

Catholic Church Scene Of Housel-Bobbett Rites

Ashland - Miss Janet Bobbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bobbett, 400 Liberty street, became the bride of David Housel June 29 in a high noon ceremony at Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic church. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Housel, 547 Oakdale drive, Medford.

The double ring service was performed by the Rev. William Walsh before more than 60 guests. The candlelighted altar had a background of white gladioli.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length frock of organza and Chantilly lace over taffeta. The Sabrina neckline was embroidered with sequins and seed pearls and the skirt of controlled fullness was made with a front panel of lace. A petal crown of Chantilly lace with inner tiara of iridescent crystals and pearls held her elbow length veil of illusion net. She carried a white prayer book and a white orchid.

Miss Karen Hinrichs as maid of honor wore a blue and white flowered dress. Miss Joy Fahrenhurst, bridesmaid, wore a similarly styled dress in pink. Both wore matching small veiled hats and carried pink carnation bouquets.

Dwight Kenner, Medford, was best man, and John Murray, Grants Pass, ushered. Professional and recessional organ music was played by Miss Marilyn Fellers. After the church ceremony parents of the couple hosted a reception at the Housel home in Medford. Miss Mary Housel and Miss Nancy Housel, sisters of the bridegroom,

LaMara Ann Gurney Bride of Lloyd Dunham

Miss LaMara Ann Gurney became the bride of Lloyd Arden Dunham in a single ring ceremony held June 30, at the First Methodist church. The three o'clock wedding was performed by Dr. George Roseberry.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gurney, 1416 Whitman avenue. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunham, Savage Creek road, Rogue River.

The bride wore a floor-length sheath dress of organza over taffeta with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, and three-quarter length sleeves. The detachable overskirt in modified bell shape, was fastened at the front with a self fabric bow. Her elbow length veil of handrolled silk illusion was held by a satin pillbox hat trimmed with appliques of reemboroidered Alencon lace and pearls.

Her single strand of pearls were a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white, orchid and pink roses, and white stephanotis on a white Bible. Mr. Gurney gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Charlene Francis was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were the Misses Sandra Meggers, Ashland, and Karlene Wiltermood. Candlelighters were the Misses Rhonda and Rholinda Stevens.

The attendants wore jacket sheath dresses of lavender and pink taffeta with bell skirts, and matching shoes. Their veil headpieces were of matching roses and nylon tulle.

LaMara Jane Parker served as flower girl and Danny Parker was ring bearer.

Gary M. Huntington, Ashland, served as best man, and Jack L. Spencer, cousin of the bride, and Raymond Gurney Jr., brother of the bride, were ushers.

The church was decorated with pink, white and lavender gladioli.

Mrs. Gurney wore a pink linen dress with a three-quarter length coat of matching lace, with matching accessories.

ies for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Dunham chose a pink shantung dress with pink and white accessories.

More than 200 guests attended the wedding which was followed by a garden reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Statten, 1132 Leland avenue.

For their wedding trip to the Oregon and California coasts, the bride wore a blue and white Italian knit suit with white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Oceanside, Calif., High school. The bridegroom was graduated from Rogue River High school and is employed at Vancouver Plywood, Grants Pass. They will be at home at the LeMoss apartments, Grants Pass.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gurney, uncle and aunt of the bride, and son Gary, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lakey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lakey, and Mrs.
