

Sandy Koufax Hurls Eighth 1963 Shutout for Dodgers

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer
Okay, baseball experts, who is the National league's top lefthanded pitcher, Warren Spahn or Sandy Koufax?
If you are a Spahn fan you can quote statistics to back your argument all day long, and maybe through the night, Koufax fans can wrap up their argument in a hurry, mostly because Sandy hasn't been around nearly as long as the soon-to-be-43 Spahn. But they are imposing figures at that.
Koufax, who was only seven years old when Spahn began his major league career with the Boston Braves in 1942, hurled his eighth shutout of the season Sunday, only two short of the National league record of 10 set by Mort Cooper of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1942, as the NL leading Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0, in the first game of a doubleheader.

Spahn matched that performance about six hours later when he set the Houston Colts down on five hits in a 4-0 victory. It was Spahn's fourth shutout of the season and the 59th of his long career.
The victory was Spahn's 12th of the season against four losses. Koufax, who allowed the Reds just three hits, is 14-3. Both are scheduled for some duty on Tuesday in the All-Star game in Cleveland. Spahn goes into the classic with an earned run average of 2.67. Sandy has an even more glittering average of 1.73.

Philadelphia Phillies clipped the third-place Chicago Cubs, 3-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates buried the hapless New York Mets, 11-5.
Boyer Fumbles Grounder
The Giants struggled for three hours and 55 minutes before beating the Cardinals in their opener, the winning run coming across when Ken Boyer fumbled pinch-hitter Joe Pagan's grounder with the bases loaded and one out in the bottom of the 15th inning. Bill White's 14th homer gave the Cards a 3-2 lead in the 13th but the Giants got that one back on a single by rookie Jim Hart and a double by Ed Bailey.
Stan Musial rapped a two-run homer in the seventh of the nightcap to break a scoreless tie and the Cards went on to score three runs in the ninth as Bob Gibson picked up his eighth victory. Juan Marichal (13-4) was the loser. A crowd of 42,787, the largest turnout in Candlestick Park's history, saw the doubleheader.

Herman Barron Senior Champ

Lytham-St. Annes, England — Herman Barron earned the admiration of English fans with the sportsmanship he displayed in winning the World Seniors professional golf championship.
The 53-year-old U.S. Seniors champion from White Plains, N.Y., won the title by defeating George Evans, the British titleholder, 3 and 2, Sunday on the old St. Annes links.

Portland — The 31st annual Multnomah Kennel club racing meet will begin at Fairview Park tonight. Eleven races are scheduled on the opening night of the 60-night meet.

Wheeler's Loggers Champs at Albany

Albany — John Wheeler, Loggers of Medford on Sunday carried home the championship trophy of the Albany Softball tournament.
They downed the Corvallis Merchants 2 to 0 Sunday after beating the same club 2 to 1 Saturday night in the double-elimination event.
Milan Kurtz, of the Loggers, was named outstanding pitcher and Gordon Mellicke, Logger shortstop, the outstanding player.
Actually the teams had to quit Sunday before an official game had been completed. Rain prevented play after four innings had been completed. Four and one-half innings are required for a regulation contest.
In the first inning yesterday Fuz McCay doubled, advanced on a grounder and Kurtz singled to bring home Kurtz homered in the fourth inning. Only one hit was allowed by Kurtz in the four frames. He walked one and fanned four.
In the Saturday fray Bob Smith singled home Wheeler's tying and winning runs in seventh inning. Weddie got on base on an error and the bases were filled when Jess Munyon and Jack Brown got on board on fielder's option bunts. Corvallis scored in the fourth inning on a walk and two errors.
Munyon had two hits and Mellicke tripled.
JW pitcher Vern Collins whiffed four and walked four and gave up two hits in four innings plus. Kurtz allowed a hit, fanned four and walked one the rest of the way.

Wimbledon Toga Taken By Smith

Wimbledon, England — Husky blonde Margaret Smith, a prohibitive favorite, became the first Australian to win the Wimbledon women's singles tennis title today when she scored a 6-3, 6-4 revenge victory over American "upset queen" Billie Jean Moffitt, 19.
Miss Moffitt, a student from Los Angeles State College, had scored a stunning upset against Miss Smith in an early round of this tournament last year.
But this time the hard-hitting Aussie girl was not to be denied, even though a crowd of 17,000 at the center court of the all England Club cheered for the unseeded American girl. The crowd even reached the point of cheering when Miss Smith made an error.
Miss Smith, currently regarded as the world's top feminine net star, went into today's match such a heavy choice that British bookmakers refused to quote any odds against her. And she was looking to wipe out the memory of the fact that Miss Moffitt upset her last year, making her the first top-seeded player in Wimbledon history to lose in the first round.
Today's match originally was scheduled for last Saturday, but was postponed until today because of rain.
Miss Moffitt, who topped three seeded players en route to the final, sought to become the first unseeded woman player to take the title in the 77-year history of the famed English tournament.
Joyce and Linda Yee, sisters from Seattle, topped Mary Sherar of Seattle and Mrs. Gai 6-2, 7-5 in the women's doubles finals.
The men's singles championship between top-seeded Horst Ritter of Palo Alto, Calif., and third-seeded Jerry Cromwell of Long Beach, Calif., and the men's doubles finals match were postponed until today.

Gold Cup Race Won By Musson

Detroit — Pint-sized Ron Musson turned giant killer Sunday to upset all-conquering Bill Muncy and set a blazing new speed record in winning the 58th running of the famed Gold Cup race.
Musson, a mere 5-7 and 155 pounds, powered Miss Bardahl around the three-mile Detroit river course at a sizzling average of 165.212 miles per hour to edge Bill Cantrell and Gale V for the $10,000 first prize and the coveted Gold Cup.
Musson and Miss Bardahl had 1,500 points to 1,400 for Gale V, which won the final heat.
Muncy and the famed Miss Thriftway, winners of the last two Gold Cup races, finished sixth in the field of 12.
Miss Bardahl won all three of her preliminary heats to pick up 1,200 points going into the final heat.

Senators Chalk Up Seventh Straight Victory

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer
Gil Hodges has borrowed a page from former boss Leo Durocher's managerial handbook to help spark the Washington Senators to their longest winning streak in 14 years. Durocher called it "the Senators ran their winning streak to seven games Sunday when they defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 7-3 and 6-4. It is the Senators' longest winning streak since 1949 when they reeled off nine straight victories.

Bennie Daniels pitched a five-hitter and struck out 12 batters to win his third game of the season in the opener while Don Zimmer, ex-Dodger of Hodges, sent the Senators off in front in the nightcap with a grand slam in the first inning.
Jim Duckworth was credited with his third win in the second game although he needed the relief aid of Dick Rudolph, who pitched perfect ball for the final 2 1/2 innings. Zimmer had two doubles in the first game and a homer and a single in the nightcap to lead Washington's attack.
The New York Yankees scored a 7-4 10-inning win after losing to the Cleveland Indians, 11-3, the Chicago White Sox downed the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, in 12 innings the Baltimore Orioles shaded the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, in 10 innings and the Kansas City Athletics won, 8-7, after suffering a 5-1 loss to the Detroit Tigers in other American league games.
Jim Bunning struck out eight and pitched a seven-hitter to win his sixth game for the Tigers but the Athletics rallied for seven runs in the seventh inning of the nightcap to split the doubleheader. A single by Charlie Lau and a double by Chuck Essegian were the big blows of the rally which ended a six-game Kansas City losing streak and a six-game Detroit winning streak.

Nationals Choices in Star Tilt

Cleveland, Ohio — (UPI) — American league managers, putting the pennant race ahead of everything else, had Ralph Houk backed into an All-Star corner today.
Houk was faced with an "either-or" dilemma—whether to go with Ken McBride of the Los Angeles Angels, who will have had two days rest for Tuesday's 34th All-Star game, or his own rookie right-hander, Jim Bouton of the Yankees, who pitched two-thirds of an inning Sunday.
Meanwhile, Alvin Dark of the National league had well-rested southpaw Jim O'Toole of Cincinnati ready to go, and because of the uncertainty of the American league pitching, the Nationals were 3-2 favorites although playing in an American league park.
"If they let me, I'll name an either-or pitcher," said Houk, who was scheduled to name his starting hurler at a press conference today. "If they don't, well, I don't know which pitcher I'll name."

PASCUZZI TRIUMPHS

Bend — Mrs. Amel Pascuzzi of Vancouver, Wash., finished with a 166 to capture first place in the annual Mirror Pond women's handicapped golf tournament Saturday. Mrs. George Calderwood of Eugene snared low net honors in the 0-15 handicap division with 148. The two-day, 36-hole tournament got underway Friday at Juniper Golf Club near Redmond.

Diana Gai Titlist

Portland — (UPI) — Second-seeded Diana Gai of Oakland, Calif., defeated top-seeded Barbara Chandler of Boise 2-6, 6-4, 6-4 to win the women's singles title in the Oregon State Tennis championships Sunday.
The finals match was played indoors at the Portland Armory because the Irvington Club courts were soaked by rain.
Joyce and Linda Yee, sisters from Seattle, topped Mary Sherar of Seattle and Mrs. Gai 6-2, 7-5 in the women's doubles finals.
The men's singles championship between top-seeded Horst Ritter of Palo Alto, Calif., and third-seeded Jerry Cromwell of Long Beach, Calif., and the men's doubles finals match were postponed until today.

Arn Palmer Favorite

Lytham-St. Annes, England — It's going to be Arnold Palmer against the field in the British Open golf tournament.
That's what the experts say, and it's also what Palmer's rivals say. Even Jack Nicklaus, a man who has beaten Palmer at his best, is touting Arnie as the likely winner.
"Arnie plays fantastically well over here," says Nicklaus. "If he continues his present 'slump,' he should win easily."
British odds-makers have installed Palmer as the 2-1 favorite in the field of 120 golfers which tees off Wednesday on the 6,757-yard, par-70 Royal Lytham and St. Annes course. Nicklaus is quoted at 7-1, four-time British Open champion Peter Thomson of Australia is rated at 8-1, and Australia's Kel Nagle is listed at 10-1.
Nicklaus' pessimism is caused by the "tight fairways" which he and other experts here insist favor Palmer's game.
