

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Eldon Clark

Miss Starkey Is Bride Of Gene Eldon Clark

Miss Melba Ruth Starkey became the bride of Gene Eldon Clark in an eight o'clock evening ceremony at the First Church of the Nazarene, June 22. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Qualls, Phoenix, in the presence of about 150 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Starkey, 1733 South Peach street, are parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark, Salem, are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's ballerina length dress was of lace over satin, with a scalloped neckline and hemline. Her fingertip length veil was held by a crystal crown and she carried a bouquet of white and orchid gladioli.

Mrs. Emmanuel Elter, Grand Coulee, Wash., was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Pat Moloy and Mrs. Robert Hayes, a cousin of the bride, were the other attendants. Cindy Starkey, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Cary Qualls, Phoenix, was ring bearer.

Lavender street length dresses with full skirts were worn by the attendants. Each carried a bouquet of orchid and white gladioli.

Elmer Tompkins, uncle of the bridegroom, served as best man and Lynn Schaap and Glen Devriese, both Salem, cousins of the bridegroom, were ushers. Candelighters were Royal Harger and Dale Tompkins, both cousins of the bride.

Program Held By Rebekahs

A program was presented for International Goodwill day and the Fourth of July at the last meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge. Members participating in the program were Mrs. Harry Bryant, Mrs. Agnes Furch, Mrs. H. J. Mang, Mrs. J. D. Brummond, Mrs. Joe Cave and Mrs. Ethel Garrett.

It was reported that Mrs. Louise Brockway and Mrs. Ora-Mae Walden gave a talk on Hawaii at the luncheon held recently at the home of Mrs. Henry Guss. Miss Barbara Beer won a prize. Mrs. Lee Garrett was judged the best hula dancer and Mrs. Rella Norris, best Hawaiian costume.

The next meeting of the lodge will be held July 15.

Chapter Plans Coffee Hour

Medford-Chapter CP of the PEO Sisterhood will meet for a coffee hour at the home of Mrs. John Graff, 31 Geneva street Wednesday, July 10 at 10 a.m.

The meeting is called for the purpose of hearing a convention report of a recent state convention held in Portland at Lewis and Clark college to be given by Mrs. Donald Gardner, chapter president.

Mr. and Mrs. James Erwin McMillan

Activities Reviewed

Ashland - Continued cool weather made the Garden club's planned outdoor picnic an indoor affair last week.

The group's next picnic will be in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fraley on Granite street.

The meeting in the Civic clubhouse on Winburn Way was conducted by the new president, Mrs. E. A. Bay, and was mainly reports from the state convention by Mrs. Ella Hendrixson and S. J. Church - the president and Mrs. Richard Westerfield, who was awarded first place for horticultural essay. Also attending were Mrs. R. Drew Lamb and Mrs. V. W. Gore.

The Ashland club won recognition for many of its activities and projects. Its year book, compiled by Mrs. Clarence Mathes, won the state blue ribbon, and the club received a red ribbon for the scrapbook arranged by Mrs. Westerfield.

Nona Westerfield followed in her mother's footsteps by winning first place blue ribbon for a wildflower conservation poster in junior division.

Progress report on parade float plans was made by Mrs. William Davis. Other chairmen told of decorating tables for the Tudor Guild casting night dinner and of additional plantings being made on the Water street hillside.

Mrs. O. C. Maust concluded the afternoon meeting with a talk and demonstration on the correct way to start shrub cuttings.

Miss Annette J. Richmire (left), home economics teacher at Rogue River High school, received a bronze plaque from Mrs. Sigana Earle, director of food and homemaking education for Seventeen magazine, in the ballroom of the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City, recently. Miss Richmire was saluted as Seventeen magazine's 1963 "Homemaking Teacher of the Year." She won the award "for initiating and carrying out a consumer buying program designed to teach girls how to use money wisely."

Garden Wedding Held In Anderson, California

Cave Junction - The garden at the home of the bridegroom's parents was chosen as the scene for the marriage of Miss Gloria Mae Hare and James Erwin McMillan.

The seven o'clock evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Dunn of the First Southern Baptist church, Anderson, Calif., on June 15.

Miss Hare is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hare, Cave Junction. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McMillan, Anderson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon length frock fashioned with white lace bodice and skirt of white chiffon over taffeta. Her bouffant veil was held with a tiara of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids encircled by pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Sandra Hare, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Patricia Streeter, Los Angeles, cousin of the bride; Miss Evelyn Hare, her sister; and Miss Evon McMillan, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. The attendants' dresses were pastel shades of green, yellow and blue and they carried bouquets of white orchids.

Bambi Bella, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a yellow frock.

Charles Slote served as best man and Gary Pope, Ronald Hopson and Donald McMillan, brother of the bridegroom, all Anderson, were ushers.

Wedding music was by Mrs. John Bella.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. McMillan wore a white and pink floral print dress with white accessories. Mrs. Hare chose an aquamarine dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of cattleya orchids.

Following the marriage, a buffet supper was held by the bridegroom's parents, with about 100 guests attending.

The couple were honored with a second reception given by the bride's parents the following evening at the Emmanuel Methodist church, Cave Junction.

The bride is a graduate of Illinois Valley High school, and attended Shasta Junior college and Oakland City college. The bridegroom was graduated from Anderson, Calif., High school, and is a senior at the University of California where he is majoring in physics.

The couple are at home at 1915 1/2 Addison, apartment 105, Berkeley, Calif. Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. Earl Streeter, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Leuscher, Gerber, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hopson, Mrs. Erwin Schmidt, Grants and daughter, Sacramento, Pass.
