas and glorioxa decorated the altar.

The reception held in the Kolb Officers club and the ceremony were attended by some 60 guests.

The couple made their wedding trip to Denmark, Norway

Bride-Elect Honored at Luncheon

Miss Roberta Sleetter, bride-elect of Edward G. Foxley Jr., Portland, was honored at a bridal shower and luncheon given recently by Miss Lou Elsa Voegtly in the Rogue Valley Country club.

The luncheon table decorations were in pink and white. Decorations included a pink nosegay with an umbrella tree and smaller bouquets of pink sweetpeas and white daisies in miniature white sprinkling cans.

The guests included the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Robert W. Sleetter; Mrs. Donald D. McLaughlin, Mrs. Monty C. Penwell, Mrs. Tom D. Laurance, Mrs. Robert W. Christensen, Jacklyn Creager, Judy Potter, Bonnie Van Dyke, Judy Bell, Karen Carpenter, Joyce Pearson, Mira Frohnmayer and Patricia Campbell.

The bride-elect also is a daughter of the late Dr. Robert W. Sleetter.

Mr. Foxley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Foxley, Salem.

The wedding date has been set for July 26.

Miss Sleetter is a University of Oregon graduate with a degree of medical technology. The bridegroom-elect, a Willamette university graduate, completed his sophomore year this spring at the University of Oregon medical school.

Blind Tenor Will Appear In Concert

Ashland - Carlton Eldridge, a tenor, will appear at Southern Oregon college Tuesday, July 9, at 1 p.m. in Churchill auditorium.

For the past 14 years he has been in charge of vocal work at Springfield Junior college where, besides teaching voice, he directs several choirs and assists in the production of operas. He received his bachelor of music and master of music degrees at Michigan State university and did advanced study at State University of Iowa.

Although being without sight, he does not consider blindness a handicap. All of his work, including the direction of choral music, is done from specially prepared Braille scores.

Townpeople are invited to attend the assembly free of charge.

Ceremony Held In Navy Chapel

Ashland - In a ceremony performed June 28 in the U.S. Navy chapel, Pensacola, Fla. Cecilia Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Anderson, 710 Pennsylvania avenue, Ashland, became the bride of Michael A. Watts. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Watts, Oakridge, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Watts are both Ashland high school graduates and Mrs. Watts attended Southern Oregon college for one year.

Mr. Watts is on the administrative staff of the U. S. Naval hospital.

Ashland Girl Receives Grant

Ashland - Miss Betty Martin, 1963 Ashland high school graduate, has received word that she has been awarded one of the state scholarships, a cash one-year grant that may be used in any accredited Oregon college or university.

Miss Martin, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McLean, 117 Almond street, plans to enter the University of Oregon in September.

Fund-Raising Event To Benefit Rogue Gallery

A fund-raising party sponsored by the Rogue Valley Art association for the modernization of the Rogue Gallery will be held Friday, July 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter, "Topsides," Old Stage road. Because admission is limited to 100 persons, reservations may be mailed to the gallery, Box 763, Medford, by July 12, according to party chairman, Robertson E. Collins.

Funds raised from the admission charge and the sale of script for refreshments, will be used to cover the cost of paint, new wall coverings, and improved lighting.

An auction of art works created by members of the association board of directors will be a feature at the party. Eugene Bennett, Jacksonville artist, will act as chairman of the auction.

Guests will also be able to swim, play badminton or ping pong.

Alaskan Guests Leave for Home

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ousterhout and children, Dianne and Sally, left Saturday for their home in Ketchikan, Alaska, after a visit with relatives in the valley.

Mr. Ousterhout, the son of G. E. Ousterhout, Dutton road, completed his master's degree in June at the University of Hawaii. His wife, the former Ann Peterson of Portland, completed her master's degree, also, and will be dean of girls at Ketchikan High school this fall.

In addition to the actors and actresses needed for production of the Oregon Shakespearean festival are numerous designers, technicians and costumers. Part of that crew were at North's Chuck Wagon restaurant last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. John North and Mrs. Eleanore Edmonds entertained company members at dinner. Left to right are Marie Chesley, costume designer; Richard Hay, technical director and designer; Thomas Beagle, lighting assistant; Deane Evans, switchboard operator; Hugh Evans, lighting designer and director, and Gene Chesley, master carpenter. Hugh Evans also will play the part of Sir Hugh Evans in "Merry Wives of Windsor." (Classic photo)

The Oregon Shakespearean Festival company actors were entertained at dinner last Sunday evening at North's Chuck Wagon restaurant. Among them were (left to right) Fred Chapman, Daniel Hoppe and Judy Hoppe. Mr. Chapman will play Dull in "Love's Labour's Lost" and Mr. Hoppe has been cast as Paris in "Romeo and Juliet." Mrs. Hoppe is a newcomer to the festival and has drawn the part of Mistress Page in "Merry Wives of Windsor." (Classic photo)

Couple Wed In California

Ashland - Announcement of the marriage of Miss Christina Raaphorst and Lt. Philip T. Spieth has been received. The bride, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Pieter Raaphorst, Garden Grove, Calif., formerly lived in Ashland where she attended high school and Southern Oregon college. Her aunt is Mrs. Gertrude DeYoung, Ashland, who attended the June 15 ceremony in Santa Ana, Calif.

Lieutenant Spieth is the son of Dr. Herman T. Spieth, chancellor of the University of California at Riverside, and Mrs. Spieth. He is in flight training with the U. S. Marine Corps at Pensacola, Fla., where the couple will make their home.

Visiting
